Clarence L. Andrews — Funeral services for Clarence L. Andrews, 85, who died in Eugene at the home of a sister April 17, were held Tuesday, April 20. The Rev. Roy Strong officiated, with burial in Sand Ridge cemetery.

Born in Asthabula county, Ohio, Oct. 19, 1862, Andrews came to Oregon in 1864 when two years of age. In 1884 he moved to Seattle, then to Alaska where he spent many years. Later he moved to Heppner, and for the past several years had lived here. He was well known as a writer of Alaskan history.

Married twice, first in 1883 to Annie Anderson, who died in 1885, and in 1887 to Ida Swagart at Heppner. She died in 1903. Survivors are four half sisters, Mrs. Elza Morgan of Shedd, Mrs. Walter T. Wiles of Eugene, Mrs. Ben Wheldon of Payette, Idaho, and Mrs. Guy Blancher of Tacoma.

Ina May Thomas — Mrs. Ina May Thomas, 64, a resident of Albany and Jefferson her entire life, died at the Albany General hospital April 18 after an attack of pneumonia. Funeral services will be held Wednesday, April 21, from Fisher Funeral home. The Rev.

Edward Terry will officiate, with burial in Willamette Memorial park.

Ina May Smith was born in Albany Nov. 29, 1883, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Delazon Smith. April 15, 1911, she married Roscoe C. Thomas and for many years they made their home in Jefferson. After her husband died in 1937 she returned to Albany. She was a member of the Eastern Star and Jefferson Women's club and of the Methodist church.

Survivors are two children, Mrs. Florence Cathey of Albany and Delazon Thomas of Jefferson; two brothers and three sisters, Delazon Smith of Portland, Merrill Smith of Lebanon, Mrs. E. A. Boyle of Salem, and Volena Smith and Ianthie Smith of Albany, and four grandchildren.

Evelyn Ellen McGinnis — Evelyn Ellen McGinnis, six-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. McGinnis of Klamath Falls, died there April 18 following a long illness. Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday, April 20, from the Albany Pentecostal Church of God, with Rev. Heath W. Lowery conducting the services. Burial was in Riverside.

Baby Evelyn was born in Albany on September 23, 1947. Her parents at the present time are temporarily in Klamath Falls where her father was a student in a vocational school. Surviving besides her parents are grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McGinnis and Spud Sheler, all of Albany.

Annie Skelton Case — Mrs. Annie Skelton Case, 81, died at the family home here after a heart attack Monday, April 19. Funeral services will be held from the Fisher Funeral home at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 21. Rev. Edgar Luther will conduct the services, with burial in Willamette Memorial park.

Born Aug. 18, 1866, in Devonshire, England, Annie Pridham came to the United States in 1883, living in North Dakota first. In 1891 she came to Albany and since had lived in this vicinity. She was a member of the Christian church.

At Grand Forks, N. D., in 1883, she married Thomas Skelton who died in 1924. In 1933 she married W. L. Case who died in 1935. Survivors are three children, Mrs. George Warner and Mrs. Mel DeLeon, both of Albany, and Thomas Skelton of Toledo; also 19 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren.

Daley Houston Sliger — Daley Houston Sliger, 62, died at the family home on Broadway early Monday, April 19. Funeral services will be
