Christenings On Sunday

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dashney will be interested to hear that their two sons, John Braden and Thomas William, will be christened at services in McMinnville, where they now live, on Sunday at noon. The ceremony will take place at St. Barnabas Episcopal church with the Rev. Franklin Evenson officiating.

Godparents for John will be his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Dashney of Coos Bay, and Dr. John G. Manning of McMinnville. Godparents for Thomas will be Eugene and Francis Marsh and Mrs. Manning, all of McMinnville. The grandparents of the little boys, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Braden of Salem, will be present for the occasion.

Services at St. Paul's
Steven Leslie and Barbara Rae Busick, children of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Busick, will also be christened on Sunday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 3 o'clock with the Rev. George H. Swift officiating.

Godparents will be Dr. and Mrs. William Ott of Dallas, Lester Hettick of Eugene, Miss Jeanne Busick and Mrs. Harold T. Irving. Grandparents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Stevens and their great-grandmother is Mrs. Ollie Cook, all of Salem. A reception for the family will be held at the Busick home on South High street following the services.

Wedding News Heard Here

Announcements have been received by the friends of the former Gene Ellen Horn, daughter of Dr. Louis Horn now of Portland, who lived for several years in the Four Corners community, of her wedding at Westminster house, Corvallis to Dale Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Anderson of The Dalles. The Rev. Robert Buckley officiated. She was given in marriage by her father. Marjorie Simms played the piano.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of white silk and carried a nosegay of spring flowers. Maid of honor was her sister, Betty Lou Horn of San Jose, Calif. Best man was Darrell Shephard of Albany and ushers were William Fuller, Jr., and Sam Raymond, all Alpha Gamma fraternity brothers. Phyllis Sweeney had charge of the guest book.

At a reception, the Misses Helen and Beulah Gilkey, cousins of the groom served. Assisting about the rooms were Dorris Gillette, Sidney Price, Faith Miller and Lillian Davis. The bride graduated from Salem high school in 1944 and is now a senior majoring in home economics at OSC. The groom is a senior in agricultural economics. After a short honeymoon at the Oregon beaches the couple returned to their studies at OSC.

Crarays Are Visitors

Visitors in the capital are Lt. and Mrs. William B. Craray and children, Ruth Adele and William, who is nine months. They arrived in Salem Wednesday from Beppu, Japan and were met in the northern city by his brothers, Morrell Craray, who drove them to Salem. The visitors are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton A. Craray. Mrs. Craray will be remembered as Miriam Jensen.

Lt. Craray has been stationed in Japan with the infantry for two and a half years and his wife and daughter joined him a year and a half ago. He is now here on a 60-day leave, after which time he will report to Fort Lewis, Lt. Craray graduated from West Point three years ago this June. The Crarays will spend part of his leave in Hood River with her parents.

Musicians Win At Canby

Canby — Vocalists and instrumentalists of Canby union high school won seven superior, three excellent and two good ratings at the northwest district festival contest at Oregon City, April 9-10. Canby placed in all events entered.

Winning first-place ratings were the mixed chorus, girls' chorus, mixed quartet, boys' quartet, band and soloists, Kenneth Pope, drummer and Richard Armstrong, boys' low voice. These winners will enter the state competition festival to be held at Eugene, April 30-May 1.

Receiving excellent ratings were the girls' triple trio, Lucella Hawley and Joan Safarik, girls' high voice contestants. Third-place or good ratings were earned by Bruce Burden in boys' high voice event and by Betty Rose Hostetler in girls' low voice.

In Friday evening's concert of the all-northwest district chorus, Canby was represented by 10 students. The chorus was directed by Donald Allton from the University of Oregon. Kenneth Pope of Canby was selected to play his drum solo during the evening. Saturday evening's concert was that of the district band in which nine of Canby's players took part. Participating also in this program were performers of the day as chosen by the adjudicators. Canby was the only school honored with two representations. Richard Armstrong was selected as one of the soloists. From all ensembles of the day's contest, Canby's Mixed Octette was chosen for the evening concert. The band was conducted by Karl Ernst, supervisor of music in Portland, who also was one of the adjudicators.

Douglas Orme of Eugene and Ed McDowell of Portland were additional instrumental adjudicators. Those for vocal events were Donald Allton, Father George Dum and P. R. De La Mare of Portland university, and Stanley Glarum of Lewis and Clark college.

The vocal music at Canby is directed by Fay Sparks of Salem, and the instrumental music instructor is Don Covey of Woodburn.

The Woman's auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet this afternoon at the parish house at 2 o'clock. Special services will be officers of the diocesan, who will be down from Portland. Tea will be served following the meeting at which Miss Marjorie Harris, president, will preside.
