

DISTRICT COURT
John David Ray, 1010 N. Cottage street, passing on crest of hill, fined $5 and costs.
Jacob Lloyd McDonald, Salem route 1, no operator's license, $5 fine suspended on payment of court costs.
Kenneth Liawellyn Williams, Salem route 2, driving without headlights, $5 fine suspended on payment of court costs.
Gerald Kenneth Namitz, Dundee, no PUC permit, fined $10 and costs.
Lester Robert Jones, jr., 150 N. 21st st., charged with driving while intoxicated, trial set for May 14 following. Dismissal of innocence plea, $200 bail.
Helen Boye, Portland, cashing a check with insufficient funds, continued for sentence to April 9.

Ned E. Abrams, building contractor, route 8, and Lora Nelson, clerk, both of Salem.

MUNICIPAL COURT
Walter E. Newton, 312 Evergreen ave., passing in right hand lane, fined $5.
William Hulseby, 160 Union st., driving while intoxicated, fined $200 and given 30-day suspension of license; committed to jail in lieu of fine.
Owen Keith Lundberg, 497 Front st., violation of basic rule, posted $7.50 bail.
Ira Miller, 373 S. Summer st., driving while intoxicated and without driver's license; fined $200 and driver's license revoked for one year on first charge and $5 for driving without driver's license.
J. Farago, 2385 Shelburne

Ruth Mary Fra v Walter W. Fra: Default order entered.

Gladyz Bongue v Earl Bongue: Order of default entered.

Floella M. Hudson v Phillip A. Hudson: Decree of divorce restoring plaintiff's maiden name of F. Hudson.

Bertha Bohall v Joseph Bohall: Default order entered.

J. E. Tryon and Hazel Tryon v Joe L. Shaw and others: Defendant Stanley Parton files answer admitting and denying that his mechanics lien on building reverts proleu to other lien.

James R. Smith v R. L. Clark, as Salem Taxi service, and W. I. Welby: Plaintiff files amended involved, fined $150.

James D. DeLaVergne, Salem illegal reverse turn and excessive speed through intersection, fined $20 on appeal charge intersection and $250 for illegal reverse turn.

Victor Olson, Jr., Salem route 1 left turn from wrong lane and right turn from wrong lane posted $250 bail on each charge.

James F. Sexton, Salem route 4, driving four in front seat posted $5 bail.

Henry James Comstock, 1710 Trade st., allowing unlicensed person to drive vehicle, posted $5 bail.

Neal Ross, Renton, Wash., carrying a concealed weapon, fined $10.

City of Salem vs Harry B. Read Judgment on appeal upholds verdict of municipal court and $150 fine

Harold E. Schind estate: Estate appraised at $3,455.

Anna M. Espey estate: Report of sale of real property filed.

John L. Lench guardianship estate: Return on sale of real property filed.

Emma V. Riches estate: Order appoints D. S. Riches administrator and William Salisbury, J. Robertson and O. A. Warren as appraisers.

He was arrested in Silverton Sunday by Silverton Chief of Police Victor Grossnickle and a Marion county deputy sheriff. Palmer said he threw gasoline in and on the home of Mrs. Clarence Gilson, 1166 S. Water st., Silverton, on Saturday.

Mrs. Gilson is the mother of Palmer's wife, Betty Jean, 15

Richard Kenneth Wright, 20, jogger, and Charlotte Yvonne Minville, 18, student, both of McMinnville, route 2.

Billy Joe Taylor, 19, hatchery employee, 100 Shipping st. and Mary Ruth Archer, 17, waitress, 2015 Fairgrounds rd., both of Salem.

Ivan F. Clason, 22, saw mill employee, and Irene Rogers, 16, both of Ashland.

thrown in the bathroom window of the Gilson home and on to the back porch, but apparently no effort was made to light it, officers said.

Palmer appeared in Silverton justice court Monday, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the grand jury. He is being held in lieu of $1,000 bail.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE—Our greatest American possession—Copy signed by Benjamin Franklin.

NORTHWEST ORDINANCE—
Guaranteed religious freedom and other basic rights to the territories west of the Alleghenies.

EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION—The actual document that abolished slavery . . . signed by A. Lincoln.

GETTYSBURG ADDRESS—Rough draft of perhaps the world's greatest speech, in Lincoln's own handwriting.

TOKYO SURRENDER—
The signatures that ended the most terrible war in history.

... AND MANY, MANY MORE

FREEDOM IS EVERYBODY'S JOB!

Contributed in the public interest by

KAY'S
460 STATE STREET

ave, was arrested by Salem police Monday on a Multnomah County warrant for grand larceny in connection with the "rolling" of a man for about $2,600 Saturday in Portland.

Mrs. Ballard was arrested at her residence and returned to Portland by detectives from the city Monday afternoon. She is being held in Multnomah county jail in lieu of $3,000 bail, Salem police said.

The warrant charges that Mrs. Ballard took between $2,400 and $2,600 in bills from the pocket of a man who was in her car.

W. Law of Portland during a party in that city, Mrs. Ballard, Salem police said, told them she gave $150 to a taxi driver who

The Progressive Citizens of America is sponsoring a banquet at the Mayflower hall at 7 p. m. Wednesday to further the presidential aims of Henry Wallace.

Speakers will include Seth Dodge of Polk county, local PCA chairman; Tom Moore of Portland, state chairman, and Nelson Peterson, also of Portland. Musical numbers are to be given by Michael Loring. Wallace-for-president petitions will be distributed.

The original hand-written copy of Oregon's constitution which was enacted when Oregon was admitted to the Union in 1859, the original state seal, and the legislative committee's report adopting the seal in 1903 and 1904 are being loaned for the initiative and referendum, which was the Presentation of a piece of stone from the bombed part of the British parliament buildings will be made to the state of Oregon at a ceremony in the governor's office at 3 p. m. today.

Gov. John H. Hall will receive the gift of the American and British Commonwealth association from William Maxwell Wood of Portland. The limestone will be put on permanent display in the governor's office. It is encased in a mahogany frame.

The Statesman - Salem, Oregon, Tuesday, April 8, 1936

EMPIRE BLOCKS
...ideal for Church and School Construction

Churches, the properties and buildings of it make up the backbone of a community school construction. Empire blocks offer all the things—durability, economy and beauty.

Empire Blocks were used in constructing St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Central Oregon, near Bend, Oregon City, Eugene and Clatskanie, Clatskanie, Oregon.

Pumice Lite, Rock Concrete

Empire Building Material Co. • Portland, Oregon
FOR SALE BY

Eggewater Block & Supply Co.
 Eggewater St., West Salem Phone 2-5643

[illegible]

ATTEST,

John Buckley. Clerk of the House of Representatives
James A. Otis Secretary of the Senate

Frederick Douglass, Member of the House of Representatives.
John Adams, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate.

The Freedom
Train
visits Salem on April 6

FREE...a beautiful reproduction of the Bill of Rights—The document that gave you your freedom

★ Printed on heavy, durable paper

★ Gold and black lettering

★ Size: 17½ by 23¼ inches

★ Ideal for framing in home or office

Don't miss seeing America's most honored documents on display in the Freedom Train. We know your visit will be one of the finest experiences of your life...and to help you commemorate it, we could think of no finer gift than a beautiful reproduction of the Bill of Rights.

You can get your free copy of the Bill of Rights at Standard Stations or independent Chevron Gas Stations. All you need do is stop by and ask for it. There is no advertising message on the front of this reproduction — nothing to detract from its significance and its decorative value.

 This is a time of rededication to the principles of American individual liberty. They were never more important than today. We hope that you will frame your copy of the Bill of Rights as a constant reminder to you and your family of your American Heritage — Freedom.

Call at Standard Stations, Inc. or Independent Chevron Gas Stations

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA