

Lois Hill To Wed

Wedding bells will ring on Friday, March 12 for Miss Lois Hill, daughter of Mrs. Pearl M. Hill and Thomas Hill of Valley Junction, and William L. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Anderson. The ceremony will be quietly performed in the fireplace room of the First Congregational church at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Seth Huntington officiating. Thomas Hill, jr. will give his younger sister in marriage and she has asked Mrs. Gene Knudson to be her honor attendant. William Franklin Hill, brother of the bride, will serve as best man. A wedding reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, jr. on Leslie street. After a honeymoon the couple will be at home in Salem where he is in business. The bride-to-be is employed at the state accident prevention office.

Society...Clubs Music...The Home

Baptists to Meet
The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church is planning a Thursday meeting at 3 o'clock. Mrs. J. W. Humphrey is in charge of worship, Mrs. L. G. Prescott of the program. Hostesses will be Mrs. Henry Cross, Mrs. Lloyd Anderson, Mrs. Earl Hatfield and Mrs. Robert Bristow. Love gift boxes will be opened.

The Kingwood Garden club was entertained Thursday by Mrs. Fred Kuhn. A report on flowers taken to the Cottage Home was made, and all gave information about growing vegetables and flowers. Twelve members were present.

Juniors Plan For Benefit

Four new members were initiated at the Salem Junior Woman's club meeting Monday night including Mrs. Marie Haines, Mrs. Ralph Pickering, Mrs. Henry Woodbury and Mrs. George Sennatt. Mrs. J. Garth Wilkinson gave a report on the Easter Bonnet bridge benefit to be held March 22 at the clubhouse. Miller's will furnish the hats and Larson's the hair styling. Her committee includes Mesdames Thomas P. Hill, III, Cedric Reaney, Roy Mink, Leo Dunlway, Floyd Emmons, Leo Brockway, Ralph Solum, George Sennatt, Sydney Levene, James Mohat and Miss Lucille Satter. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Reaney, 6335.

The club voted funds for the Brownie and Blue Bird groups the club is sponsoring. Reports were given by Mrs. Carey Martin on the library book project the club maintains at Hillcrest; by Mrs. Fred Gast on the second and third district board meetings for juniors held in Portland; and Mrs. C. M. Collins reported on the Salem Woman's club meeting on Saturday at which the Junior club will be guests. Mrs. Oliver Manfield will show slides on Alaska at the meeting.

Future plans were made for the General Federation convention to be held in Portland, May 23-28 at which the Salem Junior woman's club will be in charge of the Junior reception, Sunday night, May 23. A special spring sports dance to raise funds for the convention will be held April 17 with Mrs. Henry Woodbury, chairman.

Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mrs. Thomas P. Hill, III, and Mrs. Carey Martin will be reporters for the club paper, "The Boomerang" this month.

Secretaries at Business Meeting

A full schedule of business was handled at the Monday meeting of the Cascade chapter, National Secretaries Association at the Salem coffee shop. Miss Lois D. Manning was elected vice president, to take the place of Miss Maxine Meyers who has resigned and Miss Arlene Wykoff was named corresponding secretary to replace Mrs. Darlene Lundberg, also resigned.

Mrs. Ruby Hughes announced the date of a rummage sale as April 9 and 10, and offered to conduct a refresher course in shorthand for the members. A style show will be the club's May project and a membership drive June's.

The chapter arranged to pay for a two week's scholarship for a girl to the Camp Fire Girls camp this summer and to pay for any clothing needed. This, they plan, will be an annual project.

Reports of the regional convention held in February in Portland revealed the efforts of the National Secretaries' association to raise standards for secretaries, comparable to a CPA rating. This educational program would be conducted through state colleges and universities.

Clubs to Be Honored

Several bridge club gatherings are on the social agenda this week. Mrs. John Heitzel has invited members of her club to her Leslie street home Thursday afternoon for a bridge luncheon.
