

Dances Are Slated for Weekend

Several sorority and fraternity dances are on the Willamette university social slate this weekend.

LaFollette's barn will be the scene of the Delta Gamma barn dance tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Weather permitting, a hay ride will precede the dance with the traditional hayrack giving way to a hay filled truck.

Margaret Atwood is in charge of the dance, with the evening's entertainment to consist of square dancing, modern dancing, games and refreshments under the direction of Marion Sparks, Pearl Mann, Jackie Weller and Inie Lou Wilhelm. Gloria Palo heads decorations.

The patrons will be Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brennen and Mrs. Deseret Shaeffer.

Chi Omegas are entertaining their guests with a barn dance at Zahare's barn tonight at 8 o'clock. A hay ride will be the means of getting the guests to their destination and the theme for the evening will be "Hobo Haven."

General chairmen for the affair are Alice Adams and Barbara Crawford and assisting are Jean Robinson, Evelyn Baxendale, Jean Gilmer, Audrey Lein and Evelyn Taylor.

Decorations will follow the barn dance theme with lanterns and hay being featured. Refreshments of cider and doughnuts will be served.

Patrons for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. George Neuner, Mr. and Mrs. George Hill and Mrs. Bessie Hill, Chi Omega house-mother.

The Phi Delta Thetas will entertain with a formal dance Saturday night in the Phi Delta wing of Baxter hall. Theme of the affair is "Club Phi" with Dale McLellan in general charge of arrangements. Alan Robertson and his orchestra will play for the affair.

Patrons include Dr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Schulze, Dr. and Mrs. R. Ivan Lovell, Dr. and Mrs. Chester F. Luther and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Lillie.

Hospital Receives Vibra Harp

Attending a card party at the Veterans hospital in Roseburg were Mr. and Mrs. James Beall, accompanied by Mrs. Freda Peterson, department president of Oregon Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, Mrs. Cora Howes, department hospital chairman and Mrs. Leon Hansen, president of district No. 20.

A vibra harp was presented to the hospital orchestra by Mrs. Peterson from the Department of Oregon Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary. Several musical numbers were given. Presentation of this gift makes a total of $3200 the department of Oregon has donated to the hospital for musical instruments.

Dr. Sears, who is in charge of the hospital, has been pleased with the work the auxiliary has done and is highly recommending music to other State Veterans Administration in caring for patients.

Refreshments were served to 200 guests.

Girl Born to Quesseths

To Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Quesseth (Arlo SeRine) go congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Sharon Celia, on Wednesday at the Salem Memorial hospital. The little girl, who weighed six pounds, six ounces, is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas SeRine and Mr. and Mrs. George Quesseth, all of Salem. The baby's great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Jerstad of Alberta, Canada.

Miss Dierks A Bride

Miss Lois Dierks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Dierks, and Robert L. Miller, son of Mrs. Ethel Miller, exchanged their marriage vows on Saturday, May 1 at a ceremony at the First Baptist church with the Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson performing the 4 o'clock rites. The altar was banked with pink and yellow snapdragons in tall white vases. Misses Elaine and Elmore Dierks, twin sisters of the bride, lighted the candles. They wore cream colored afternoon frocks and carried gardenias. Miss Minnie Miller was the organist and Dale Hagedorn, cousin of the bride, sang.

Mr. Dierks gave his daughter in marriage. Her bridal suit was navy blue designed on regency lines. She wore a white straw roll-brim hat with flower trim and a corsage of red roses and orange blossoms.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Ruth B. Dierks, sister-in-law of the bride, wore a gray faille suit and a natural straw bonnet, trimmed with flowers. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Orville S. Miller, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Stacey Mink, brother-in-law of the bride, and Donald Hagedorn, a cousin.

Mrs. Dierks chose a blue erpe ensemble and white straw hat for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Miller attended her son's rites in a full-back black suit and a black straw hat trimmed in flowers. Their corsages were pink carnations and white sweet peas.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, 100 North Front street, Mrs. Art Hall, a friend of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Roy Weidner presided at the punch bowl. Miss Shirley Dane passed the guest book and Miss Ida Perryman was in charge of the gifts. Serving were Misses Marilyn Zink, Rose Marie Gottfried, Pat Voderzoda, Peggy Casey, Donna Hagedorn, cousin of the bride, and Shirley Bourcher.

The newlyweds left on a short honeymoon. Mr. Miller and his bride will be at home at 872 Highland avenue, Salem.

Doodlers Invited To Get Together

The Salem Art association invites all persons who wish to doodle, draw, paint, or otherwise express themselves graphically, to a get-together. They will meet at the Willamette university art building behind Lausanne hall, Wednesday night, May 12 at 7:30 p.m.

All should bring art materials. The association wishes to sponsor an informal creative group for self-expression. In the summer there will be sketching trips. All will be welcome at any time. Mutual criticism should help those who come, and the experience of working together will be refreshing. Temporarily Mrs. Norman Huffman will be hostess for the group.

Receive Honors at Show

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brydon returned home by car Wednesday night from Oakland, Calif., where they attended the annual Oakland Flower show. Mrs. Brydon went south over three weeks ago and his wife flew down for the opening on April 26.

The Henny-Brydon rhododendron exhibit received first prize in its own grouping and superior merit awards were received for three new rhododendron introductions.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fisher (Ruth Tanner) of Lansing, Michigan are announcing the birth of a son, John Edward, 9 pounds, 4½ ounces, on April 27. The grandparents are Mrs. Mabel Tanner of Salem who is in the east to welcome the new arrival, Henry Tanner of Tacoma, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher of Lansing.
