FOR First Steppers

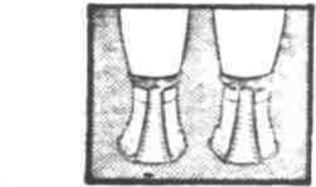

JUMPING JACKS

SOFT SHOES FOR HARD WEAR

The patented Jumping-Jack sole feature means that heels must keep properly positioned, that ankles can't turn in or out. It eliminates stiff counters and shanks, so foot and leg muscles can develop properly. And with no heels or striking edges to wear, Jumping-Jacks keep shape and looks until they're outgrown. Child specialists approve their scientific design... mothers like their smartness, quality and value.

Miss Fromm A Bride

The First Baptist church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Ariene DeAtta Fromm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fromm, and Philip Judson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Judson, Saturday night at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson performed the ceremony before a setting of acacia, forsythia and blue iris. Lighting the tapers at the altar and down the aisle were Miss Dawna Welty and Miss Donna Holman, who wore pink dresses. Mrs. Don Judson was the soloist and William Fawk the organist.

Mr. Fromm gave his daughter in marriage. Her bridal gown was of white satin fashioned with long, pointed sleeves, gathered at the waistline and a full skirt ending in a train. From a crown of seed pearls cascaded her lace edged three-quarter length veil. She carried a white Bible marked with pink baby orchids.

The dresses of the attendants carried out the yellow and blue color scheme. Miss Rena Skaggs, as maid of honor, wore a mist blue taffeta gown with high neckline and full skirt and carried daffodils. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Mathias Crouser, sister of the groom, and Miss Frances Mattson, who wore identical frocks of yellow taffeta with bustle backs and carried bouquets of blue iris. Diana Judson was flower girl and she wore a blue dress and yellow flowers.

Lewis Judson, Jr. was his brother's best man and ushers included Don Judson, Robert Garrison, Jack Stiles and Mathias Crouser.

Mrs. Fromm chose a pussy-willow grey crepe gown for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Judson wore a blue dress. Their corsages were yellow roses.

A wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Miss Sylvia Mattson cut her niece's cake and Mrs. Lewis Judson, Jr. presided at the coffee urn. Assisting were Miss Mary Elizabeth Reinhart, Mrs. John Strem, Mrs. Don Panek and Mrs. Gabriel Martinez. Mrs. Henry Mattson was in charge of the reception. Miss Pat Keping passed the guest book and in charge of the gifts were Mrs. William Massey, Miss Caroline Helton and Miss Alma Bostrom. During the reception Ronald Sheets played numbers on his vibraharp.

Mr. Judson and his bride have gone north to Victoria, B. C., on their wedding trip and for traveling the bride wore a black gabardine suit fashioned with a peppermint, a gold straw hat and black accessories. Pinned to her were baby orchids. The couple will live in Salem.

Mrs. Stoddard Hostess
Mrs. Mary Stoddard was hostess at her home on North 4th street Friday. A parade of old fashioned dresses was the feature of the evening. Games were in play.
