

Leading Lady...

Mother takes top billing today, and she'll be feted, pampered and especially loved this Mother's Day. We've pictured a group of Salem's mothers—who've even turned grandmother.

Mrs. C. S. Hamilton is the mother of three sons, Arthur, who lives in Essex, Conn., Ralph and Clarence of Salem, and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Rue Drager has three sons and three daughters. John, who is in Shanghai with the Texaco Oil Co., Douglas of Forest Grove, Robert of Salem, Mrs. Ruby Mishler of Portland, Mrs. Clarence Hamilton and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, jr. of Salem. There are five grandchildren in her family.

Mrs. A. F. Marcus has three daughters, Mrs. H. G. Becker of Portland, Miss Helen Marcus and Mrs. Earl Cooley of Salem, and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Charles E. Wagner's four children are Paul of Monroe, Wash., Miss Margaret Wagner and Mrs. Vernon Drye of Salem and Roger, a senior at Oregon State college. Also in the family are four grandchildren.

Mrs. Gene Vandeneynde's family includes a son, Rodney, of Portland, two daughters, Miss Patricia Vandeneynde and Mrs. John Steelhammer of Salem, and two grandchildren.

A Country Wedding Planned . . .

At a country wedding in New England on June 2 Miss Frances Kells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Kells, will become the bride of Edmond Morgan MacCollin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond M. MacCollin of Stetney, Conn. The ceremony will be performed at Tashua Episcopal church in Trumbull, Conn., at 4 o'clock with a reception following at the MacCollin home at "The Merrymac Farm." As the groom-elect's mother would be unable to come west for the rites the young couple have planned their wedding to take place in the east.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Kells, the bride-elect's eldest sister, who is now in New York City, will be her sister's maid of honor and will also sing at the nuptials. Mr. and Mrs. Kells, who left the first of last week for the east to attend conferences, will be present for the ceremony. Miss Kells will leave for Connecticut on May 28. The young couple will come west on their honeymoon to spend the summer in Oregon.

Two Formal Dances Slated . . .

Two formal dances are on the social slate for the coming weekend. The Wisteria dance club will be entertained Friday night at the Veteran's hall with Guy Albin and his Top Hatters playing for dancing. The hall will be decorated in the spring motif and supper will be served following the affair.

The directorate for the dance includes Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Dayle Jory, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Fish, Dr. and Mrs. John Ramage, Mr. and Mrs. John Langrell, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McEwen and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Krueger.

Several parties are being arranged to precede and follow the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrow have invited a few friends to their State street home before the dance to meet their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Berglund. Sixteen have been bidden to the dessert supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Margosian will be hosts for a pre-dance party for a few of their friends at their new home in Morningside in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mansfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Deane Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Knickerbocker will be hosts for a supper party after the dance at the former's home on South Church street for a group of friends.

Sojourners to Dance

The Sojourners Dancing club will entertain with the last dance of the season Saturday night at the Mayflower hall with Sunny St. Clair and her orchestra engaged to play for the affair. Refreshments will be served at 8:30 o'clock with dancing from 9 to 12 o'clock. Election of officers will be held during the evening.

"Merry Month of May" is the theme of the dance with baskets of pink dogwood and pink apple blossoms to be arranged about the hall. The buffet tables will be covered with green cloths and centered with bouquets of pink rhododendrons and pink tapers in crystal holders. There will be a surprise feature preceding the grand march. The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mr. and Mrs. William Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Harmon T. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ronne.
