Jaycees to Hear Dewey

Salem Junior Chamber of Commerce will be represented by a large delegation of its membership at sessions of the state Junior Chamber convention in Portland today and tomorrow.

Gordon Keith, new president of the local junior chamber, will head the official delegation which also includes Tom Pomeroy, C. A. Schaefer, Richard Schmidt and James Buchanan. The delegates will be accompanied by their wives. Other members are expected to visit some of the convention sessions.

A highlight will be a dinner address Saturday evening by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, followed by a dance.

Delegates will sponsor the candidacy of Pomeroy as a state vice president for the organization's district 2 which includes Salem. Schmidt is a member of the convention nomination committee. Schaefer is a state director.

Perceptible tides are observed in some lakes.
