Patricia Brown Bride of Robert Busick at Church Nuptials on Friday

White with a touch of pale blue and shocking pink was the color scheme Miss Patricia Anne Brown selected for her wedding to Robert Gene Busick on Friday night at the First Methodist church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Blaine Brown and was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Busick. It was at 8 o'clock that the Rev. Brooks Moore performed the ceremony before a setting of pink crabbapple blossoms, pink snapdragons, white stock and woodruff fern.

Reid Shelton sang "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer" with Miss Katherine Schissler the organist. Misses Daphne Lekas and Miss Joan Claudy, wearing pastel green and yellow dresses, lighted the tapers.

Of ivory slipper satin was the bridal gown, a Gladys Failer original, fashioned with a Peter Pan collar, embellished with beadwork, tiny satin buttons down the front, long sleeves edged with the beading and a full gathered skirt which terminated in a court train. Her fingertip length veil of imported French ivory illusion cascaded from a coronet of white beads. She carried a white Bible marked with a white orchid and satin streamers with bouvardia. For "something old" she carried the handmade lace handkerchief which Mrs. W. E. Kirk had carried at her wedding.

Miss Shirley Brown was her sister's honor maid and Mrs. Warren Brown, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Edward Lind and Miss Mary Phelps were bridesmaids. The girls all wore identical dresses of white chiffon designed on Grecian lines with a Venetian lace yoke at the waistline and cape sleeves of the lace. They wore coronets of braided chiffon caught at each end with bouvardia. The maid of honor carried a sheaf of pastel blue calla lilies and the attendants' sheaves were of shocking pink callas.

David Ramseyer, jr., stood with the groom as best man and seating the guests were William Olsen, Dave Melson, Donald Price, and Warren Brown.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Brown selected a heartreuse crepe gown with matching accessories and at the waistline of her dress she pinned a corsage of lavender stephanotis. Mrs. Busick attended her son's marriage in a navy blue gown with white accessories and corsage of white stephanotis.

The newlyweds received the congratulations of their guests at a reception in the Carrier room. Mrs. William E. Kirk and Mrs. George Hanaukska presided at the urns and serving the cake were Mrs. Blanche Brown and Miss Lavern Harnsberger. Assisting were the Misses Jane Acton, Connie Coking, Carolyn Carson, Margie Stone, Artie Phillips and Mrs. Wayne Struble. Miss Marjorie Stockman passed the guest book and Miss Edna Walsh the drink.

Miss Addy Lane and Miss Vera Jack were at the gift table. When the couple left on their honeymoon trip south the bride donned an imperial gold wool crepe suit, cinnamon and white hat with cinnamon and gold accessories. Her topper was a shortie white cut-away and pinned to her suit was a white orchid. Mr. Busick and his bride will be at home in Salem after May 23.

Shower for Bride-Elect

Miss Helen Shelton was honor guest at a miscellaneous shower at the South Commercial street home of Miss Mary Louise Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Lee, Monday night. Miss Shirley Reimann was the assisting hostess. The engagement of Miss Shelton, a senior at Salem high school, daughter of Van Shelton of Scio, to Lynn Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest S. Barker, of Salem, was recently announced. The wedding date has been set for June 6 at the First Methodist church in Salem.

Pre-Nuptial Party

Miss Rose Marie Esley, who recently announced her engagement to Robert Burger of Jennings Lodge, was honored at a pre-nuptial party Thursday night when the evening's guests entertained at the YWCA. Miss Esley is younger girls program director at the YWCA and members of the staff were bidden as guests.

A miscellaneous shower feted the bride-to-be and a late desert supper followed. During the evening, the guests made dish towels for the future bride. The table centerpiece carried out the April showers theme with a pink and white umbrella and under it a bouquet of spring flowers. Extending from the umbrella were little flowers tied to pink ribbon which told the bride-elect where to find her gifts.

Honoring Miss Esley and her fiancé were Mrs. C. W. Parker, president of the board of directors of the YWCA, Mrs. Clinton Weeks, Mrs. Harry Ross, Mrs. Carlton Greider, Mrs. Elizabeth Carter, Miss June Rowland, Miss Ellen Sangster and Mrs. Little.

The Rev. Paul Hokanson, Okla. City, is to speak at the 11 a.m. service. A program dedicated to mothers will be given during the Sunday school hour.

At 7:30 p.m. the program will be presented by students from Salem College and Academy, including Estelle Schroeder, Betty Friesen and Delores Friesen, comprising a trio; Leona VanTassel, pianist; Sylvia Spillman, flutist; Rosalie Caswell and Gerald Heskett.

Tillicum Club Names Officers

New officers of the Tillicum dancing club for the ensuing year were elected at the last formal dance of the season Thursday night. Wheeler R. English was named president and Herman Jochimsen, secretary-treasurer.

Over a hundred couples attended the dinner dance at the Marion hotel with Guy Albin's orchestra playing for dancing and during the dinner hour a string duet played. The May day theme was carried out in the decorations with May baskets tied with pink bows and filled with garden flowers centering the tables. Pastel crepe paper ribbon formed an improvised May pole on the ceiling. Blossoms and flowers were twined around the mirrored posts.

Ilvius Ruetz, headed the decoration committee.
