Elks Semis Gained; Brande-Painter Today

Three divot aces earned tickets into the semi finals of the title bracket as action resumed yesterday in the Elks annual Willamette Valley links classic.

Jimmy Sheldon, perhaps the top local hope for honors, turned back Harvey Quistad in one of the feature matches of the day. In an all-Albany duel, Dick Yost hammered out a 4 and 3 victory over Rex McReynolds, Veteran Glen Lengren moved into the semis by getting past Bill Schafer, Lebanon's Jack Brande, No. 1 favorite to take the Elks crown, and Tony Painter will vie for the fourth semi slot in the title picture as they tee off at 10 o'clock this morning.

Sheldon and Lengren will collide in one semi duel next week, with Yost meeting either Brande or Painter in the other. Only first flight action yesterday saw Ned Ingram stop Lawrence Alley, 2 and 1.

There was heavy quarter-finals firing throughout the remaining of the 28 flights yesterday and the remaining of the third round matches must be wound up before tonight's deadline.

Huskies Top Vandals SEATTLE, May 8-(AP)-Three meet records and one 18-year-old stadium mark tumbled today in spite of a chill breeze as the University of Washington track team thumped Idaho 94 to 37.

Husky Dave Dalby threw the platter 156 feet 912 inches to beat by a full 6 feet the stadium standard made by Paul Jessup of Washington in 1930.

This Started Vico-Tebbetts Mix

GEORGE VICO of the Detroit Tigers and Birdie Tebbetts, Boston Red Sox catcher, started throwing fists at each other after Tebbetts (above) tagged Vico out at home on a squeeze play which misfired in Thursday's Detroit-Boston contest. Both players were banished from the game and later fined $100 each by American League President Will Harridge. Things may be a bit rough for the town Senators later on, but this morning they feel no pain. All they did last night was upend Vancouver's Caps twice, 3 to 2 and 2 to 0, in a pair of the better efforts of the young WIL campaign here, and in so doing promoted themselves from seventh to fourth place in the standings.

Double Bill at 1:30

Lazor, Olson

In Win Roles

Only 710 thoroughly chilled cusomers shivvered through the duet, but it must have been worth it to them. They saw two well pitched outings by Vince Lazor and Big Jim Olson, Vincent hanging up his first victory of the season in the opener and Olson coming through for his second straight and the first shutout for a Senator pitcher in the nightcap.

For the suddenly slump - struck Caps, the losses were their sixth and seventh straight.

The two clubs finish up the series in a 1:30 o'clock double bill today. Manager Jack Wilson has named Bob Stevenson and Cal Mc-Irvin as his starters. Boss Bill Brenner of the Caps will go with Bob Costello, 22-game winner last season, and Larry Manier, both right-handers.

Lazor's chore was practically conceded as a lost cause and his fourth straight setback when the locals went into the final frame on the short end of a 2-1 count. Vince had yielded only three hits and was deserving of the win. But it looked as though he wasn't going to get it, as Lefty Carl Gunnarson, the pert southpaw swapped to the Caps last season, was breezing along on a four - hitter himself. Then Lady Fortune tossed one of her broader smiles on Seattle Vincent.

To open the final heat, Al Spaeter bounced toward second and beat it out when Second-sacker Joe Kaney had trouble handling the slow-hit ball. Gunnarson then walked Joe Gedzius. Dick Sinovic bunted, and when Gunnarson tried Scoring heavily in the 2-3-4-5 for third too late, all hands were

By The Associated Press The Philadelphia Athletics, grimly determined to hang onto the lead in the American league just as long as they can, helped their cause yesterday with a 16-1 victory over the Chicago White Sozand at the same time the A's chalked up the first triple play of the 1948 Major league season. The big, killing came in the seventh inning when Second-sacker Pete Suder shared a liner off the bat of Taft Salem Capitols Wright, flipped to shortstop Eddie Joost who caught Luke Appling Team Shaping off the sack. Joost's throw to Ferris Fain nabbed Tony Lupien. Cleveland's Indians stayed half a game back of the A's by whipping Washington, 6-1, with the aid of a 450-foot homer by Larry Doby and three-hit chucking by Gene Bearden. Doby's drive was the hardest smash seen by Griffith park since Babe Ruth hit one over the center field wall in 1922. The Detroit Tigers and the New York Yankees split, the Tigers taking Hutchinson and losing the nightcap, 9-1. The St. Louis Browns surprised the Boston Red Sox,

In the National loop the New York Giants pushed past the Pittsburgh Pirates into first place as they slapped the Pitts, 12-5, but the big news was Harry Brecheen's one-litter for the St. Louis Cardinals as the Red Birds beat Philadelphia, 5-0. Salem's entry in the State baseball league is shaping up slowly but surely. The Capitols, sponsored again by the Willamette Amusement company, will open the season here, in Waters field, Saturday and Sunday nights, May 22-23, against Wade Williams' Portland Timber Structures.

Managed by Johnny Lewis, who twirled for Yakima in the Western International league before he took to coaching, the Caps expect to have a strong State league en-9-4, despite homers by Ted Wiltry. Former professionals dot the lineup.

> For pitchers Lewis expects to have Bill Hanauska, Charley Sauvain, Lou Scrivens and possibly Frankie Dierickx for key games. Ted Kerr and Roy Harrington are considered as topflight catchers. Wally Flager, Lee Shinn, Earl Hampton and Al Lightner are infielders and in the outfield Lewis expects to have Carl Gustafson, "Swede" Gambit and Dick Allison. More strength may be added later.

> The team has 18 State league games scheduled, plus a few exhibitions with such traveling outfits as the Harlem Globetrotters, Hawaiian All-Stars and House of David. All home games for the Capitols will be played in Waters park this season. Manager Lewis has called a practice session for the team today at 10:30 a.m., at Willamette's Sweetland field.
