

Chairmen to Be Honored At a Tea

The Fine Arts and Public Welfare departments of the Salem Woman's club will entertain with a program and tea Monday afternoon at the Center street home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom between 2:30 and 5 o'clock. This will bring the year's activities of the two departments to a close.

Honor guests will be the two retiring chairmen, Mrs. Clifton B. Mudd and Mrs. F. M. Lobdell, who have served as chairmen of their respective departments for 15 consecutive years. Mrs. Mudd is a past president of the Salem Woman's club, Salem Arts League, third district, Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, and directed Oregon's pageant at the General Federation convention in Atlantic City in 1941. She is now serving as bailiff in the Marion county courts. Mrs. Lobdell has served for many years as teacher of English and librarian at the Chemawa Indian school. For eight years she was on the Salem city council and is now on the city planning and zoning commission.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar of Portland, Mrs. William Chandler of Hillsboro, Mrs. Percy Kelly and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers. Mrs. David Cameron of the music division of the Fine Arts department will sing during the afternoon. Arranging the tea are Mesdames Howard Pickett, George Allen, E. E. Boring, Ross Coppock, H. O. White, Carl Chambers, Donald Parker, A. E. Ullman, W. B. Johnston and Jessie Singleton.
