

Fish Conditions Range from Poor to Good

PORTLAND, May 13 (AP)—Varied fishing conditions in Oregon were reported today by the state game commission in its second fishing bulletin of the season.

The McKenzie river again was reported good, but other streams ranged down to poor.

The report by districts:

Willamette valley: Lane county — Eugene — Present fishing conditions on the McKenzie river are good. Predictions for the weekend are good on the McKenzie and fair on Blue River, South fork and Heise creek.

Marion county — Outlook for the coming weekend only fair as streams are high and muddy.

Polk county — Outlook fair with the smaller streams better for angling. The Luckanast river in vicinity of Hoskins

Jack Collins, 440 Larson street, Salem, and merchandising manager for the local Sears store found fishing topflight on the McKenzie some 30 miles from Eugene this week.

Deschutes area: Crook and Jefferson counties — Deschutes river, south of Bend, has provided few limits on cluster and single eggs. Suttle lake has also reported a few good catches with single egg and trolling with Ford fender and angle worms.

Coastal section: Douglas county — Reedsport — Angling conditions in coastal lakes are good with excellent catches made at Loon lake.

Lane county — Florence — Trout angling excellent in north fork Siuslaw river and Maple creek. Good trout angling in Mercer, Sutton and Muncie lakes. Fair in Sillitoe and Tahkenitch.

Lincoln county — Angling poor as waters are high and muddy.

Rain Stymies Solons, Caps

At Canucks Tonight

VANCOUVER, May 13 (Special)—The Salem Senators and Vancouver Capitanos were once again hit by their old enemy, rain, here tonight as the opening tilt of their four-game Western International league series was washed out.

The Solons, resting in third place, half a game back of the runner-up Wenatchee Chiefs and two back of the top-spot Tacoma Tigers, hope to advance still higher at the expense of the slump-stricken Capitanos. The Senators swept a four-game set-to with the Caps last weekend.

Salem Skipper Jack Wilson plans to send Bob Stevenson, holding a two-wins and one loss record, thus far, against the Vancouverians in tomorrow night's single game. The series will wind up with a Saturday doubleheader.

Reds Get Litwhiler

CINCINNATI, May 13 (AP)—Outfielder Danny Litwhiler was today by the Cincinnati Reds, today from the Boston Braves.

Warren C. Giles, president in making the announcement said Marv Rickert, outfielder obtained from the Chicago Cubs last winter, had been sent to Milwaukee in the American association.

Being at ringside when Joe Kahut and Bill Petersen collided the other evening in Portland, we can't help but add our voice to those who think that the VFW should have been ruled at least a draw, if not a decision for Kahut. True, Woodburn Joe was guilty of several low blows but his overall aggressiveness must certainly have more than compensated for a few below-the-belt raps.

together, starting at 9 a.m. Sunday. That should certainly be just the ingredient to pull a good gallery . . . If Yost and Painter make the finale—and again we say IF—they'll doubtless be the most youthful combination ever to swing locally for laurels. Dick is no more than 20 and Jimmy's around 23 . . .

Vik Marks Topped

Two of Vern Gilmore's Salem high tracksters this year cracked all-time Viking records. Bob Craig, the burly shot man set a record in that department a few weeks back when he uncorked a heave of 49 feet, one inch. That topped the previous standard of 43 feet, eight inches, racked up by Art Miller in 1935. Jim Jensen's 22.9 time in the 220 against Albany recently is also one for future Vikings to shoot at. That bettered the 23 seconds flat registered by George Davis in 1936 and again by Roger Frobert in '39 . . . And, of course, Craig and Jensen will be two local hopes in the state show at Corvallis today . . .

New Duck Setup

One of the finest duck pin layouts in the Northwest is in store for Salem. With the lease running out on the present Birch street alleys, Tom Woods started construction on a new plant out on the Portland road a few weeks back. Plans call for 12 alleys, the latest tele-score system, and a noise-drawing acoustics setup. Total expects to have "er ready in no time in July—and won't local ducksters be happy . . .

Over the 36-hole route it'll be for the Title flight semi-finals in the Elks tourney—and that will make the really true test of golf for the participants. And doing it up in right smart fashion, Tourney Director Vern McMullen has arranged for the quartet — Dick Yost vs. Tony Painter and Jimmy Sheldon vs. Glen Leugen—to play around

Marion-Polkers In Friday Tilts

Friday afternoon games in the Marion-Polk baseball league have the unbeaten Salem Academy playing at Sacred Heart Academy, Monmouth at Stayton and Independence at Jefferson. The Salem Academy is in front of the chase with a perfect record. Stayton is close behind, with but one game marring its record. Two more rounds of games are on the schedule after Friday's.

Big Dolly

Jack Collins, 440 Larson street, Salem, and merchandising manager for the local Sears store found fishing topflight on the McKenzie some 30 miles from Eugene this week. He hooked this five-pound Dolly Vardon, claimed to be the largest caught so far this season in the state. Collins used a No. 14 hook and a single salmon egg on a two-pound test leader.

Vikings Plan Title Clinch

Coach Harold Hauk and his Salem high Vikings go for the Big Six baseball championship today in an afternoon game at Springfield, with the Miller crew. A Salem win clinches the crown, inasmuch as the Viks have already won four straight league games and have yet to be defeated by a high school team this season.

Coach Hauk has not named the starter in his large and effective pitching staff for today's crucial.

Bearcats End Season Today

Willamette U's baseball varsity drops the curtain on its season today in an afternoon game with the Lewis & Clark Pioneers at Portland. The Cats' only Northwest conference victory was gained over the Pioneers earlier.

Coach Johnny Lewis will hand hurling assignment for the finale to either Howard Olson, Lou Scivens or Fred Richardson.

YMCA Slates Ball 'Night'

Friday evening, June 4, will be YMCA night at Waters park, it was jointly announced yesterday by George Emigh, Senator business manager, and Gus Moore, Y physical ed director.

The YMCA Men's club will captain the Y's end of the affair. Purpose will be to raise funds for various Y activities. Youths who are members of the local branch will handle outside ticket sales for the game that night which will pit the Senators against the Vancouver Capitanos. The Y will receive one-half of the proceeds of the outside ducat sale.

Connie Likes A's Prospects

PHILADELPHIA, May 13 (AP)—"The Athletics will finish in the first division and are capable of winning the American league pennant," Connie Mack said today.

Sitting in his Shibe park tower office the genial baseball veteran prepared his strategy for the important four game series with the New York Yankees in Yankee stadium tomorrow. "If we can split even in New York with the Yankees there's no telling how far we'll go," said Mack.

Biggies Landed

LIBERTY — Harry Biggs and Lou Kurth came back from the Siletz river with two fine trout this week. Biggs caught a 23-inch weighing 4 1/2 pounds. Kurth landed a 19-inch weighing 2 1/2 pounds. Roland Seeger was also a member of the fishing party but had no luck with the big ones.

Medford Favorite In Track Classic

On the basis of their previous showings this rain-spattered season, Medford high's Black Tornado thinclads will be the boys to beat this weekend in the 22nd annual state high school track meet on Oregon State's Bell field at Corvallis. The Medfords have already pocketed the Hayward Relays, and have the manpower with which to take home the state championship Saturday afternoon.

The classic opens today with qualifying heats at 2 p.m. in almost all the 14 events. Both Class A and B teams will compete both days, but in separate meets. The finals are set for Saturday afternoon, 2 p.m.

Although Salem high's Vikings have had an exceptionally good season this year and will carry the district seven title into the blue ribbon finale, the Viks do not have the individual strength with which to rate strongly, according to Coach Vern Gilmore. The Vik boss opined Thursday that his team "would score a few points, but not enough to gain one of the top places."

The Vikings will have 12 athletes and a relay team in the big meet. Top Salem hopes ride with Jim Jensen in the sprints, Jack Loftis in the 440, Dave Chamberlain in the high jump, Bob Craig in the shot and Patton, Hall, Covalt and Jensen in the relay.

Another local lad after points is Sacred Heart's Jim Bello in the half mile. Silverton hopes for points with Jack Sherman in the 400 yard jump and Kling Klang in the shot, plus Stan Neperud in the javelin. Woodburn's hopes are with javelin-tosser Bob Hall and Sprinter Irv Zastopil. Jefferson has a hope in Miller Jack Grimes.

Here are some of the top marks of the season, as garnered by other preppers in the state in district runoff, although some of those were turned loose in the rain and mud and therefore mean little:

Bovard's Mud Ability May Surprise Citation

BALTIMORE, May 13 (AP)—Salmagundi was washed out of the Preackness today and that was news, but a rain which turned Pimlico race track into crab soup thickness also gave the railbirds something else to think about besides Citation.

The "something" is Bovard, Sylvester W. Labrott's Maryland-bred son of the imported Bahram. Slop is just his dish.

Track conditions or not, the presence of Citation has scared out all but three others now, providing a skimpy field for this mile and three sixteenths classic. As for Salmagundi, the word on him was that his mid-running on the west coast left much to be desired. Therefore, with the Pimlico track almost certain to be extra slow, the Helix horse will stay home. Bovard's trainer, young Jimmy Rowan, assures that his rangy colt can run on any kind of a track, and is ready for Citation, or any of the other actors who choose to go.

'Cat Ovalists Travel Today

PORTLAND, Ore., May 13 (AP)—Seven colleges will compete here tomorrow in the largest college track meet of the year in Portland.

Entering are two independents—Vanport and Portland—and five Northwest conference squads — Willamette, Lewis & Clark, Pacific university, Linfield and College of Puget Sound.

Linfield and Puget Sound are expected to field the strongest squads.

Gray Shines In Orange Tilt

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 13 (AP)—The Oregon State football squad ran through another game practice today with a crew of white shirts downing orange-shirted rivals, 27-13.

Halfback Gene Gray provided the stellar plays, his running and passing setting up three touchdowns.

Bailey Named Pendleton Coach

PENDLETON, May 13 (AP)—Selection of Orville (Red) Bailey, assistant at Baker, as head football coach at Pendleton high school was announced today. He succeeds Walter Buettgenbach, resigned.

Today's Pitchers

National league: Boston at Brooklyn (night)—Spain (1-2) or Barrett (2-1) vs. Branca (2-3). Cincinnati at Chicago Peterson (1-1) vs. Meyer (2-1). Pittsburgh at St. Louis (night)—Oestermaier (1-1) vs. Pollet (1-0). Only games scheduled.

American league: Philadelphia at New York—Scheb (3-0) vs. Shea (3-1). St. Louis at Detroit—Garver (0-1) vs. Hutchinson (2-1). Washington at Boston (night)—Masterson (2-1) vs. Dobson (1-3) or Harris (1-3). Only games scheduled.

Poat 2-Hitter Stops Cards

Giants Take Over National Loop Lead

By The Associated Press

The New York Giants clambered back into first place in the National league Thursday as they topped the erstwhile leading St. Louis Cardinals, 5-0, behind the smart two-hit hurling of Ray Poat. A single by Enos Slaughter and a single by Schoendienst were the only blows registered off Poat as the Giants garnered 11 off four Card chucks.

Pittsburgh's Pirates moved up into second place, half a game back of the Giants, as they whipped the Philadelphia Phils, 5-1. Bob Chernes, rookie up from the Pacific Coast league, got credit for the win through he failed to finish. The outcome snapped a four-game Phil winning streak. Bill Voiselle racked his fourth pitching victory in a row as he twirled the Boston Braves to a 2-0 decision over the Chicago Cubs. Johnny Schmitz allowed but four hits for the Cubs, same number Voiselle dished out. The Cincinnati Reds suffered their seventh straight setback as the Brooklyn Dodgers beat them, 9-3, with Preacher Roe uncorking a six-hitter.

'Cat Golfers Host Tourney

Eight Northwest conference golf squads will clash on the local course today in the annual loop tournament.

Favored to fight it out for top honors are swingers from College of Puget Sound and the University of British Columbia.

Others participating are Lewis and Clark, Linfield, Pacific, Whitman, College of Idaho and Willamette's crew.

Action will be over 36 holes.

Mt. Angel Nine Eyes Clincher

WOODBURN, May 13 (Special)—The Mt. Angel Preps, already assured of no worse than a tie for the Willamette Valley league baseball title, will clinch the crown Friday if they can down the Sandy Pioneers in an afternoon baseball tilt at Mt. Angel. Only Silverton has a chance to catch the undefeated Verdel Ragsdale Preps. The Foxes have lost one game, however, to Mt. Angel.

Other than for a few more makeup contests, the WVL chase is finished. The Mt. Angel-Sandy tilt is the finale on the Preps schedule.
