Employment Shows Rise

Improvement of the local employment picture during April, despite the delay in agricultural activities, caused by the rainy weather, was reported Thursday in the Marion county labor market bulletin, issued by the state employment service.

An estimated 2,700 were unemployed at the close of the month, including 1,000 veterans and 700 women. Non-seasonal job openings on the Salem office's files totaled 147, of which 82 were for women. Approximately one-half the openings were for clerical positions.

The local office counted 246 interviews during April with newcomers to the area. Some movement away from the vicinity was noted, due largely to lack of steady employment due to weather conditions.

The large tiled kitchens in Holland, which are usually the scenes of most activity in Dutch households, contrast greatly in size with compact modern American kitchens used for little but cooking and dishwashing.

4 REASONS why you should elect DEWEY for PRESIDENT

The Republican Party owes it to America, to all the people—Republicans and Democrats—to nominate and elect the most able and qualified leader in the Party today.

We believe that man is Thomas E. Dewey. Here are four reasons why we believe so:

- 1 On his record of achievement—his earned reputation of being the best administrator in government today.
- 2 He believes in "team" government—always appoints men of great ability and integrity. He gives them the authority to do their job. The result is strong and efficient public service.
- 3 He would work cooperatively with Congress. He is used to working hand in hand with a legislative body. He doesn't believe the presidency, or any other office, is a one-man job. He leads a team. That's the way he gets things done.
- 4 Besides having a firm grasp of the fundamental problems which beset the country and the world, he is fearless and faithful. He fears neither inflation nor Stalin. He does not become hysterical nor does he rush into a position until he has considered what is sound and right for the American people. He has complete faith in the American people and their common sense—and he will give them the courageous leadership they want so urgently.
