Concert Pleases

Dr. Karl Trebitsch, professor of piano at Whitman college, Walla Walla, was guest pianist during the program of the Willamette university symphony orchestra Tuesday night at Leslie auditorium.

Trebitsch played the Liszt concerto No. 1 in E flat major, with the orchestra under the direction of Frank Fisher. He played the exciting concerto with great strength and feeling and his performance brought enthusiastic applause from his audience.

Frank Fisher's orchestra, though small, played with confidence and his selection of numbers was suited to the limited number of players. This is the group's first year of public appearances and it shows signs of gaining confidence each season, with strong possibilities of taking an important place in musical life of the city.

The remainder of the program includes overture to "Sylvana" by Weber; a chorale prelude by Bach; six short and interesting compositions by Beethoven; three movements of Porter's "Music for Strings," "The Walk to the Paradise Garden" from "A Village Romeo and Juliet" by Delius and as a grand finale, the sprightly polka from "Schwanda, the Bagpipe Player" by Weinberger.

A good-sized audience of Willamette folk and townspeople attended the concert, last of the orchestra's winter appearances.

Following the concert, Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist and Mrs. and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs of Willamette school of music, gave an informal reception at the Geist home in honor of Dr. Trebitsch.—M.B.
