

Mrs. Hill Will Head Hospital Auxiliary

Mrs. David Bennett Hill was elected president of the Salem General hospital auxiliary for the ensuing year at the last business session of the season Tuesday morning at the YWCA. Mrs. John Carson is the retiring president.

Elected to serve with Mrs. Hill were Mrs. Wilmer C. Page, first vice president; Mrs. George Schwarz, second vice president; Mrs. Robert E. Joseph, recording secretary; Mrs. Vernon Perry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Needham, treasurer; and board members to serve a three year term include Mrs. Conrad Paulson, Mrs. Roscoe Wilson and Mrs. Edward E. Roth.

Miss Lillian McDonald, superintendent of the hospital, spoke to the group concerning the needs of the nursery and the proposed new formula room, which the auxiliary will undertake as its project for the coming year. It is estimated the new room will cost $2500.

Mrs. E. M. Page and Mrs. Harry Crain reported on the spring membership drive and all members, who have not seen their dues, are asked to do so this week so that the treasurer may close the books.

Barbara Ryan Engaged

The engagement of Miss Barbara Ryan, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Ryan to Eugene DeForest Elphic of Superior, Wis. was made known at a party Friday night for which Miss Ryan was hostess. The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elphic of Deland, Fla.

Nuptials at St. Joseph's

The marriage of Miss Harriet Jones and Ralph Bauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bauer, was solemnized on April 1 at St. Joseph's Catholic church with Father T. J. Bernards officiating at the 4 o'clock ceremony.

W. E. Nelson, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. For her wedding she chose a pearl grey gabardine ballerina suit with pink and navy blue accessories and navy straw hat trimmed with pink and blue flowers. She carried a nosegay of gardenias, sweet peas and roses.

Mrs. Nelson was her sister's honor attendant and wore a black suit with pink accessories and carried a pastel nosegay. Herbert Bauer was his brother's best man and ushers were Edward LaBlanch and George Bauer, jr.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Mathers on North 5th street. Receiving with the bride party were the bride's sister, Mrs. Fred Ireland of Corvallis, who wore a black suit with white accessories, and the groom's mother, who chose a white and blue print dress with blue redingote and blue and white accessories. Their flowers were gardenias.

Mrs. Kern Schell of Corvallis cut the cake and Mrs. Delbert McDonald poured. At the gift table were Mrs. Victor Berglund of Oceanside, Calif. and Mrs. Katherine Bauer. Later in the evening a buffet supper was served at the home of the groom's parents.

The newlyweds left on a wedding trip and will make their home in Salem. Both attended Salem schools and he is employed at Cherry City Baking Co. During the war he served in the army.

Hostesses to Fete Clubs

Mrs. George Kingan has invited members of her club to a bridge luncheon Thursday afternoon at her Fairmount Hill home. Mrs. Glenn McCormick will also be a hostess Thursday afternoon at her Kingwood Heights home for her club with guests hidden to luncheon.

Mrs. William Bush will entertain her club at bridge and a late supper Thursday night at her Saginaw street home.

Mrs. Rollin Haag has invited members of her club to luncheon and bridge on Friday afternoon at her home in Corvallis.

Newlyweds Visit In Capital

Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Moore (Ola Hayden), who were married Sunday at Missoula, Mont., arrived in Salem Tuesday by plane to spend a week visiting his mother, Mrs. Lewis Ritzman, 864 Jefferson st., sister, Mrs. Roy Robinson and brothers, James and Harvey Moore.

The Moores will return to Montana, where he is taking flying instruction at the University of Montana, to obtain his commercial pilot's license.

Congratulations Go to Mr. and Mrs. Vern D. McMullen on the birth of a nine-pound son, Douglas, on Sunday, April 4, at the Salem General hospital. The little boy has two older sisters, Eva and Barbara, and two brothers, Allen and Ronald. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert McMullen of Taft and his great-grandfather is Henry DeGuire of Salem.

The Merry Time club of Capitol district celebrated their ninth anniversary at a party at the Mayflower hall Saturday night. A covered dish dinner was served to members and families with games and cards following. Mrs. C. J. Hagen is the new president and Mrs. Anna Kirkpatrick, secretary-treasurer.

The Women's guild of the First Congregational church will meet this afternoon at the church at 2 o'clock with Dr. Paul Davies, superintendent of the Oregon Conference of Congregational Churches, the guest speaker. The executive board will meet at 1:15 p.m.

Two Birthday Dinners

Several informal birthday parties are on the social slate this week.

Mrs. William Shinn entertained with a surprise supper party Tuesday night at the Karl Becke home on North Summer street in compliment to her husband on his birthday.

Covers were placed for twelve guests and during the evening cards were in play. Bouquets of daffodils provided the decorative note.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulson will be hosts at dinner and cards Saturday night at their Court street home in compliment to Mrs. Elmer O. Berg on her birthday.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berg, Colonel and Mrs. Elmer Wootton, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson and Mr. and Mrs. Paulson.

Patronesses Are Honor Guests

The Alpha Chi Omega mothers entertained the patronesses of the sorority Monday night at an informal affair at the chapter house on North Winter street. Honor guests were Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mrs. Frederick Hull Thompson, Mrs. Leslie Sparks, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. Robert Elstrom, and Mrs. George Alexander.

Hostesses were Mrs. M. Stephenson, Mrs. Carl Emmons and Mrs. W. E. Kirk. A dessert supper was served late in the evening and arrangements of daffodils were used in decorating. Mrs. Harold Jory is president of the mothers club.

Jaunting About Johnson's

Denim Doings

For rain or shine gardening, golfing, or beaching, fashionable yet rugged denim are the thing. Bright farmerettes (clam-digger length) or pedal pushers can be topped with boxy "Giant" jackets—the pockets are ample for beachcombing loot or gardening tools. And you'll need sun duds sooner—or later.

Straight-cut culled shorts that zip up tight with halter tops are ideal for tanning. Something new has been added—denim flared skirts with jaunty side pockets, to slip on over shorts or pedal pushers to trot to town in ladylike style. Be smart and comfy in sanforized denims—pick your color—blue or striped in sea blue, plaid, or grassy green, pottery yellow or copper brown—every one of which can be all sparkled up to its original brightness with a quick trip to the washing machine. Mix or Match 'em!

Halters $2.50
Shorts $2.50 and $3.50
Pedal Pushers $2.98 & $3.98
