Low Cost
"Extra Parts" Aid in Cutting Down Culinary Budget, Yet Are Good Food

BY MAXINE BUREN

Beef, lamb or veal kidneys, which seem to be in market frequently, have a good use, and prove an aid to the family budgeteer. Here are several suggestions for their use put out by the home economics department of a large meat packing firm.

BAKED KIDNEY
Yield: 4 servings.
1 pound veal kidneys (4)
1 egg
1/4 cup milk
1/2 cup sifted dry bread crumbs
8 slices bacon (about 1/2 pound)
Cut kidneys in half. Remove the white tubes and soak in cold salted water 45 minutes (2 teaspoons salt per quart of water). Beat egg and milk. Dip each piece in egg mixture, then in sifted crumbs. Around each piece of kidney fasten a slice of bacon with a small skewer or toothpick. Bake in hot oven 400 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. Turn once during baking.

KIDNEY STEW
Yield: 4 to 6 servings.
1 pound pork or beef kidneys
3 cups water
1/4 cup sliced onion
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons flour
2 tablespoons shortening or bacon drippings

Remove every trace of white tubes from the kidneys. Cut the kidneys in cubes. Soak one hour in cold salt water. Drain, add fresh cold water and bring to the boiling point. Discard this and add another 3 cups of cold water. Bring to a boiling point, skim, add onion and seasonings, and simmer about 1 hour until kidneys are tender. Brown the flour in the fat and gradually add the kidneys and stock, stirring constantly. Cook slowly about 15 minutes. Serve with hot cooked rice and garnish of toast points. Currant jelly, lemon juice or horseradish may be added.

KIDNEY LOAF
Yield: 6 servings.
1 pound beef, veal or pork kidneys
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
8 slices toasted bread
1/4 pound ground beef
1/4 cup shortening or meat drippings
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon sage
Wash kidneys and remove all trace of white tubes. Put through meat grinder. Beat egg with milk; add to cubed bread. Combine all ingredients. Pack into greased 4x8x2 1/2-inch loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 1 1/2 hours. Serve with tomato sauce. Condensed tomato or mushroom soup could be used as sauce.
