

Miss Essley To Wed in June

Adding her name to the list of June brides-elect is Miss Rose Marie Essley of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Essley of New Boston, Illinois, whose engagement to Robert Berger, son of Mrs. Nellie Berger of Jennings Lodge, was revealed at a dessert supper party Friday night. The couple will be married in early June in New Boston.

Miss Ellen Sangster was hostess for the engagement party at the South Commercial street apartment of Miss Essley and Miss Sangster. Guests learned the news when they found scrolls hidden in napkins and bearing poems revealing the couple's names. The individual cakes were decorated with a gold wedding band and the engaged duo's initials.

Covers were placed for Miss Essley, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Esther Little, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Alice Weeks, Miss Beth Weeks, Mrs. Carlton Greider, Mrs. Elizabeth Enger, Mrs. W. T. Mil-lomberger, Miss Muriel Oliver, Miss Julia Kotts and the hostess. Miss Essley is a graduate of the University of Iowa and a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. She is younger girls program director at the Salem YWCA. Her fiancé is a pre-medical student at Oregon State college and a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He served as a major in the army air corps for five years.

Register for Camps

YWCA camp registrations are now coming in to headquarters office and those wishing to reserve a place at the camps are asked to do so immediately. Two YWCA camps at Crestwood and Westwood will be run during July and August with registration from one to five days at Crestwood and one week camps at Westwood.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding, president of the Santiam Area Girl Scout council, was in Portland Friday to confer with Mrs. Dorothy Kafer, regional director, with headquarters in Seattle.

Visitor at Mogan's

Interesting visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Farley Mogan this weekend is Mrs. Grace Auer, who was retired from the WAC as a captain on April 1. The Mogan met Mrs. Auer in Germany and she worked in the same office with Mr. Mogan in Frankfurt.

The retired captain served with the WAC for five and a half years, 42 months of which was spent in Europe. She returned to the states last August and since that time has been commander of the WAC squadron at Maxwell Field, Alabama. She was stationed in various places in Europe, her latest post being in Nuernberg, where she was in charge of women prisoners at the Nuernberg prison.

Mrs. Auer is enroute to Washington, where she will make her home on a dude ranch. In compliment to the visitor Mrs. Mogan invited a few friends to the tea Friday afternoon at her Myrtle avenue home.

Pre-Dance Parties

Several informal parties are being arranged to precede the Subscription club formal dinner dance at the Marion hotel tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCargar will be hosts for a gathering before the dance at their Fairmount hill home. Mr. and Mrs. James Walton also entertain a few friends at their East Superior street home preceding the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop and children, Robert and Sally, of Portland will be down for the weekend and will be guests at the dance of the Chandler Browns. Dr. and Mrs. Louis School of Portland, formerly of Salem, will be among the out-of-town guests at the dance and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, jr.

Mrs. Myers To Preside At Session

Mrs. Burton A. Myers, president of the woman's auxiliary to the Oregon State Medical society, will be in Portland today to preside at the annual spring session of the auxiliary at the Benson hotel. A luncheon will open the session at 12:30 o'clock. Officers will be elected and the annual report presented. There will also be a post-session board meeting. Mrs. Harry B. Moore is president-elect of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Myers has served as president for the last year and Salem members of her board have been Mrs. W. Wells Baum, who will also be in Portland today for the session, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. Horace Miller, Mrs. Carl W. Emmons, Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield and Mrs. Roscoe Wilson.

For the program Mrs. C. H. Phetteplane, director of the hospital school for crippled children, will discuss the activities of that school. The school which has been under the sponsorship of the Lane County Medical society, has been selected by the auxiliary as a new project for the coming year.

A Surprise Shower

A surprise shower was given for Miss Doris June Bradbury on Thursday night by Mrs. David Doughton. Earlier in the evening, Miss Bradbury had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Doughton and guests gathered later for the surprise party.

The "Newspaper" game was played and refreshments were served at a late hour. Guests at the party were Mrs. Allan Swaboda, Miss Pauline Sizemore, Mrs. Robert Clark, Mrs. Max Graves, Mrs. Otis Egghury, Miss Carroll Crawford, the hostess, Mrs. David Doughton and the honor guest, Miss Doris June Bradbury.

Miss Bradbury is the bride-elect of Frank Pummel of Portland and the wedding is planned for early June.

Phyllis Sanders Honor Guest

A birthday party was held for Miss Phyllis Sanders Thursday night at the home of Miss Elia Lovre. Games and music occupied guests during the evening. Luncheon was served late in the evening with Miss Emma Belt and Miss Macyle Woodruff assisting.

Attending were Mrs. Waldron Hillpot, Mrs. Clara Eckhout, Mrs. Ray Bairy, Mrs. Amanda Anderson, Mrs. Christina Mumm, Mrs. Nina Mattson, Mrs. Ardel Meir, Mrs. Mildred Lerum, Mrs. Frank Sanders, Miss Emma Belt, Miss Celia Greene, Miss Emaline Bair, Miss Shirley Daue, Miss Ida Periman, Miss Lora Dierks, Mrs. Mary Ann Coffel, Miss Ruth Bilyeu, Miss Dorothy Anderson, Miss Gladys Schollian, Miss Macyle Woodruff, Catherine Hanthorn, Miss Judy Sanders, Miss Norma Boles, Miss Mildred Toombs, Miss Barbara Sadder, Miss Pauline Larson, Miss Joyce Turner, Miss Bertha Lovre and Miss Elia Lovre.

Miss Jane Carson, sophomore at the University of Oregon is spending the weekend in Salem at the home of her parents, the John Carsons.

Past Presidents At Simpson Home

Mrs. Leroy Simpson entertained the Past Presidents club of Marion auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, at her Mission street home Thursday night.

Mrs. Arwin Strayer presided over the short business meeting and plans were outlined for the remainder of the year with Mrs. Willie Boone inviting the group to meet at her home on May 19. Mrs. C. E. Forbes, junior past president of the auxiliary, was welcomed as a new member.

During the informal social hour, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. James Beall and Mrs. Charles Hunt were presented with special tokens. Places were set for Mrs. Strayer, Mrs. Forbes, Mrs. Beall, Mrs. Boone, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. John Peterson, Mrs. Russell Mudd, Mrs. Henry Sim, Mrs. Genevieve Olson and the hostess.

Miss Gilman Is Married

The First Methodist church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Dorothy Jean Gilman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gilman, and Roland C. Kleen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kleen, on April 23 at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Ralph Kleen, Forest Grove, cousin of the groom, performed the rites and Mrs. Kleen was the organist. Lyle Kleen, brother of the groom, was soloist. The church altar was banked with bouquets of white lilies, snapdragons and palms. Mrs. Roy Lamb and Miss Doris Jean Leek lighted the candles.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown designed with full skirt, which ended in a train, and long, pointed sleeves. Her net veil was edged in lace and cascaded from a tiara of mock orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible marked with pink orchids.

Miss Jo Hardy was her cousin's honor maid and wore a white printed taffeta gown. Miss Mary Jane Gilman was her sister's bridesmaid and wore an aqua taffeta frock. Both carried colonial bouquets of sweet peas. Geraldine Sullivan was flower girl and Larry Keith Jordan the ring bearer.

Delbert Kleen stood with his brother as best man and seating the guests were Donald Addison, Donald Meyer, Ernest Meyer, Dean Gilman and Raymond Kleen.

The mothers both wore dark suits with corsages of pink rosebuds for the nuptials.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the Carver Room. Miss Jo Hardy presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Irwin Balzer cut the cake. Miss Rose Rempel was in charge of the dining room and Mrs. Dean Gilman passed the guest book. At the gift table were Miss Helen Rempel and Miss Martha Fadenrecht.

Mr. Kleen and his bride spent their honeymoon in Washington and along the Oregon coast. For traveling the bride wore a smoky beige suit with pink topcoat and orchid corsage. They will be at home in West Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Egin, jr. will be hosts for a dinner Sunday afternoon at their Kingwood Heights home in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. George P. Winslow and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Baumgartner and son, Kenneth, of Tillamook and Mr. and Mrs. George P. Winslow, jr. of Eugene.

The Yomarcos class meeting, which had been scheduled for Tuesday, has been postponed until May 11 at the home of Mrs. Walter Minier on Saginaw street.

Mrs. Ostrin Honor Guest

Mrs. Roy Ostrin was honored at a surprise shower Friday night when Miss Mildred Randolph entertained at the E. R. Frederickson home on North 14th street. Bridge was in play during the evening with a late supper following. Arrangements of spring flowers provided the decorative note.

Honoring Mrs. Ostrin were Mrs. E. R. Frederickson, Mrs. C. H. Ostrin, Mrs. Helen Goodenough, Mrs. Gordon Krueger, Mrs. William Ross, Mrs. Ellis Buswell, Mrs. Charles Gustafson, Mrs. Norman Yaugle, Mrs. John Strickfaden, Mrs. Fred Nicholls, Miss Ruth Skinner, Miss Lorraine Taylor and the hostess.

Musical Program Given for Court

The WCOF of the Salem court met at the Salem Woman's club Tuesday night for a covered dish supper arranged by Mrs. Barbara Karst and Mrs. Grace Foreman.

The entertainment included accordion solos by Dean Quamme, piano numbers by Andrew Fisher, puppets at Sacred Heart academy and vocal solos by Miss Doris Rohland.

Miss Mary O'Conner was welcomed as a new member of the court. Mrs. Angeline Hassler, organizer for this district from Sublimity, installed the new officers, assisted by Mrs. William Boedighelmer and Miss Mary Laus of the Sublimity court.

Women to Hear About Meat

Women interested in improving their knowledge of meat are asked to attend an open meeting on Tuesday, May 4 at the chamber of commerce at 2 o'clock. The meeting is being sponsored jointly by the YWCA and the National Livestock and Meat board.

The board will be represented by M. E. Olson, a recognized master of disseminating practical and authoritative information about a product for which the average family spends approximately one fourth of its food budget. Although meat is a universal food the average housewife is able to recognize only a few of the many different cuts available. Mr. Olson will discuss the proper methods of cooking, carving, serving and the essential place it occupies in the adequate diet.

This meeting is designed to impart in a fascinating manner the pertinent facts that will help the women of today and tomorrow do a more intelligent job of buying and using this important food product around which most of their daily meals are built. All interested women are invited to attend.

Garden Tour Postponed

The Salem Garden club tour, which had originally been scheduled for today, has been indefinitely postponed due to the weather conditions. The Garden club hopes to set a date for later in the spring or early summer when the weather has settled.

Gregory Stadler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, jr., will celebrate his sixth birthday at a party this afternoon at the Fairmount Hill home of his parents. Movies will be shown with birthday cake and refreshments following. Twenty of his friends have been bidden to the party. Additional guests will be his grandmother, Mrs. George Alexander, and Mrs. Kathryn Metsker of Woodburn.

Attend Banquet In Astoria

Several members of the Salem Branch Zonta International will motor to Astoria today to attend the charter dinner of the Astoria club which will be held at the Astoria hotel at 7 o'clock.

Dr. Helen Pearce of Salem, past international president of Zonta will speak. Hazel Cook, Portland, district president, will present the charter. Miss Cook is a former member of the Salem club. Also member from here will be Mrs. Harry Scott, president, Mrs. R. W. Land, Mrs. Mabel Clock, Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Maxine Buren and Mrs. Robert Fischer, jr.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Tatman have returned from a several days sojourn in Seattle at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Reynolds. The Tatmans were also accompanied to Vancouver, B. C. by Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell are spending the weekend at Timberline Lodge at Mt. Hood.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Drye have as their weekend house guests Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Godfrey of Seattle.
