

4 Corners Program Planned Friday

FOUR CORNERS—"Community Capers," sponsored by Teen Kanteen and presented by talent from Four Corners in "School Daze" and "The Coke Parlor," will be given at Community hall May 14 at 8 p.m. Proceeds will go towards paying indebtedness on Community hall. Kanteen members are selling tickets or may be obtained at the door.

Dinner guest at the Oliver Rickmans, Elma avenue, Sunday was Karl Hetzel, Waverly, Kan. Mr. and Mrs. Hetzel recently came here to accept positions at WCTU children's farm home at Corvallis. Mr. and Mrs. Rickman formerly lived in Waverly and were neighbors of the Hetzels.

Recognition of mothers at Four Corners Baptist church Sunday, May 9, was observed. Oldest grandmother was Mrs. A. J. Winters; youngest grandmother Mrs. B. L. Swinford, and the youngest mother Mrs. Arthur Tinker.

Silverton Guard Holds Open House for Guests

SILVERTON — Visiting officers attending the national guard open house at the Silverton army house at the Silverton armory Tuesday included Colonel Taylor of McMinnville, commander of 162nd regiment; Captain Thomas E. Riley Jr., public relations officer, Salem; First Lieutenant William Benson, from the WSP and DO office, Salem.

The day's program opened with a parade at 12 noon with civic and city officials taking part.

The American service award was presented Sergeant Francis Watkins, and pictures showing the army training and recruiting program were shown, as well as a group from the 1947 World's baseball series. Five new recruits were enrolled, increasing the enrollment to 40. The yearly encampment has been announced for Camp Clatsop starting June 15.

At the close of the pictures, coffee and donuts were served to the visitors.
