

Auxiliary Drive Is Underway

Members of the Salem General hospital auxiliary are busy working on the annual membership drive under the leadership of Mrs. E. M. Page and Harry N. Crain, co-chairmen. The drive will continue through the month and plans were completed this week at a meeting at the Page home.

Funds obtained from the drive enable the auxiliary to carry on its work for the hospital. The auxiliary is taking as its project this year the nursery and hopes to be able to add a formula room, complete with equipment, which will cost in the neighborhood of $2500. Among the major projects the auxiliary has undertaken at the hospital in the past years are the purchase of an ice-making machine, installation of an oil burner, electric mixer, dish washing machine, stainless steel sinks and tables in the kitchen and a sewing machine.

Assisting Mrs. Page and Mrs. Crain on the drive are Mrs. John H. Carson, president of the auxiliary, Mrs. Chester A. Downs and a group of doctors' wives, Messdames David Bennett Hill, Emery Hobbs, George Weller, Ralph Cooley, Wilmer C. Page, L. V. Benson, Lewis Griffith, Douglas McKay, Conrad Paulson, Edward Roth, Linn C. Smith, George Alexander, Clayton Foreman, Robert E. Joseph, Homer L. Goulet, Carl E. Nelson, Wallace Hug, Robert G. Brady, Harold Olinger, Charles Heltzel, Phillip Allison, Ralph E. Moody, Wallace Bonesteel, William H. Burghardt, Brazier Small, Vernon Perry, Glenn S. Faxson, Chandler Brown and George Schwarz.

Mrs. L. C. McLeod will preside at a one o'clock luncheon Monday afternoon at her North 13th street home in compliment to her club. Bridge will be in play following the luncheon hour. Additional guests will be Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. A. C. F. Perry and Mrs. L. O. Aretus.

Mrs. Henry V. Compton arrived home this weekend from a two weeks sojourn in San Francisco, where she visited her daughter, Miss Barbara Compton. She went south with Mrs. William J. Busick, who returned earlier in the week.

New SHOES for EASTER

Black Patent Kid with ankle or instep strap

Green or Red Doeskin with closed sides

Arbuckle's

481 State St.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Turner (Barbara Williams Munjar) who were married in Reno on March 6 at the Methodist church. After a honeymoon in Nevada and California the couple returned to Salem, where they are now at home. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Williams and the benedict is the son of the Willard T. Turners of Albany. The groom is superintendent of Alderman Frozen Foods, Inc. (Jesten-Miller).

Miss Lively Married

At a 3 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon at the First Congregational church Miss Betty Lively became the bride of Bruce Douglas Fraser, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fraser of Portland. The Rev. Seth Huntington officiated at the nuptials before a setting of pastel spring flowers and Easter lilies. Reid Shelton sang before the service and Jean Hobson Rich was the organist.

For her wedding the bride chose a cream beige wool suit designed on tailored lines, a brown straw hat enhanced with bronze flowers and brown accessories. She carried a white prayer book marked with bronze orchids. Mr. Lively gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Shirlee Lively was her sister's only attendant and wore a grey suit with full skirt, pink felt hat and black accessories. She carried a nosegay of pastel flowers. John Fraser of Portland was his brother's best man and ushers were William Peterson and John Othus of Portland.

Mrs. Lively attended her daughter's wedding in a wheat gold suit with black accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Fraser chose a pastel green suit with brown accessories and tallman roses for the ceremony.

A reception was held in the fireplace room. Mrs. Virgil Wilson and Mrs. Dale Lively cut the cake and pouring were Mrs. James Irvine and Miss Patricia Barber. Passing the guest book were Sydney and Virginia Lively, sisters of the bride.

Mr. Fraser and his bride have gone to the coast on their honeymoon and will be at home in Corvallis after April 1, where he is attending Oregon State college.

Mrs. Brand to Be BPW Speaker

Business and Professional Women will hold a dinner meeting Tuesday night at Nohlgren's at 6:30 and members will hear Mrs. James Brand speak on her impressions of Europe. Miss Amanda Anderson is chairman of the education and vocations committee which is in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson will direct the club chorus in a few numbers.

Bridal Plans Revealed

Plans are being completed by several brides-elect for April wedding.

Miss Eunice Osmin and Merle Plank will be married on Saturday, April 3, at St. Paul's Episcopal church with a reception following at the Ivan Osterman home. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osmin of Lebanon and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. J. W. Sowles of Vancouver, Wash. The Rev. George H. Swift will perform the 8 o'clock ceremony. Miss Arlene Hilficker will sing and Miss Ruth Bedford will be the organist. 8:30 o'clock nuptials. Jean Hobson Rich will be the organist.

April 3 will also be the wedding day for Miss Dennis Tindall and David Tolle, who will be married at the First Congregational church with the Rev. Seth Huntington officiating at the 8:30 o'clock nuptials. Jean Hobson Rich will be the organist.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Tindall of Toledo, will be given in marriage by her brother, James Tindall of Salem. Her twin sister, Patricia, will be her maid of honor and Miss Marilyn Meister of Spokane will be the bridesmaid. Lee Weidlein of Los Angeles will stand with his nephew as best man and ushers include Carl Ostrin, Thomas Stevenson, Keith Evans and Craig Carver. A reception will be held at the Chi Omega sorority house.

Bridal Party Selected
Miss Doris Hamilton and Keats Oliver have selected members of their bridal party for their wedding on Sunday, April 3, at the First Congregational church. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Hamilton of Lebanon and the benedict-elect is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Egbert S. Oliver of Salem.

The Rev. Seth Huntington will officiate at the 4 o'clock rites. Miss Edith Fairham will sing and Jean Hobson Rich will be the organist. Mrs. W. E. Murphy will be her sister's only attendant and Mr. Hamilton will give his daughter in marriage. Leonard Fry will serve as best man for Mr. Oliver and ushers are J. T. Hamilton, Richard Yocom and Jim G. Waltney.

A reception in the fireplace room will follow the nuptials. The couple will live in Salem as he is employed at the state highway commission.

Speakers at the meeting of the Marion county Republican Women's organization at the chamber of commerce Monday night will be county treasurer Sam Butler, county sheriff Denver Young and county assessor Tad Shelton. This is the last in a series of talks given by county officials. Both men and women are invited to attend.

Oswego Garden Show Is Set

The annual spring flower show of the Oswego Garden club is scheduled for Tuesday April 13 from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7:30 to 9 p.m. Mrs. Clinton W. Eastman is serving for the fifth time as general chairman. Mrs. Harrison Trueblood, co-chairman with Mrs. John Finlay, Mrs. Hanover Deady, Mrs. Paige Newton, Mrs. Larry Hofer, Mrs. Carl Meistrup, Mrs. Earl Anderson and Mrs. Leon Holland assisting. Proceeds of the show will go to the Oswego American Legion memorial building fund. Ribbon awards will be given to the best entry in each class, and a copy of "Our Garden Book" compliments of and autographed by Dean Collins as grand sweepstakes. All interested persons are invited to exhibit and attend. For classification schedules write Mrs. Clinton Eastman, Phantom Bluff, Oswego, Ore.

Social hour club of the Order of Eastern Star will be in session on Tuesday beginning with a dessert at 1:15. Mrs. E. E. Wiper is chairman, and on her committee are Mrs. E. E. Wiper, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. George E. Hansen, Mrs. Robert N. Phillips, Mrs. Roy H. Wassam, Mrs. Stanley Brown and Mrs. Harry A. Rowe. Mrs. Waldo Zeller will be the speaker and will talk on Guatemala.

Gold Star Mothers met at the Veterans hall on Thursday for a social meeting. Cards were in play. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Hargis and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whaley of New Sharon, Iowa, cousins of Mrs. Ben Lar-lins.

Ceremony At Church

Miss Opal Howland became Albert Anglin's bride at a candle-light ceremony Saturday night at 8 o'clock at the Leslie Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Rose L. Howland and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Anglin of Empire. The Rev. George Wesley Turner performed the double ring service amidst a setting of calla lilies and pink snapdragons. The pews were marked with white satin bows. Lighting the candles were Miss Roselle Howland and Miss Joyce Rittenhouse, who wore orchid and yellow frocks of taffeta and net with tiered skirts and coronets of carnations in their hair. Myron Eaton was the organist and Mrs. Eaton the soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Robert E. Howland, wore a white satin gown fashioned with full skirt, which terminated in a train and long sleeves. The bodice was designed with a drop neckline with a shirred net insertion edged with a wide lace bertha. Her fingertip length veil of French imported illusion cascaded from a satin crown covered with the illusion. Her crescent shape bouquet was of pink rapture roses. Clapped around her neck was a double strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Gladys Howland was her sister's maid of honor and wore a mint green net frock over taffeta made with a drop neckline, puff sleeves and a peplum. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Kealy and

Mrs. Dennis Bremmer, who wore blue and pink net dresses with lace bodies, puff sleeves and sweetheart necklines. The attendants carried colonial bouquets of carnations, sweet peas and freesias and wore ruffled net mitts to match their dresses.

Douglas Olsen of Portland was best man and ushers were Roland Tedesco of Portland and Hugh Milleson of Coos Bay.

Mrs. Howland wore an aqua wool crepe gown with draped skirt for daughter's wedding. Her accessories were black and her corsage was of gardenias and sweet peas. Mrs. Anglin wore a brown wool net gown with applique flowers on the bodice, brown hat and accessories and a short beige coat. Her corsage was of gardenias and sweet peas.

At the wedding reception in the church parlors Mrs. Robert Pedersen of Corvallis was in charge. Mrs. Louis Johnston cut the cake and Mrs. Jesse Strawn presided at the punch bowl. Miss Nola Nolan passed the guest book.

The newlyweds have gone to

Pan American Program Planned

The Salem Woman's club is holding its regular business meeting and program at the clubhouse Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock following a board meeting at 1 p.m.

Mrs. George Rhoten is in charge of the program on Pan America. There will be displays of articles from South and Central America and Mexico, and those exhibiting will give talks. Films of Guatemala will be shown. Mrs. Herbert Rahe is in charge of the tea hour.

Astoria and Washington on their wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a grey pin stripe suit, grey hat with white flowers at the side, black accessories and a pastel blue blouse and gloves. Mr. Anglin and his bride will live in Corvallis at the Evondale apartment, while he attends Oregon State college.

Beautiful View, large lot, dining R. basement with garage, bk. porch, 2 bedrooms. Max. F. H. A. loan avail. 675 E. Ewald near 96. For sale by owner.

Exclusive at Schlesinger & Co.

ROTHMOOR

AMERICA'S MOST DISTINGUISHED NAME IN Women's Coats and Suits.

Spring Styles Now on Display.

You Are Cordially Invited to See the New Spring Styles—
Rothmoor Designed — at Schlesinger & Co.

Now! Exclusive at Schlesinger & Co.

Hundreds of New Spring Frocks Now on Display Prints and Pastels

prancing poodles Perky poodle print of rich rayon crepe exclusively Junior Guild's, molded into a winsome two-piece, belted and bowed with leather. The shoulder-buttoned top tapers to a tiny waist, flows into a frivolous peplum. The skirt is straight and narrow for the long look you love.

Timeless in quality...perfect in tailoring...Rothmoor unmistakably. From the collection of coordinated coats and suits hand-tailored by Rothmoor

As seen in Vogue

SCHLESINGER & CO.

409 Court

SCHLESINGER & CO.

409 Court