

Luncheons, Dinners Slated

Several informal luncheons and dinners are on the social slate for the ensuing week.

As Revue Party
Mrs. Edgar T. Pierce will preside at a one o'clock luncheon on Friday afternoon at her North Winter street home in compliment to Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, who with Mr. Jones is flying to Paris on May 3, where they will spend a month sojourning in France. They will make the trip both ways by plane.

A group of the traveler's friends have been bidden to the luncheon, which will be followed by bridge. Arrangements of spring flowers will provide the decorative note on the luncheon tables and about the rooms.

A Salad Luncheon
Mrs. Edwin Keech has invited a few of her friends to a 1:15 o'clock salad luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at her Morningstar home. Contract bridge will be in play after the luncheon hour. The hostess will use spring blossoms and flowers for decorating. Covers will be placed for twelve matrons.

Friends To Be Hosts
Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell will be hosts at dinner Thursday night at their Mission street home, "Deerwood," for the pleasure of Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand, who are home from a year in Germany. The dining hours will be spent informally.

Covers will be placed for Judge and Mrs. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Powell.

Mrs. Beakley To Entertain
Mrs. John Beakley will entertain at dinner tonight at her East Rural street home in compliment to the Tuesday bridge club. Cards will be in play following the dinner hour.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. Ralph H. Small and Mrs. George Schaefer, additional guests, Mrs. Brazer Small, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. H. G. Mason, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. Kenneth Bull, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mrs. F. W. Pomeroy, Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. Ronald Jones and the hostesses.

Opti-Mrs. Club Elects Officers

Mrs. Clark Lettich has been elected president of the newly organized Opti-Mrs. club auxiliary to the Salem Optimist club. Officers to serve with Mrs. Lettich are Mrs. James Mason, vice president, and Mrs. Kenneth Foster, secretary-treasurer.

All wives of the Salem Optimists are invited to attend the meeting of the new auxiliary tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Leo Olsen. The women's organization is independent of the men's club, but will aid them when necessary. The auxiliary will help girls, who have met with unfortunate circumstances, the same as the men and the boys.

Recent Graduate group of AA-UW will meet for a desert supper at the home of Mrs. Edward Dick, 125 Damon avenue, tonight. Henry Miller will show color movies of the Pacific area, particularly Hawaii, and discuss amateur photography.

Miss Hall, Mr. Strode Married

A Salem man, Marvin L. Strode, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strode, took as his bride Miss Norma Jean Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ferguson of Pullman, Wash., formerly of Salem, at a morning ceremony on April 17. The rites took place at Pullman at the United Presbyterian and Christian church with the Rev. John Haupt officiating at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Ferguson gave the bride in marriage and for her wedding she carried a beige suit with mist blue hat and grey accessories. She carried a white prayer book and pinned to her suit was a brown orchid.

Mrs. J. H. Stevens was her sister's honor attendant and wore a powder blue suit with corsage of pink carnations. Wesley Strode stood with his brother as best man.

A reception was held at the Ferguson home following the nuptials. After a wedding trip to Spokane the newlyweds will be at home in Salem on North Winter street.

The new Mrs. Strode attended schools in Oklahoma and is now employed at Montgomery Ward and Co. Mr. Strode is a graduate of Salem schools and recently was released from the army. He is now attending Merritt Davis School of Commerce.
