

Jefferson Host At Rural School Track Meet Friday

JEFFERSON — Rural schools in this community have been invited to the annual May day festivities here Friday, May 14, beginning with assembly at 9 a.m. Taking part in the all-day program will be Talbot, Sidney, Looney Butte, Riverview, Devaney, Marion and Jefferson schools.

The grade track meet will be held from 9:30 to 11. It will include a 50- and 100-yard dash and softball throw for boys and girls; running broad jump for boys, and relay (four members each running 50 yards), all schools. A parade led by the Jefferson school band at 11 will be a new feature this year. Joy Zeller will be crowned queen and Junior Wickersham king of the May day festivities at 1 p.m. Independence and Jefferson Lyons will play baseball at 2:30.

FIRST CHOICE

Home Owners Vote Johns-Manville Roofs First Choice

Johns Manville shingles are backed by nearly 90 years experience in manufacture of quality roofing materials. Recently in a scientific, fact finding survey, home owners were asked: "If you were going to buy a roof, give the name of the manufacturer of roofing materials in whom you would have the greatest confidence." Of those who knew the name of a manufacturer, 60% CAST THEIR VOTES OF CONFIDENCE IN JOHNS-MANVILLE.

The vote for John-Manville was 8 to 1 over any other manufacturer. This reputation for quality can be your best safeguard in the purchase of a roof for your home.

"Dewey" Pup Admired by Garfield Pupils

Most envied boy at Garfield school these days is Ted Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Henry of 3880 Silverton rd., who is shown above standing in the center of a group of his classmates and holding "Dewey", a 3½-month-old registered rooster spaniel given to the Henry family by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, to replace a similar spaniel run over by the Dewey bus when here earlier this week on Dewey's campaign trip. Admiring the pup are (standing left to right), Shirley Werner, route 7, box 420; Jody Bush, 605 N. Liberty st.; James Fowler, 640 N. Winter st.; Ted and Dewey; Gordon Domogalla, 910 Parrish st.; and Sally Wright, 818 N. Liberty st.; and kneeling at left is Jack Muskens, route 1, box 237A. Ted is enthusiastic in his support of Dewey, but despite an appreciation for Dewey's gift, there is no indication the elder Henrys have changed their leaning toward Stassen. Two Portland Men Hurt When Truck Overturns

DETROIT, May 8 — Wallace E. Chamberlain and Kenneth Gilpin suffered broken collar bones late Friday night when the truck in which they were riding overturned on the muddy highway at the Mongol turnoff. The two men were taken to St. Charles hospital in Bend for treatment.

Other men in the truck were Lauren B. Power, driver and Earl Costello who were uninjured. The four men are from Portland. The truck was not damaged.

Three Mile Highway Job Will Employ 120 Men

DETROIT, May 8 — Construction work on the three mile stretch of highway from Mongol to a point above Detroit has been started by Guy Atkinson who has the contract. One hundred and twenty men will be employed and the company has acquired barracks at Mongol from the army engineers and has a mess hall and dormitory.

Many of the men have brought their families and are living in trailer houses or other available living quarters in Detroit. Herbert Booth of San Francisco, but formerly of Salem, is project manager; Clifford Thompson is his assistant and Wayne Wooten of San Diego is construction superintendent.

Fruitland Family Host On Birthday Anniversary

FRUITLAND — Mr. and Mrs. H. W. deVries entertained Thursday with a birthday dinner for their son, the Rev. Harvey de Vries.

Guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Harvey deVries, Lynda de Vries, and Mrs. Amalia Sehnert of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Norman de Vries of Salem and Leona and Wilma de Vries.

Valley Births

LIBERTY — A daughter, Jannette Marie, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schendel May 3. They have two other daughters and a son.

JEFFERSON — Friends here have learned of the birth of a seven-pound son, Dale Roy, April 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Don Funkhouser at Redmond. Mrs. Funkhouser is the former Phyllis Ralle, daughter of Mrs. George Ralle, former resident of Talbot.

Silverton — E. Burr Miller, president of Salem Lions club and past president of Salem Chamber of Commerce, will speak on "The Current Political Situation" at Rotary club luncheon here Monday.

Liberty — Rosemary Austin visited friends in Eugene last week, making the trip as a member of the Leslie school girls' chorus when that group participated in music festival there.
