

Swegle PTA Holds Officer Election, Plans Activities

SWEGLE—Officers elected for the new year of the Swegle Parent Teachers association at the school house Tuesday night were president, Mrs. Melvin La Due, vice president, Mrs. Harold Alderman, secretary, Mrs. Claude Harman, and treasurer, Mrs. Marion West. They will be initiated in May.

Mrs. George Standley, health chairman, announced that the spring health clinic for pre-school children and babies will be held with the date to be announced soon. The five communities east of the city limits, Riskey Fruitland, Auburn, Swegle and Middle Grove, will each be expected to have 15 children present for the clinic.

Arthur Roloff announced the coming of the mobile X-ray unit to Salem. The date for the open house at Swegle has been set for Friday night, April 30.

For the program the supervisor of music presented five of his instrumental music class as an orchestra. There are ten in the class. It is the first year in music for most of the class and this was their first appearance before an audience. Playing their parts were John Gilman, Charles Jayne, Wanda Kennedy, Nancy Joe Jayne and Anna Mae West. Serving at the refreshment hour were Mrs. Daniel Casey and Mrs. Charles Salter.

Lions Speaker Talks Trusts

SILVERTON—Frank J. Stahl, Jr., of Salem, guest speaker at the Lions club meeting Wednesday night at the hotel, talked on the history of trusts in modern society and the effect upon the common citizen. He was introduced by Rev. Frank of Salem.

The festival committee reported that, while no fees, it would be given in Silvertown this year. The Silvertown festival association has been officially formed and will work on a 1949 festival.

Announcement was made of the zone picnic to be held in May at Silver Creek Falls park with the committee in charge to consist of Dale, Lammie, J. J. Murrey, Robert Miller, Gerald Gustinow, Dr. R. F. Schmidt and Ed Sherman.

Board of directors set May 19 as the nomination meeting and June 2 for election.
