

Mother's Weekend at Two Schools to Attract Many

Mothers will take the spotlight on both the University of Oregon and Oregon State college campuses this coming weekend when they are entertained at the annual Mother's weekend. Dozens of mothers of students from both schools will be attending the festivities from Salem. Mrs. George Alexander heads the University of Oregon mothers here and Mrs. George Croisan the Oregon State college mothers.

Mothers going to Eugene for the event will register in Johnson hall from 2-5 p. m. Friday, 9-12 Saturday morning, and from 2-4:30 p. m. Saturday at Gerlinger hall. Cups will be awarded living organizations registering the highest percentage of mothers, according to Joanne Frydenlund, Eugene, chairman of the weekend.

An important event of the weekend will be the election of new officers for the Mothers organization for the 1948-49 year. Present officers include Mrs. Howard J. Boyd, Eugene, state president; Mrs. Walter Thorn, Portland, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Eugene, secretary; Mrs. E. W. Grenfell, Portland, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Howard, Portland, financial secretary; Mrs. John Dundore, jr., Portland, corresponding secretary; and Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration in the University of Oregon, executive secretary. Among the Salem University of Oregon mothers planning to go to Eugene for the weekend are Mesdames George Alexander, George Swift, John Carson, A. E. Archibald, Ralph Cooley, Charles Huggins, James Bushnell, R. M. Fitzmaurice, Edna Olson, Oliver Huston, Howard Barlow, Aubrey Tussing, E. L. Crockett, John H. Carkin, P. H. Schnell, Walter Kirk, Frank Brownell and Grant Fallin.

At Oregon State
Oregon State college men and women are making plans to entertain their mothers at the 25th annual Mother's weekend. Mrs. Kate W. Jameson, dean of women emerita and originator of the women's weekend 25 years ago, will be the honor guest. The main event of the weekend will be the Associated Women Students Honor Convocation held Saturday, 1:30 p. m., in the men's gymnasium, where awards will be made to outstanding women students. Plans have been made to include men students in this year's convocation program. Mrs. James T. Brand, prominent Oregon civic leader, and the wife of James T. Brand, associate justice of the Oregon Supreme Court, will be the guest speaker.

The Oregon State college Mother's club will hold its third annual statewide meeting Saturday morning at 9:30 a. m. in the Memorial Union Ball room, to which all mothers are invited to attend and become members. Mrs. Harland Compton, Portland, is president of the state organization and will preside at this meeting.

During and immediately following the band concert, members of the Corvallis unit of the Mothers club will be hostesses at an informal outdoor tea under the trying tree, for the pleasure of all mothers and their sons and daughters. Saturday at 6 p. m., mothers will be entertained at banquets in all the living groups. Registration of mothers will be held Friday, May 7, at 2 p. m. to 3 p. m. at Memorial Union building; Saturday, 9 a. m. to 12, at same building.

Among the Oregon State mothers from Salem planning to attend the weekend festivities are Mesdames George Croisan, Donald Upjohn, Carl W. Emmons, Oscar I. Paulson, Glenn Paxson, Wolcott E. Buren, L. O. Arens, Harlan Pearson, Francis Wade, Frank Burlingham, Richard D. Slater, F. E. Simmons, Carl Schneider, Elmore Hill, S. H. Probert, R. E. Nickens, R. C. Blaxall, Carl Miller, Charles Wagner, F.
