

Marion Women Plan Program

Marion county women plan to learn about fixing up their homes, how to make more of "the new look" for themselves with greater ease, have fun and with all grow old gracefully.

This is indicated in the home extension program adopted at the program planning day here attended by representatives of the 29 extension units. The program as adopted includes a cotton dress workshop, a district meeting on making dress forms, unit meetings on wall finishes, party planning and favors, meal planning, blouse in a day, broiled dinners, short cuts in ironing and also "how to grow old gracefully."

Mrs. E. A. Beugle of Silverton Hills, and Mrs. I. G. Lermon, Lansing Meadows, were named members of the county extension committee to replace Mrs. Rex Hartley, Sidney Talbot, and Mrs. G. L. Briedwell, Silverton, whose terms were completed.
