

A Birthday Dinner

American Legion auxiliary, Capital Post, will be hostess to the Legion's 29th birthday at a no-host dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Monday, March 15, at the Legion hall. An interesting program will follow the dinner.

Mrs. George Edwards, community service chairman, will be in charge of dinner arrangements. She will be assisted by Mrs. Barbara Stumbo, Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer, Mrs. Frank Jirak, Mrs. John TeSelle, Mrs. George Gabriel, Mrs. E. W. Richey, Mrs. George Manning, Mrs. Walter Spalding, Mrs. R. A. Meyer, Mrs. Hattie Cook, Mrs. Elmer Dorr, Mrs. Alfred Forman, Mrs. Lena Hildebrandt, Mrs. Roy Hill, Mrs. Glen Laverty, Mrs. Don Apperson, Mrs. Helen McLeod, and Mrs. Carl Chambers. Mrs. Don Madison is in charge of the program. Gene Malecki will be master of ceremonies. The occasion also marks the 30th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion.

Miss Helen Zielinski will entertain the Spinners at her home, 3490 Center street, Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Auxiliary Names New Officers

Meadowlark auxiliary to post 4102 Veterans of Foreign Wars elected officers at a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Bill Kelso Wednesday.

Following were elected: president, Mrs. James Lucas; senior vice president, Mrs. William Kelso; junior vice president, Mrs. Walter Hartley; treasurer, Mrs. Eugene Pohman; chaplain, Mrs. Gordon Bressler. Mrs. E. L. Nichols was appointed secretary.

Plans were discussed for joint installation of officers with both Meadowlark 6102 and Beaver Navy 7775. This installation will be held April 13 with officers of both posts and auxiliaries participating.

The monthly business meetings will be held at the home of the new president, Mrs. Lucas, social meetings at the homes of other members.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma alumnae meeting slated for Monday night has been changed to Tuesday night due to the Community Concert program and will be held at the home of Miss Margaret Wagner on North Summer street at 8 o'clock.

Don't Look Now . . .

But . . . being cast in the role of reporter for the DAR convention for our paper, we shyly asked to interview Mrs. A. W. McKeown, newly nominated state president. To our surprise she was Martha Ferguson, (as was), who used to sit in the same very dull English class at old WU and belonged to the class of—but oh, no, we wouldn't tell on Martha! She did ask though, if we planned to attend the 25th reunion of our class this spring.

Chill day . . . One thing, the "new look" is also a "warm look" on chill winter mornings. No more of those toe-out-knee-showing fashions now, which always made our teeth chatter for our fellowwoman. We saw an example Wednesday as we came to work, probably a woman who "simply wouldn't wear long skirts for anyone." Toes out of wedgies, skirts above stockingless knees, and she clasped tightly a "chubby" for comfort.

Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae will be entertained Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. James Turnbull, 1365 N. 21st street, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Ruth Calvert will be the assisting hostess. Election of officers will be held.

The Monday Night Dance club's March dinner dance has been indefinitely postponed, according to announcement made by the officers. The affair had originally been slated for Saturday night, March 20.

Alpha Chi Omega alumnae will meet at the chapter house on North Winter street Monday night. Hostesses will be Mesdames Waldo for a dessert supper at 8 o'clock. Zeller, Wilmer Wells and Roy Harland.

The Woman Pays . . . Salem's most popular speaker, Mrs. James Brand, is still paying for her trip with Judge Brand to Germany. With her natural wit and charm, Mrs. Brand could make a good story out of anything, but she has a fascinating European experience with which to spellbind her audiences. Saturday we were impressed to watch the reactions of a self confessed three-time-listener to Mrs. B. as she hung on every word the speaker uttered. A pretty good recommendation for any woman's ability as an entertainer.

Point of View . . . The other day a friend jokingly said that she had been proposed to, she thought, because she had a nice cozy apartment in her possession. Did she know that this here unclaimed treasure lives in an eleven (11) bedroom house, complete with plumbing, full basement, kitchen and other rooms necessary to complete house-keeping. Or is that just too, too overwhelming? . . . Maxine Buren.

Birthday Party For Mrs. Hoss

Mrs. M. M. Hoss, pioneer Oregon woman and mother of the late Hal Hoss, will celebrate her 86th birthday in Woodland, Washington, Friday. She has been living with her daughter, Mrs. William Birt, Woodland, and a surprise reunion is planned for Sunday with visits from Mrs. Mabel Barker, San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoss from Hope, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Jean B. Hoss of Taft, Oregon. Also attending from Salem will be her grandson, Dave Hoss and family, and granddaughter, Mrs. Ray Gallagher. Mrs. Hoss was well known in Salem in the early pioneer days. She had four sons and two daughters, two of the sons having deceased.

Annual bosses' breakfast of the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club will be held Tuesday morning at Nohlgren's at 7 a.m. William C. Dyer, jr., will be the guest speaker. Miss Alberta Schoemake is arranging the program and decorations.

The Eloika club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. M. McKee on Shipping street for a 1:15 o'clock dessert luncheon. Mrs. Elmer O. Berg will be the guest speaker and will talk on her "Impressions and Observations of Mexico." Guest day will also be observed. Assisting hostesses are Mesdames Vard Hughes, Arthur Upston, W. A. Estes and Miss Gertrude Savage.

The Theatre Arts group will be entertained at a desert luncheon Tuesday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock by Mrs. W. E. Kirk at 299 N. Winter street. Mrs. Otto Paulus will present the program.

WCS Will Meet

The general WCS of the First Methodist church will meet Wednesday beginning at 1:30 p.m. The program includes piano music by Mrs. A. A. Schramm, devotions led by Mrs. J. Pincus; violin solo by Miss Naomi Fackler; lesson led by Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson; music by a quartet; and an address by Mrs. Raymond Miller, president of the Forest Grove district. Mrs. J. E. Purdy will preside.
