

Senate to Vote On Tax Slash

WASHINGTON, March 19—(AP)—The senate agreed tonight to vote at 5 p.m. (EST) Monday on the republican bill to cut income taxes $4,800,000,000.

The agreement was reached after a string of democratic amendments—all rejected—had occupied most of the debate and caused GOP leaders to abandon hope for a vote today.

But before the democrats' proposals came up, the republicans won voice vote approval of an amendment by its finance committee which pared $1,700,000,000 off the house-passed bill to taxes $3,500,000,000.

This section as well as all other committee charges are subject to ratification when the bill comes up for a vote Monday.
