Garden Tour to Be May 1 . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

The date for the Salem Garden club spring garden tour has been set for Saturday, May 1. The tour was originally set for April 24, but was postponed due to weather conditions.

Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Edith Schryver head the committee for the tour and announce that the same gardens as previously scheduled will be open for the event.

Eight gardens in south Salem to be viewed by the interested public include those of Mrs. Chester Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, George Putnam, all on Fairmount Hill, Sen. and Mrs. Douglas McKay on Jervis ave., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell and Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Edith Schryver, all on Mission street.

Portland Events Attract . . .

A group of Salem women golfers, who are members of the Oregon Women's Golf association, will motor to Portland Tuesday to participate in a sweepstakes tournament at the Waverly Country club. A luncheon will follow this morning's play at the clubhouse.

From Salem will go Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mrs. Ivan Marble, Mrs. Sephus Starr, Mrs. Max Flannery, Mrs. Harold Olinger, Mrs. Robert Joseph, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mrs. W. T. Waterman, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. Leon Perry and Mrs. John R. Wood.

Mrs. Martin Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. William Martin of Portland, who formerly resided here, has invited a group of her Salem friends to a luncheon on Tuesday afternoon at the Multnomah Athletic club in Portland.

Bidden from Salem are Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mrs. Carl G. Collins, Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Mrs. Robert Needham, Mrs. William Lidbeck and Mrs. A. Terrence King.

To Wed at Home Ceremony . . .

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Delmer Campbell in West Salem Heights will be the scene of a quiet but impressive wedding ceremony this afternoon with his sister, Miss Beulah Campbell, becomes the bride of Charles M. Powell of Portland and Salem, son of Mrs. Cordelia Powell of Longview, Wash. Dr. Chester W. Hamblin will officiate at the 4 o'clock rites before the fireplace which will be banked with arrangements of spring flowers.

For her wedding the bride has chosen a pearl grey gabardine suit with short fitted jacket made with dolman sleeves. Her accessories will be pink and her pink felt sailor is adorned with veiling in shades of wine, red and pink. At the neckline of her suit will be a pink scarf. She will carry a hand bouquet of pink rosebuds and bouvardia.

Mrs. Lawrence Anderson will be her cousin's honor attendant. Her wool gabardine suit is of aqua and designed with fitted jacket and full skirt. She will wear an off-the-face hat of black straw embellished with roses on one side and black accessories. She will carry a similar bouquet of roses and bouvardia shading from pink to rose. Mr. Anderson will stand with the groom as best man.

A reception will follow the nuptials. Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell will preside at the coffee urn and the groom's mother will cut the cake. Mrs. Roy S. Lewis of Portland will be at the punch bowl and assisting will be Mrs. J. Delmer Campbell and Miss Lottie Nash of Portland. Susan Campbell of Gresham, niece of the bride, will pass the guest book.

After a wedding trip the couple will be at home in Salem at 965 Marion street.

Springtime Chores...

Comes spring comes time for that annual round of housecleaning and gardening. Today we've chosen a few of Salem's young matrons to depict a few spring housecleaning chores, hoeing and planting.

Always a must in the spring when the first sun shines is washing windows. Here Mrs. Arthur Fisher gets out her window brush to begin washing her pane glass windows at the Fisher home on Electric street.

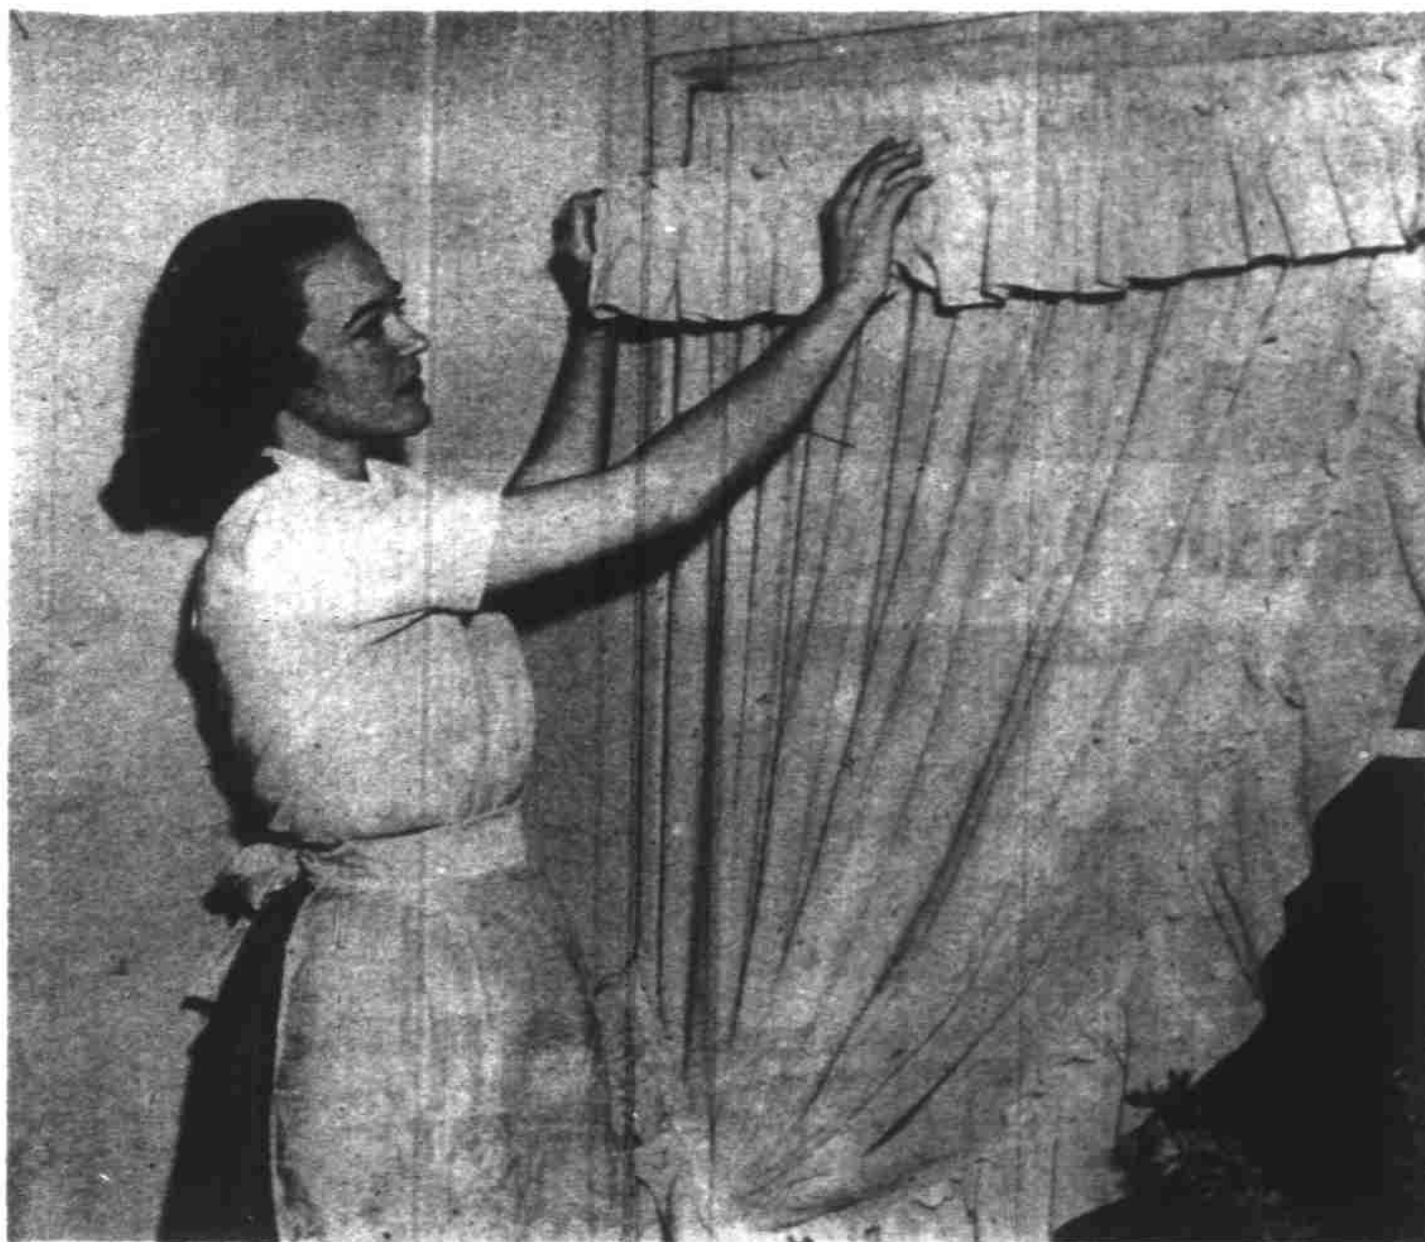

Cleaning kitchen cupboards is not overlooked when Mrs. Bruce Van Wyngarden begins her spring housecleaning at her new home on Jefferson street.

Mrs. Harvey Quistad takes delight in polishing her mahogany furniture, knowing her housecleaning chores are about finished when time comes for polishing.

Proudly hanging her newly washed and ironed ruffled curtains, always one of the major tasks in housecleaning, is Mrs. Oscar Specht, who is in the last stages of spring cleaning in her Chemeketa street apartment.

Mrs. Maurice Brennen, busy planting pansies in the garden of her East Nob Hill home, looks up for the photographer as he came by one sunny day the past week.

Mrs. Frank Cross pauses during her gardening activities at her North Cottage street home, incidentally the pauses get longer as the day progresses. (All photos by Kennell-Ellis).

Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Silver Tea

Final plans for the silver tea of the Salem Memorial hospital auxiliary on Friday, April 23, have been announced by Mrs. Chris Seely, general chairman, and her committee, which includes Mrs. George Hewitt, Mrs. A. C. Haag, Mrs. P. W. Geiser, Mrs. Sam Neufeldt and Mrs. Irwin Wedel. The tea will be held from 2:30 until 5 o'clock, at the Salem Woman's clubhouse. Guests will be received by the president, Mrs. W. H. Barber, and officers including Mrs. C. C. Edwards, Mrs. Irwin Wedel, Mrs. I. W. Geer, Mrs. Sam Neufeldt, Mrs. Dan Keller and Mrs. J. J. Nunn.

The following women have been asked to pour: Mrs. A. C. Haag, Mrs. Mal Rudd, Mrs. W. H. Barber and Mrs. C. C. Edwards. In charge of the dining room will be Mrs. Guy Albin, Mrs. Jerry Scott, Mrs. George Hewitt, Mrs. Henry Toeva, Mrs. Nettie Roberts and Mrs. Christine Simmons.

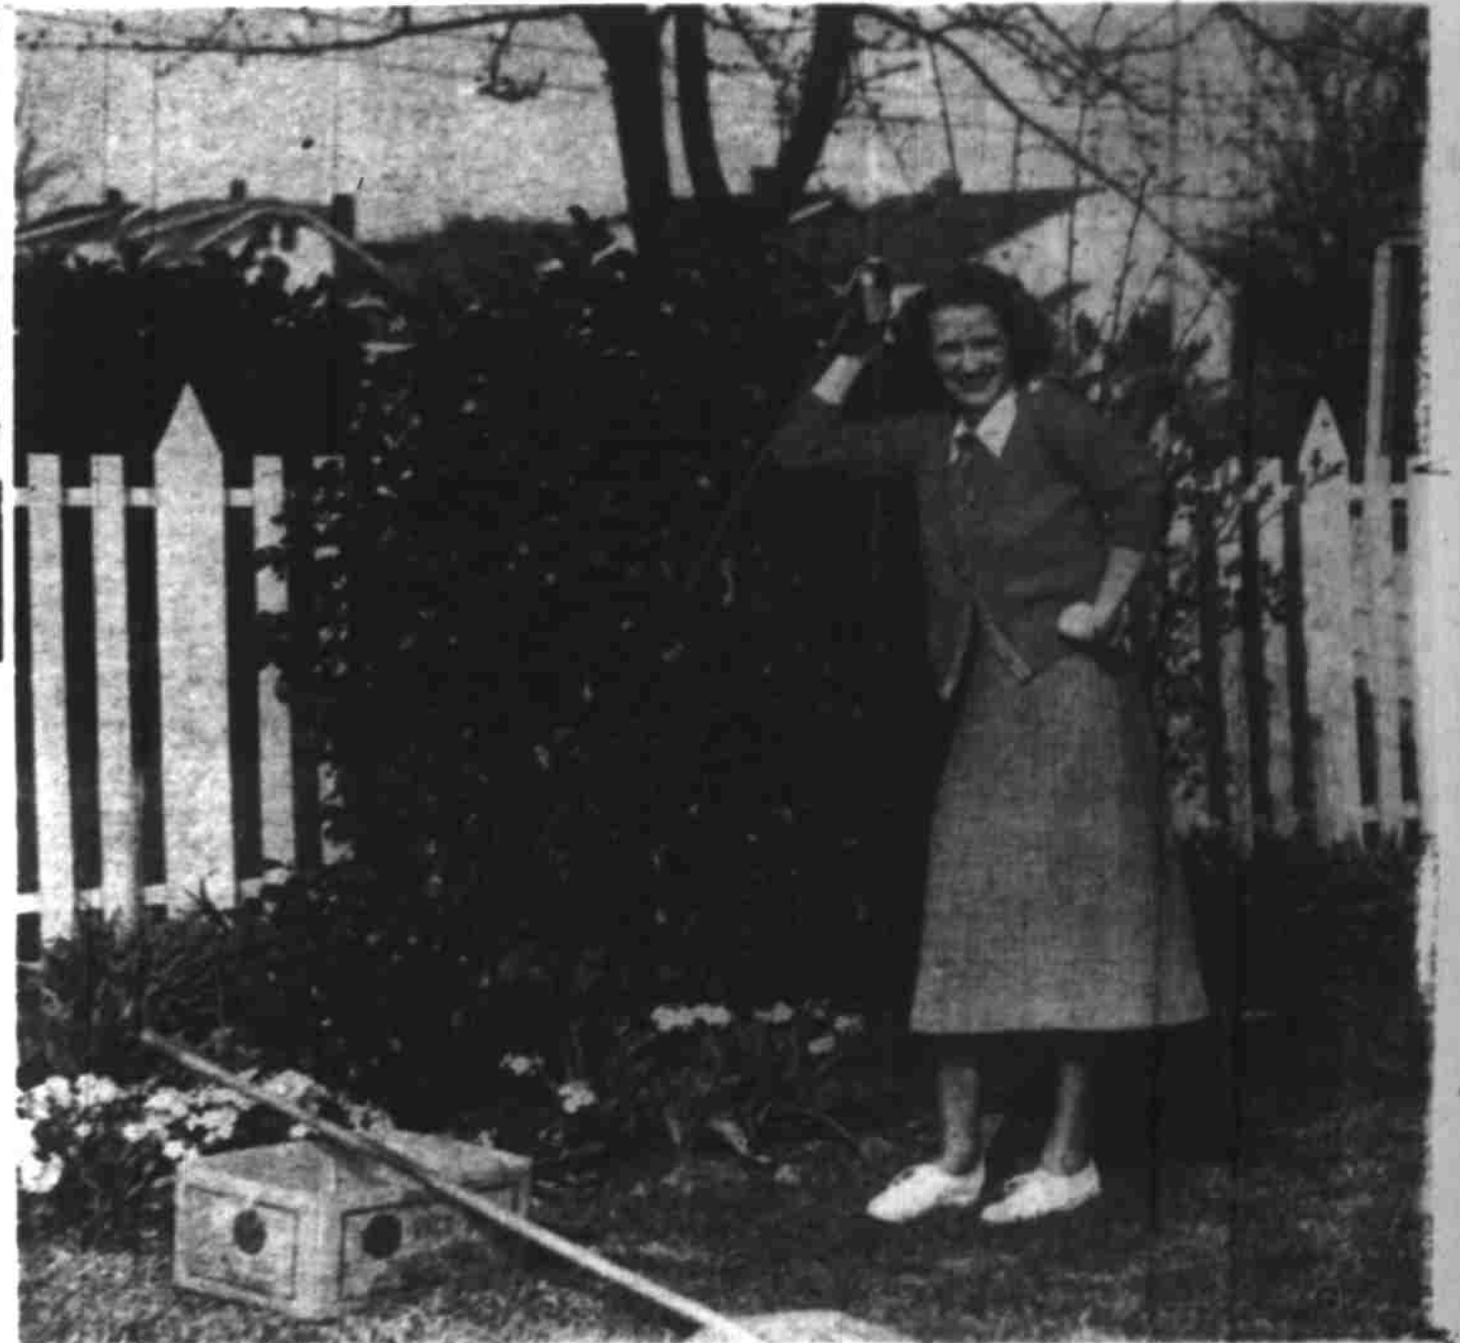

Mrs. P. W. Geiser and her committee have arranged for the exhibit of antique and hand-painted china and old glass. Many of the pieces to be shown have a most interesting and unique history, and some will be featured in still-life arrangements.

In the past the auxiliary has supplemented hospital needs and the project for this year is supplying nursery equipment, and proceeds from the tea will be directed into this channel. All members and friends of the auxiliary are invited to attend the tea.

Elaine White to Marry . . .

In a spring setting of calla lilies, yellow snapdragons and cherry blossoms this afternoon at the Calvary Baptist church Miss Elaine White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. White, will become the bride of Floyd Wayne Riley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Riley of Portland. At 4 o'clock the Rev. Charles Durden will perform the ceremony. Miss Beverly Kenney will be the soloist and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs the organist. While the candles at the altar and in the windows are being lighted by Miss Anna Mae England of Albany, formerly of Salem, and Miss Dorothy Oberg of Portland, Al Benson will recite "How Do I Love Thee" by Browning.

The candle girls, Miss Barbara White, as her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Patricia Larson and Miss Carol Gilkey of Newport, as bridesmaids, will all wear identical styled old-fashioned gowns of faille made with pleated skirts with white lace panel insets on the skirts and fitted bodices. Lace also edges the short sleeves and low, round necklines. The candle girls will wear shell pink and wristlets of pastel flowers. The honor maid will wear aqua and the bridesmaids will be in yellow. They will wear white lace mitts and bonnets of lace. Their old-fashioned nosegays will be of pastel spring flowers. Peggy Riley of Vancouver, Wash., niece of the groom, will be flower girl and will wear a yellow faille dress made similar to the attendant's. She will carry a basket of daisies. Hugh Patrick Murphy will be the ring bearer.

The petite, blonde bride will be given in marriage by her father. Of white satin is her bridal gown fashioned with a tiered bustle and full skirt sweeping into a court train. The fitted bodice is designed with a net yoke enhanced with satin applique design, with insets of the same on the long sleeves. From a Juliet cap of white horsehair braid will cascade her train length tulle veil, which is edged in scrolls of lace. The veil is the one Mrs. Wesley Balzer (Elda Unger) wore at her wedding. For "something old" the bride will carry a white silk hand embroidered handkerchief, which has been in her father's family and will wear a 150 year old Episcopalian gold cross, which belongs to Mrs. Warren Baker. She will carry a white prayer book marked with cymbidium orchids and Stephanotis.

Donald Tobey of Portland will stand with the groom as best man and seating the guests will be Richard Phillipsen, George Keller, Preston and John Holt, all of Portland.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. White will wear an aqua afternoon dress with aqua and black accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds and bouvardia. Mrs. Riley will attend her son's wedding in a rose crepe gown with navy blue accessories and her flowers will be roses and bouvardia.

The newlyweds will greet their guests at a reception in the church parlors. Cutting the cake will be Mrs. Warren Baker and Mrs. Everett Fitts of Portland. Pouring will be Mrs. Paul Simpson of Eugene and Mrs. Floyd K. Riley of Portland. Assisting will be Misses Betty Tweed, Betty Causey, Peggy Folkel and Betty Lou Edwards. Miss Carol Kannier will pass the guest book and at the gift table will be Mrs. Jack Hodges of Eugene, Miss Nancy Buren and Miss Lucille England of Albany. The five year old girls, Janie Baker and Daphne Gehlhar, will pass the dream cakes.

When the couple leave on their wedding trip to Canada the bride will don a burgundy suit with straight skirt, box jacket with flared back, grey straw hat adorned with roses and grey and burgundy accessories. Mr. Riley and his bride will go to El Paso, Texas, where they will live until fall, where he is stationed at Fort Bliss.
