Alberts Are Home From Paris

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Albert (Darlene Dickson) are back in Salem after seven months in Europe. The couple, both graduates of Willamette university, sailed from New York last August aboard the Ernie Pyle, and went directly to Paris. After a short vacation in Montpellier on the Mediterranean, where they visited with French friends, the Cahuzac family, the Alberts returned to Paris. They established residence in a small hotel on the Left Bank and enrolled for winter courses at the Sorbonne.

The Alberts, along with James Elliott and David Davis, who are also former Willamette students, spent their free hours seeing the sights and were frequent attendees at the Paris opera and ballet performance.

At Christmas time the couple returned to Montclair to spend the holidays with their friends. They were delighted with their first experience of a real French Noel. While in the south of France they also went to Nimes to see the famous 2000 year old Roman ruins.

In February the Alberts spent a week in Switzerland at Geneva and Lausanne. After the close of the winter term at the Sorbonne, they made an automobile tour to Chartres and Orleans to see the cathedrals, and continued on through the Valley of the Loire to view the ancient chateaux for which France is so celebrated.

The Alberts sailed from Le Havre aboard the French liner the De Grasse last month. They were met in New York by Miss Patricia Byrd and Miss Joan Elliott who sailed for France March 23, and Miss Nadene Mathews who is now a publicity director for the City College of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert are presently guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert E. Dickson.

New Board Members

Mrs. William Everett Anderson and Mrs. Charles Fearing were elected to the Salem YWCA board at a meeting held Tuesday morning at the YWCA headquarters. The two will replace Mrs. Carl Halverson, who has moved to Portland, and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding who has resigned, but is to remain on the resource board.

Mrs. Kenneth York was elected to the office of vice president to succeed Mrs. W. Wells Baum, who will remain as head of the membership committee.

Mrs. Baum reported on plans for a membership tea to be held April 29 at the YWCA from 3 to 5 o'clock. The tea is for all members but new members are to be especially honored and to be shown through the YWCA and the annex on S. Winter street.

Plans were made also during the board meeting, for the local association's observance of YW week, April 25 to 30. There will be a dedication vespers service at the First Congregational church at 5:30 o'clock Sunday, April 25 at which time Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane of Pacific University, Forest Grove will speak on "Christian Women's Responsibility in the World Today" and the Tri-Y chorus will sing.

On April 28 at 8:30 p.m. the public affairs committee will conduct a panel discussion on housing at the chamber of commerce.

Dr. Lloyd L. Lorbeer, Christian lay missionary educator at Pasumalai, India, who will speak at Thursday's meeting of Congregational women at Knight Memorial church. Dr. Lorbeer serves under the American board of foreign missions and has in 30 years in India headed two large training schools for Indian youth.

Annual Meeting On Thursday

The Women's fellowship of the East Willamette association of Congregational churches will hold its annual meeting at the Knight Memorial church Thursday, beginning at 10 a.m.

The program, for which Mrs. S. R. Huntington is chairman, includes addresses by Dr. Lloyd L. Lorbeer, missionary from India; the Rev. Paul A. Davies, Mrs. Charles Ratcliff and others. Special music will include a vocal solo by Mrs. Clark Lethin and vocal numbers by a trio, Mrs. David Cameron, Mrs. J. R. Avison and Mrs. Ralph Cole.

Luncheon will be at 12:30 o'clock.

Toastmistress Group to Meet

Salem Toastmistress will hold its first dinner meeting in April at 6 o'clock tonight in Nohlgren's restaurant. Mrs. Jean Spaulding will be toastmistress and Miss Marie Bosch, table topics chairman.

Mrs. Emerson Teague, program chairman, is in general charge of the special program planned. Mrs. James Hartley is president of the group this spring term.

Cheryl Porter, daughter of the Carl A. Porters of Albany, formerly of Salem, will celebrate her fourth birthday at a party Saturday afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock at the Albany hotel. A group of Salem and Albany youngsters and their mothers have been bidden to the party.

Hostesses to Entertain

Several luncheons are on the week's social slate. Mrs. George Waters has invited a few of her friends to an informal luncheon on Thursday afternoon at her North Summer street home. Bridge will be in play during the afternoon.

Mrs. Harry V. Carson, Jr., will entertain at a dessert luncheon this afternoon at the North Summer street home of her parents, the Robert E. Shinn's for the pleasure of her club. Bridge will be in play following the luncheon hour. Mrs. William Shinn will be an additional guest.

Mrs. Wallace Hug has invited members of her club to a bridge party tonight at her Fairmount Hill home. A late supper will be served by the hostess.

Maccabee Dinner

Capitol tent hive 84d of the Maccabees will give a ham dinner at 248 North Commercial street Thursday night. Meat is being furnished and a hot dish and dessert to be brought by those attending. The committee includes Mrs. Edith Strang, Mr. and Mrs. George Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Reay and Mrs. Evelyn Bremner.

A program will be given after dinner, followed by pinocle and 500.

Salem Council of Women's Organizations will hear Gordon Gilmore, Boy Scout executive, speak on the scouting movement as a way of living for boys at a meeting at the chamber of commerce Thursday at 2 o'clock. A film on chest x-ray unit will be shown.

Jaunting About Johnson's

To Brides Only!
Can you count the months on one hand until your wedding day? If you can—it's time to visit Johnson's new Bride's Room. You will be delighted to hear about our wedding service. Clothes do not make the marriage, BUT everyone agrees your wedding will be the most important fashion show in your life. Let us help you make it everything you've dreamed about since childhood.

Your Bridal Gown

Shimmering white satin dresses are the first choice of many brides, but maybe you'll choose a faille charmer or a bouffant marquisette skirted gown. Johnson's bridal consultant will gladly show you all these fabrics in varied exquisite stylings. Special orders in blush pink or ice-blue of any style or fabric can be made for the bride who desires to be a little unique. Your veil by Bridal Creations (as seen in April Mademoiselle) will be a floating and fitting complement to your gown—in short, three-quarter or train length. Johnson's will make special headdress designs and illusion veiling upon your request.

Your Bridal Party

The honor attendant and bridesmaids will be dressed to glorify the bride—in matching gowns of the same pattern or in a different version. Johnson's have rayon taffeta faille dresses or translucent marquisette adorable for your maids in all shades of the rainbow. And best of all you can decide on your color scheme and Johnson's will special order each dress in the size, style and fabric of your choosing.

The Informal Bride

Do you want a street length dress or stilt that you can go right on wearing after the honeymoon? Johnson's offer you a wide selection of fabrics and styles. We have crepe, gabardine and sheer wool suits in white and bridal pastels. If you're to be a summer bride, Johnson's have linen, faille, and soft crepe dresses that will enhance your loveliness for the momentous occasion.
