Unionvale Has Many Visitors

UNIONVALE—Weekend guests at the J. C. Church home were Mr. and Mrs. John C. Church of Lead Camp, Oregon. Clark Church of Taft is also spending a few days with his parents.

Owen Turner who has been in the General hospital in McMinnville several days, is to return home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Smith have moved to the recently vacated house on the Kidd place.

The two youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Edwards are improving after having been confined to their home with sinus and ear infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Konzelman, who have lived in Corvallis since their marriage in October, are moving to McMinnville soon where he will be employed by Christensen and Nelson. Mrs. Konzelman is the former Ellen Rutschman and they were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Rutschman, Sunday. Mrs. Fred Withee, jr. visited her sister, Mrs. Konzelman in Corvallis last week.

George Strawn and his brother John spent Sunday at the coast fishing. They brought home a fine catch of perch.

Monday visitor at the Horace Edwards home was his aunt, Mrs. Fred Reichstein.

Silverton BPW Plan Election

SILVERTON—Observance of music week and election of officers will both be featured at the May meeting of the Silverton Business and Professional Women's club, to be held May 4 in the Eugene Field building.

The club music committee, headed by Lois Riches, with Mrs. C. H. Weiby and Mrs. C. F. Stoltz as her members, has arranged a community program for that night at the Eugene Field building at 8 o'clock. Special committee members asked to assist were Mrs. F. J. Roubal and Helvie Silver. The public is invited to attend the program.

Following this the club members will hold a special session at which the new officers will be elected. Stella Dybeck heads the nominating committee.

Oak Point School Plans Friday Night Meeting

Oak Point school society will meet in the schoolhouse Friday, April 30, at 8 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harnsberger will show pictures taken on their recent trip to the Hawaiian Islands and Clarence Primus will show pictures of their trip to Washington, D. C., and other cities.
