WE THINK

We have reason to feel honored when someone calls and tells us that our firm has been recommended to them by one of our previous customers.

The business of moving peoples' household goods is one of those personal services where the customer is usually on the spot and has ample opportunity to observe the equipment and "know how" of the men doing the job.

We know we must be pleasing a number of people, and we do thank all our customers who are telling others of our service.

Present cost calls for careful investigation of services, rates and charges. A call at our office in person or by phone will bring a representative to your door who will be happy to give you the benefits of our years of experience in the moving business.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Job Had the Folks in Stitches!

At the Friday Night Social, Job Crowell had the audience in stitches—doing a take-off on the blustering character who belittles everybody and everything that isn't from his own home town.

Well, we can laugh at that sort of character because from where I sit, Americans are just the opposite. We like to boast a bit perhaps, about the paint job on the new barn, or the missus' style of cooking—but we aren't intolerant of people who don't think or act exactly the same way we do.

In our town, for instance: Some folks like band concerts, others don't—some families serve beer with dinner, others, buttermilk—and as for politics, there's plenty of healthy disagreement.

But when it comes to denying folks the right to think or act as they choose... no, we're like you—we don't believe in it, whether it goes for serving beer, or speaking one's mind on public affairs.
