

Bridal Plans Revealed by Couples

March brides-elect are busy completing plans for their weddings, trousseau shopping and attending a round of pre-nuptial parties.

At the First Evangelical United Brethren church on March 25 Miss Donna Unruh, daughter of Mrs. Earl A. Unruh, and Sydney Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Murray of Vancouver, Wash., will exchange marriage vows. The Rev. Wilmer Brown will officiate at the 8:30 o'clock ceremony. Miss Edith Fairham will be soloist and William Fawk organist. Lighting the tapers will be Mrs. Donald Beecroft and Miss Rosabelle Ross.

Robert Earl Unruh will give his sister in marriage. She has asked Mrs. Thomas C. Stevenson (Delphine Riney) to be her matron of honor and Miss Viola Swanson her bridesmaid. Donald Vestell of Woodburn will serve as best man and ushers include Larry Shaw, Gordon Doncan, Thomas C. Stevenson and Gene Kester of Portland. A wedding reception will be held in the church parlors.

Yocum-Townsend Rites
Miss Marilyn Townsend and Donald Yocum will be married on Saturday, March 27, at the First Congregational church. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Townsend of Spokane and the groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Yocum, who recently moved from Salem to Atwater, Calif. The afternoon ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Seth Huntington at 4 o'clock. James Rangland will sing and Miss Aldene Gould will be organist.

Lighting the tapers will be the Misses Dennis and Patricia Tindall of Toledo. Mr. Townsend will give his daughter in marriage.

Miss Marilyn Meister of Spokane will be the honor maid and bridesmaids will be Miss Virginia Baik of Tigard and Miss Mary Libby of Mt. Vernon. Wash. Betty Lou Graber, daughter of the Leo Grabers, will be flower girl. Deryl Yocum will be his brother's best man and ushers are Richard, Raymond and Ralph Yocum, cousins of the groom-to-be. A reception will be held in the fireplace room.

Gwenda Boyer Tells Plans
Wedding plans have been completed for the marriage of Miss Gwenda Boyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer T. Boyer, and Bernard O. Grindle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Grindle of Terre Haute, Indiana, who will exchange vows on Sunday, March 28, at the Jason Lee Methodist church. Dr. Louis Kirby will officiate at the 3 o'clock nuptials. Wesley Bollinger will be the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist.

Lighting the tapers before the bridal party enters will be Mrs. Newell Williams, Jr., and Miss Patsy Kerber. Mr. Boyer will give his daughter in marriage. Miss Alice Adams will be the honor maid and Miss Beverly McMillan the bridesmaid. Joan and Jerry Silke, children of the Paul Silkes, will serve as flower girl and ring bearer. Jerry Boyer will stand with the groom-elect as best man and seating the guests will be Loel Wright and Newell Williams, Jr. A reception will follow in the church parlors.

Copettes met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Burke on North Winter street. Refreshments were served by the hosts with Mrs. L. Weaver and Mrs. G. Edwards assisting. Others attending were Mesdames Luella Charlton, Joyce Skinner, Dorothy Schuetz, Ethel Tauffest, Marie Wilson, Betty Odle, Edna Main, Laura Scott, Elsie Parker and Marianne Esplan. Next meeting will be with Mrs. H. Tauffest, 764 S. Commercial street on March 23 at 8 o'clock.

St. Anne's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. Glenn Paxson in Morningside Monday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Charles McClelland, Mrs. Walter Socolofsky and Mrs. Homer Goulet Jr., will be assisting hostesses.

Taking an active part in the 36th anniversary of the Girl Scouts is Mrs. Paul Bale, leader of troop 50, and three troop members, left to right, Judy Bale, Elaine Morrow and Dorothy Lee Stewart. The anniversary is being celebrated by a nationwide "giving" party featuring the Girl Scout "Clothes for Friendship" and "Seeds for Peace" projects. Mrs. Bale has been leader of this group of girls since they were Brownies. Seven of the original girls are still members of the troop. This troop has been sending kits of clothing and food to a French family for two years and in the above picture the leader and girls are looking at the scrap book of pictures and correspondence sent by the French family. The sewing committee will be in charge Monday at the home of Mrs. Stuart Johns, 3890 Monroe street. A covered dish for lunch will be served. Pillow tops and 600 favors are to be made for Roseburg hospital and 225 Easter favors for Portland Veterans hospital. Mrs. Maude McWhorter, Mrs. Eldon Griffin, Mrs. Alma Hatfield and Mrs. Fanny Bard with Mrs. Stuart Johns are on the sewing committee. On March 18 Disabled American Veterans and auxiliary will have a card party at the Salem Woman's clubhouse with the public invited and on March 18 a rummage sale over Greenbaums with Mrs. Pauline Richards, chairman.
