

Lois Hill Bride of Friday

The fireplace room of the First Congregational church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Lois Hill and Thomas Hill of Valley Junction, to William L. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Anderson of West Salem, Friday night. At 8 o'clock the Rev. Seth Huntington officiated at the impressive rites, which were performed before the fireplace banked with arrangements of pink and white snapdragons and lilies.

For her wedding the bride chose a smart grey and bon bon pink stripe wool suit fashioned with box jacket and straight skirt. Her hat and gloves were of pink and her accessories were grey. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid. Thomas Hill, jr. gave his youngest sister in marriage.

Mrs. Gene Knudson was the bride's honor matron and wore a mist blue suit with black hat and accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white gladioli. William Franklin Hill, brother of the bride, was best man.

Mrs. Hill attended her daughter's nuptials in a grey dress with violet hat and Mrs. Anderson wore a brown suit with beige and brown accessories for the ceremony. Their corsages were of gardenias and violets.

The newlyweds were honored at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, jr. on Leslie street. Mrs. Hill cut the cake and Mrs. Hugh William McElhinny, sister of the bride, presided at the coffee urn.

Mr. Anderson and his bride will be at home in Salem at 320 Division street following their wedding trip.
