

Miss Frazer To Marry In April

Wedding bells will ring on Saturday, April 10, for Miss Emelyn Frazer and Frederick Rhodes of Buell, who will be quietly married in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The Rev. George H. Swift will officiate before members of the immediate family. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. G. N. Frazer and her fiancé is the son of J. F. Rhodes of Buell.

Miss Frazer is well known in musical circles here and is a member of the Salem Junior Woman's club. She is employed in the office of the Valley Packing company. Mr. Rhodes is engaged in farming at Buell, where the couple will live after their marriage.

A Bridal Shower
Mrs. Peter Sather and Mrs. W. L. Hampshire will be hostesses for a pre-nuptial party tonight at the former's apartment at the Elaine in compliment to Miss Frazer. A late supper will follow an informal evening and a miscellaneous shower will carry the bride-to-be to bed. A white color scheme will be carried out in the bridal appointments.

Honoring Miss Frazer will be Mrs. G. N. Frazer, Mrs. A. R. Tartar, Mrs. E. M. McKee, Mrs. James Martfield, Mrs. Elmer Meade, Mrs. Lester Cour, Mrs. C. M. Pye, Mrs. Vera LaDue, Miss Lena Belle Tartar and the hostesses.

Golfers Set Matches

Several important dates have been circled on the calendar for the Salem Women's Golf association for this spring. At the meeting held Wednesday morning an announcement was made that the Woodburn women golfers will come to Salem for a match on April 23 and on June 2 the Salem golfers will be guests at the Eugene Country club when it entertains the Coos Bay, Roseburg, Corvallis and Salem clubs. On March 31, Salem members of the Oregon Women's Golf association will be invited to breakfast and play a two-ball foursome at the Columbia Edgewater Country club in Portland.

Prizes for last week's play were awarded to Miss Ross Coppock, class A; Mrs. Reynolds Allen, class B; Mrs. Donald McCargar, class C; and Mrs. Barlett Oxen, class D. Women golfers who joined the group for the first time Wednesday were Mesdames John H. Thompson, Joseph Steiger, Clayton Foreman, Vernon Perry, Arthur Erickson, Howard Egan, Mann, Edwin L. Graham, Werner Brown, Wayne Lader and Robert Herrall.

Attend a Reception

The Misses Charlotte Alexander, Jean Claire Sims, Jane Carson, Joan Bickell, Mrs. Lester Carter, Mrs. Walter Barsch, Mrs. Roger K. Putnam and Miss Margaret Simms were in Portland Tuesday night to attend a reception for which the Gamma Phi Beta alumnae were hostesses at the home of Mrs. Raymond S. Peters in honor of the alumnae from the University of Oregon and Oregon State college, who are home for spring vacation. Miss Swit remained over in Portland as the guest of her Gamma Phi sister, Miss Virginia Woodward.

Recent graduates of AAUW will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. J. J. McNeill, 169 Evergreen avenue, for a dessert supper at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Eleanor Trivette, Marion county home demonstration agent, will talk on "China-ware."

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Mankertz, Jr., of Corvallis are spending the Easter vacation in Salem with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Mankertz. Both are attending Oregon State college.

Jimmy Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Allen, has invited a few of his boy friends to a line party at the theatre Saturday afternoon in celebration of his tenth birthday.

Christenings On Easter Sunday

Several christenings are slated to take place on Easter Sunday. Five months old Christine Lynne Cooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley, will be christened at services Sunday afternoon in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church at 4 o'clock. The Rev. George H. Swift will officiate in the presence of members of the two families and a few friends.

Christine's godparents will be her aunt, Miss Margaret Jane Cooley, Dr. Winfield Needham, and Mr. and Mrs. Claybourne W. Dyer. For her christening she will wear a handmade long white French batiste dress and white silk embroidered trim coat and bonnet.

A reception will be held after the services at the North Summer street home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, grandparents of the little girl. Her other grandmother is Mrs. Robert Turley, A. St. Mark's.

Jack Edward Boatwright, six months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boatwright, will be christened on Easter Sunday at St. Mark's Lutheran church at 3 o'clock by the Rev. M. A. C. Zenzler. His godparents will be Mrs. Effie Gooden and Jack Knedler.

Grandparents of the little boy, who will be present for the occasion are Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boatwright of Portland, formerly of Salem; Mrs. Ralph P. Laird of Eugene and W. A. Foster of Salem.

Health Program For Auxiliary

Mrs. James Bunnell, executive secretary of the Marion county health association, was speaker at the regular meeting of Salem unit No. 136, American Legion auxiliary, Tuesday night. She talked on social hygiene and health education, discussed the use of funds from Christmas seals and urged her listeners to have free chest X-rays when the mobile unit comes this spring. She also showed a health film in which June Lockard stars.

Mrs. Harold Streeter presided at the business session and named Mrs. Ted Ulakko as chairman of a dinner the unit will serve on May 20.

Mrs. Dow Lovell, chairman of community service, assisted by Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., and Mrs. Les Beard was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Anna Larkins, president of the Salem chapter, Gold Star Mothers and board members will go to Portland Monday to attend a luncheon at the Benson hotel to make plans for a state department. Mrs. Larkins will be accompanied by Mesdames Florence Rogers, Sadie Pro, Lela Young and Helen White. Mrs. Barbara Ford of DeLake has been asked by the national organization to form a department.

Miss Alma Catherine Hochstrasser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hochstrasser of Boise, who is betrothed to Robert L. Larkin, son of Mrs. Mignon O. Larkin of Salem, has been revealed. The wedding is planned for the early fall.

Dance Plans Made Many at Benefit

A committee from the Salem Junior Woman's club met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Woodbury to discuss plans for a sports dance to be held at the Army on April 17. Mrs. Woodbury served her committee a dessert lunch.

Proceeds from the dance are to go toward the convention fund, for the national meeting being held in Portland in May. The committee includes Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Robert King, Mrs. Wesley Goodrich, Mrs. Ralph Pickering and Mrs. George Fletcher.
