Richards, Cook Set For Wednesday Date

Their training chores at an end after today's final outings, both Bobby Richards and Paulie Cook anxiously await their Wednesday young season tonight in Bremerton. Three tilts with the Tars, and then night 10-round date at the armory. Both Richards, the Portlander who holds the state featherweight title, and the solid-socking Cook, who fights out of Tacoma, have been tuning up in their respective home cities. ## Bigger Duck Bag Doubtful

WASHINGTON, April 26-(AP)-Prospects are rather slim for a longer duck hunting season next fall or for increased bag limits. This was the view fish and wildlife service officials gave today at a senate expenditures subcommittee hearing on wildlife bills.

Fred C. Lincoln, assistant director of the federal fish and wildlife service, said there might be a few millions increase over the esdmated 54,000,000 duck population of a year ago. But, he added, there should be a minimum of $0,000,000 ducks before bag lim-Ites are increased or the shooting season limited. The present duck population compared with 125,-000,000 in 1944.

In the two games the Salem flinging parade issued 19 bases on balls. Three of the four Packer tallies in the first game were walked across, and the fourth came in as a direct result of two more free passes. More walks had a hand in every run the Yaks collected in the nightcap also. It was the walkin'est afternoon a Salem team has had in years. A thoroughly chilled gathering of 2001 shivered through it.

The Packer pitching issued 15 bases on balls itself, but failure to hit in the pitches cost the locals any chance they had to snatch either game. They left 21 baserunners stranded in the 16

In came Bus Sporer and he reluctantly, but immediately walked across two Yak runs, tleing the score. ## Rampaging Indians Nab Fifth Straight Victory

The Boston Red Sox were labelled as the power boy's when the American league season got under way this year but at this stage of the race the Cleveland Indians have displayed most of the TNT. Lou 69-141. Lamburger had a 72-76-Boudreau's rampaging Indians nailed their fifth win in a row yesterday as they edged the Chicago White Sox, 12-11, in a 14 inning duel which lasted four hours and 20 minutes. Eddie Robinson's second homer of the game supplied the Tribe with the winning run in the 14th and Bobby Feller's relief chucking in the Chisox' half of the frame averted an enemy threat. The Clevelands, still awaiting their first defeat, blasted four White Sox hurlers for 22 blows, while the losers were getting 15 off seven Indian moundsmen. The two clubs pumped six homers in the first three and a half innings. Other American results saw Mel Parnell pitch the Boston Red Sox to a 6-0 win over the Washington Senators as he doled out but five hits. Ted Williams paced the Bosox attack with a double and three singles. The St. Louis Browns nosed the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, behind Fred Sanford's twirling in the only other tilt on the junior loop slate. Eddie Stanky got his first crack at the Brooklyn Dodgers who "betrayed" him and was the key offensive man in the Boston Braves' 5-0 victory over the Bums. Stanky hit a triple and single and walked once. Bill Voiselle allowed the Durochers but three hits. Dave Koslo's seven-hitter propelled the New York Giants to a 5-1 decision over the Philadelphia Phils. No other National games were scheduled.

Francis Wilson: Catching: Offensively okeh when Bus McMillan is in there. as he looks as if he'll hit plenty. Defensively uncertain and one of Wilson's many early-season worries. Pitching: Should be okeh when the staff gets in shape. Bob Stevenson, Roy Pitter and Cal McIrvin are sure starters, and Vince Lazor should be later on. Jim Olson has looked okeh in relief and will improve. Hunk Anderson still a question after his Sunday outing, and joined by Bill Carr and Bus Sporer. Right now the pitching expectancies are one of the brightest features okeh, but Jim Wert must keep hitting. Second base-shortstopt Defensively sharp, and both Al Spacter and Joe Gedzius will begin hitting soon, it is hoped. Third base: Mel Nunes was defensively tops in the circuit last season and hit .275. No worry here if Mel can regain that stride, Outfield: All three-Chet Hartman, Dick Sinovic and Dick Gentzkow — must hit hard and often to be passable. Defensively lacking as a unit and Wilson's No. 1 worry. The big power should be here, but so far hasn't blossomed at all. In fact, there seems to be a dire shortage of power in the entire team, which will make it all the tougher on the pitching department, Base-running: Class P at present, to be blunt. There are no gazelles in the lineup, although a couple are fast, and two-thirds of the boys are decidedly slow. Also, haphazard galloping and thoughtlessness were eyident during the home stand Hustle and attitude: Good on both counts.

But as mentioned, it's hard to tell exactly what the Wilsons do have, and will be until they've been blessed with better weather so they can get in shape. As for the business end, Boss George Emigh has a headache. The first seven of 11 scheduled home games (four rained out) netted 8362 in attendance, and the total, with good weather would have been between 18,000 and 20,000.
