ARC Disaster Meet Starts in Salem Monday

The most effective disaster relief setup possible in Oregon, through a definite understanding of the duties and facilities of Red Cross chapters and the state and federal agencies, is the purpose of the two-day statewide disaster conference in Salem Monday and Tuesday, according to Red Cross officials arranging the meeting.

Opening event will be a luncheon Monday noon at the Marion hotel with Maj. Gen. Thomas E. Rilea, state adjutant general, as speaker. More than 20 Red Cross chapters, state offices and federal agencies will be represented.

Tuesday's sessions will be in Legion hall. Among scheduled speakers are Com. Glenn Rollins of the U.S. coast guard; Col. O. E. Walsh, district engineer, U.S. engineers; Raymond H. Barrows, deputy manager of Pacific area Red Cross headquarters; Richard F. Gordon, disaster director of the Pacific area; Col. Francis Mason of the Oregon national guard; Lee M. Bown, assistant superintendent of state police; Dr. Harold M. Erickson, state health department; Jeanne Jewett, state welfare department; Jack Hayes, state defense coordinator; C. H. Armstrong from the state highway department; M. S. Main, weather bureau.

Valley Red Cross chapter disaster chairman on the program are Kenneth Bloom, Linn county; Dr. Ralph E. Purvine, co-chairman, Marion county; Jack Nasholm, Lane county; Ed Valentine, Multnomah chapter; Arthur Bode, Polk county chapter. I. A. DeFrance, disaster chairman for the Marion county chapter of the Red Cross, will preside.

Four Corners Firemen Entertain for Wives

FOUR CORNERS — Directors and firemen of Four Corners Volunteer Fire association entertained their wives at Boucanier restaurant April 12 with a chicken dinner and program.

Junior Deputy Sheriff League Plans Meeting

A meeting of the newly-organized Marion County Junior Deputy Sheriff League has been called for Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the county courthouse by Sheriff Denver Young.

Those boys present will be members of groups which Sheriff Young recently formed at Aumsville, Turner, Stayton and Silverton. Organization of additional units in the north part of Marion county will take place this week, he said Saturday.

Instructions on the organization, one of the few of its kind in Pacific coast states, and badges will be given to the boys Monday night, the sheriff said. The organization was founded recently by Young in an effort to encourage cooperation of juveniles with law enforcement officers.

The group also intends to sponsor athletic, instructions in firearms and other activities.
