

May Weekend Festivities Begin Today With Tea For Queen Joyce I

May Weekend festivities on the Willamette university campus will officially open this afternoon when Queen Joyce I and her court are honored at the traditional tea at Lausanne hall from 3:30 to 5 o'clock. Hostesses for the affair are members of the Independent Women's organization and Weds with Miss Isabelle Mason as chairman. An invitation has been extended to all students, parents, faculty members and wives to attend the tea.

Receiving in the lounge will be Queen Joyce Patton and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Hazel Patton of Astoria, Princess Vergie Wicks and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Ruth Wicks of Albany, Princess Dorothy Deal and her mother, Mrs. Harvey Deal of Longview, Wash., Dean Mary Linerode and Miss Cherie Miller, Independence social chairman.

Pouring will be Miss Helen Olsen, Lausanne hall housemother, Mrs. Cloyd Harrel and Mrs. Dale Mansfield of the Weds.

Queen's Court
Queen Joyce will be crowned at colorful ceremonies on the Willamette university campus Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Last year's May Weekend queen, Margaret Allen of Salem will crown Queen Joyce. Members of the queen's court include Princess Vergie Wicks and Dorothy Deal and their attendants, Laura Jean Bates, Frances Sopp, Caroline Cooney and Beverly Biggs. Train bearers will be Betty Lou Graber, daughter of the Leo Grabers and Merrie Jill Coynier, daughter of the Craig Coyners, all of Salem. The coronation will be climaxed with the traditional winding of the May Pole by the junior women, who will wear pink and blue formal.

Immediately after the coronation the Queen and her court will be honored at a tea at University House, to which all students, faculty, campus visitors and friends are invited to attend. President and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will receive with the queen and her attendants and their mothers.

May Day Ball Saturday
Highlighting the social events on Saturday will be the May Day Ball at the university gymnasium with Glenn Williams and his orchestra engaged to play between 9 and 12 o'clock. An authentic waltz from which the orchestra will play are two of the outstanding decoration features. Woven yellow and blue crepe paper will lower the gym ceiling, while plush drapes will surround the three thrones of the Queen's court.

At 9:45 o'clock, trumpeters and heralds will announce the arrival of Queen Joyce and her court. Following her entrance, the traditional Queen's dance will be played.

Chaperones for the formal affair will be Mrs. Mary Linerode, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fenix, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jory and Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Schulze.

Guests on Campus for Weekend
All living organizations on the campus will entertain out-of-town guests for May Weekend at the respective houses. Delta Gamma will honor Queen Joyce, Princess Vergie and Princess Dorothy at a formal banquet Saturday night at the Golden Pheasant at 6 o'clock. The program will include a welcome by Aldene Gould, vocal solo by Joy Bushnell, piano solo by Arlene Joseph, short talks by the Royal Trio, Martha DuRette, 1947 Merry Festival Queen, and Mrs. Leon Perry, chapter rush advisor.

Alpha Chi Omegas, and their guests will be entertained at a spaghetti dinner at the home of Mrs. John Minto on Saginaw street tonight at 6 o'clock. Red checked cloths, candles, decorations and food will comply with the Italian theme. After the dinner the group will attend the play.

The Pi Beta Phi coeds have invited their mothers to enjoy May weekend and several are arriving in time for the inter-sorority sing this morning. Rooms have been reserved at the Marion hotel for the mothers and they will be honored at a banquet at the hotel tonight at 5:30 o'clock. A buffet luncheon will be held at the chapter house Saturday noon for the mothers and their daughters preceding the coronation.
