

County Extension Committee Meets To Make Plans

Nominating committee for the Marion county home extension committee was named at the meeting Monday with Mrs. Ralph Mercer in Rickie community. Members of the group to pick successors to Mrs. Rex Hartley, Mrs. Glenn Bridgwell whose terms expire in June are Mrs. E. A. Kallis, Silverton; Mrs. John Craig, Sidney Talbot; Mrs. H. C. Otte, Lansing Neighbors.

Plans for the second all day project leaders meeting on salads and salad dressings April 30 were made as also for the Marion county program planning day to be held May 7 in Salem YMCA. Fifteen of the 29 Marion county units will send representatives to the project leaders training meeting and present it to their groups in May. All of the 29 units will be represented at the program planning day when Frances Clinton, assistant state home demonstration agent, will be present to help prepare the 1948-49 program.

Plans for attendance at the state council meeting in Corvallis June 3 and 4 were discussed. Rosa Ahrens of Turner will be hostess for the meeting May 17. Other members of the Marion county committee are Mrs. Frank Way, North Howell; Mrs. Richard Chittenden, Roberts; Mrs. Roy Kuhns, Gervais; Eleanor Trindle, Marion home demonstration agent, was also present.

Egyptian documents on parchment dating from 1,500 years B.C. still exist.
