Jaunting About Johnson's

The sun has really shone, The rain has almost flown, It's the time of the year For summer clothes to appear.

If you want to be cute and gay, As you loaf, toil, and play— Buy a "cotton duster" skirt And a frilly blouse or sport-shirt.

The skirts are striped, printed, or plain With eyelet ruffling of petticoat fame; Johnson's have many cottons and failles In ballerina and dandyle styles.

For blouses of any type or size, Come to Johnson's and economize. An eyelet embroidery blouse, as sweet, Will make your new ensemble complete.

Something new has been added this year, To go with shorts and other sports gear. Little camisoles of Grandmother's day, To give you new freedom in your play.

They'll fit so snug to your waist, And never slip up out of place, The perfect attire with jeans and slacks, (No petticoats bulging in fronts or backs).

You'll find half-slips in our He-gerie shop, To match the camisoles you'll wear on top, In bridal white and poudre blue, Something nice to have next in you.

Another summer item is here, And Brides, especially, will give a cheer; Jersey shortie nighties in pink, blue, and white, So cool and comfy for a summer night.

Johnson's is the place to go— For everything in your trousseau.
