DARs Favor Military Training

By Maxine Buren
Statesman's Woman's Editor
Commendation of President Harry Truman for his efforts to cleanse public offices from alien and subversive influences, and the reaffirmation of belief in universal military training, were two of the resolutions adopted by members of the Daughters of the American Revolution Saturday morning in the closing business session of the state convention held in Salem Friday and Saturday. The sessions have been held at the First Methodist church.

Resolutions also called upon all members to adopt a policy of informing themselves and to seek to expose communists. The organization further commended the work of the committee on un-American activities and the FBI.

The Oregon Society Daughters of the American Revolution went on record as opposing the bill now before congress which seeks to amend the nationality act to exempt the present literacy requirement; opposing any legislation which puts control of education in the hands of the government, and all other legislation which seeks to remove state controls.

Mrs. Archie McKeown of Hood River was installed as the new state regent, and with members of her staff, were honored at a tea in the home of Mrs. John Carlin in the afternoon.

Mrs. James Brand appeared at the luncheon Saturday as guest speaker, giving a brief and highly interesting talk on Luxembourg and Belgium, visited during the stay which she had in Europe while Judge Brand served at the Nuernberg trials.

The Westminster guild of the First Presbyterian church will meet for a dessert luncheon at the church Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Emmet Kleinke is chairman of the luncheon committee and Mrs. Robert L. Erikstrom is arranging the program. Mrs. A. A. Schramm will give a discussion of contemporary women composers. Her talk will be illustrated with piano solos by Mrs. Ralph Dobbs and solos by Mrs. Bruce Spaulding.

GERVAIS—The St. Rita's Altar society met at the home of Mrs. Fred Manning Wednesday afternoon with 14 members present. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the church. The hostesses was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. John Eggers, Mrs. Peter Prantl and Mrs. Adam Schell.

Dr. and Mrs. Ruskin Blatchford will attend the state basketball tournament in Eugene next week and be guests of Dr. and Mrs. Vern Adams. Dr. Blatchford has attended all state tournaments since their beginning.

JEFFERSON—Mrs. C. M. Cochran and Mrs. H. C. Epley were hostesses to members of the Past Noble Grand club Tuesday at 1 o'clock luncheon in the IOOF hall. The club planned to make the favors for the district convention here in the fall and worked on club quilts. Present were Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. M. Townsend, Mrs. Lee Wells, Mrs. D. W. Porter, Mrs. T. O. Kester, Mrs. Tom Bruce, Mrs. Cochran and Mrs. Epley. Guests were Mrs. Leland Pittam and children and Mrs. Swanzy. At the next meeting of the club Mrs. Scott Hawk and Mrs. Wes Curl will be hostesses.

STAYTON — Merry-go-round centerpiece and rocking horse place cards in yellow and green were used by Mrs. Harold Wodtly on Monday, March 8, to honor the fifth birthday of her daughter, Nancy.

Present were Niki Ross and Mrs. Howard Ross of Mehama; Mrs. Luther Stout of Howell; Jimmy and Judy Lulay, Sandy, Wally and Fanny Humphreys and Mrs. W. H. Humphreys; Ruth Ann Farwell and Mrs. Kenneth Farwell; Marilyn Haynes and Mrs. William Haynes; Mrs. John Gedlich of Gales Creek; Shirley, Nancy and Mrs. Wodtly.

Record Concert Today at YWCA

Two ever-popular concertos—one for violin, the other for piano—and an outstanding work of symphonic jazz will be heard at the regular concert of recorded music today from 3 to 4 p.m. in the YWCA. Mrs. A. A. Schramm, chairman of the young adults committee sponsoring the series, is in charge and the public is invited.

To be heard are Mendelssohn's concerto in E-minor with Fritz Kreisler on the violin and the London philharmonic orchestra under the direction of Sir Landon Ronald; Rachmaninoff's piano concerto No. 2 in C-minor played by Arthur Rubinstein and the NBC symphony with Vladimir

Golschmann conducting and Ferde Grofe's Grand Canyon suite by the NBC symphony with Arturo Toscanini on the podium.

Next Sunday's concert will be an all-request program. Anyone may call or drop a postcard to the committee at the YWCA, 768 State st., requesting a favorite piece of music for inclusion on the program.

Social meeting of the American War Mothers will be held at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee, 1515 State street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Members having birthdays in March will be honored. Mrs. Carolyn Hixon, an active member, will celebrate her 88th birthday. Assisting hostesses will be Mesdames Glenn Prather, Ben Randall, Fronia Mullica and Bernhard Benson.

Camp Fire Corner

The Otykwa group, eighth grade girls at Parrish Junior High led by Mrs. L. W. Megquier, made plans for celebrating Birthday week of Camp Fire by selecting a girl to be in the live model window at Montgomery Wards on Saturday and the church group would attend on "go to church Sunday" March 14.

Tuesday the Mehama Camp Fire group reviewed the law of the Camp Fire Girls, the Trail Seeker's and Wood Gatherer's deities. Committee chairman for initiation ceremony March 18 is Lois White. Pat Keys was introduced as a new member. Tacoda group reviewed the Birthday week schedule at a meeting Thursday. Claudette Coleman was elected secretary. The Odako group, with guardian Mrs. Louis Miller, played games outdoors as a part of games and sport requirement. Tawanka group met at Keizer school with their guardian, Miss Gladys Burch. Plans were made for a St. Patrick's day party.
