Lumber Mills Close as Unions Hold Meeting

PORTLAND, March 18 (AP)—Four of Portland's lumber mills closed down this afternoon as CIO workers attended a union meeting.

Union officials said a strike vote was discussed. Regional heads of the CIO International Woodworkers of America recently sent out strike vote ballots to strengthen the position of union negotiators discussing possible wage increases with employers. The workers are expected to be on the job again tomorrow.

Portland Traction Company Asks for Jurisdiction Ruling

Public Utilities Commissioner John H. Carkin Thursday afternoon took under advisement the question of whether he has jurisdiction to receive from the Portland Traction company a petition for an increase in rates.

The Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Friday, March 19, 1948—3

The question was presented by Gordon Steele, company president, and Clarence Phillips, company attorney.

Pending investigation and decision by the utilities commissioner the petition for an increase in rates was returned to Portland by the traction company officials. Carkin said the question of whether he is authorized to receive the company's petition for a rate increase might involve a number of legal complications. He would not elaborate. Heretofore applications of the Portland Traction company for rate increases have been presented to the Portland city council.
