

Seen and Heard...

By JERYME ENGLISH

IT'S TRAVEL TIME . . . with many exciting trips being planned for the ensuing months . . . Off to Illinois and other eastern points next week will be Mr. and Mrs. James Linn, who leave by car on Friday. Their main destination is Chandlerville, where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Magnus, who will entertain for Mr. Linn on his 81st birthday on June 5 . . . Mr. and Mrs. Magnus came west last year for his 80th birthday celebration at the Marion hotel . . . The Linn's will make stops in the Dakotas, Rushmore Park in the Black Hills, Chicago, Minnesota and St. Louis, Mo., where they will visit her relatives . . . They will motor home via the southern route through Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico the end of June . . . Also east bound is Mrs. Eugene Booth, who left the past week for a two months stay in Massachusetts and other eastern points . . . She will be in and around Boston for the most part and the main reason for her trip is to attend her class reunion at Bradford Academy . . . Mrs. Booth will also attend the Delta Gamma national convention at Swampscott, Mass., the end of June.

HOME AGAIN . . . are Mrs. Prince W. Byrd and daughter, Betty, who have been away for two months . . . first going to New Orleans and other states in the deep south viewing the lovely gardens and historic sites . . . Interesting note . . . When leaving in March the daffodils and forsythias were just blooming and seemingly the Salem travelers followed the blooms right across the country, as when arriving on the east coast the flowers were just blooming . . . but in the south the azaleas were in bloom and on arriving back in Salem this week they found our azaleas just out . . . The most fascinating and interesting part of the entire trip to Mrs. Byrd was Quebec, and its resemblance to parts of Europe.

Mrs. Willard N. Thompson and daughter, Karen, are expected to arrive home today from a three weeks stay in Mauston, Wisconsin, where they have been visiting her parents . . . Mrs. James Heltzel will be home this week from an extended stay in Denver, where she has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Bruce and Margaret Hamby . . . Bruce, formerly on the Oregonian sports staff, is now on the staff of the Denver Post . . .

OFF TO EUROPE . . . in June will be Mrs. Byron Herrick, who sails on the 24th on the "Queen Mary" for England and the continent . . . She leaves Salem on June 15 for Van Nuys, Calif., to join a conducted tour by car, which will go cross-country to New York . . . Mrs. Herrick's companion on the trip will be an old Salem school friend, Mrs. Minnet Sherman of Claremont, Calif. When the "Queen Mary" docks at South Hampton, England, the travelers will then proceed by car to Scotland, then down the east coast to London . . . then by ship again across the channel to Holland . . . motoring through Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, France, leaving for the states from Cherbourg . . . and arriving here sometime in September.

GUEST DAY . . . on Thursday for the Sojourners who entertained for over a hundred members and guests at the Salem Woman's clubhouse . . . A grand group and so well organized . . . Sojourners are newcomers in the city and one may be an active member for two years . . . a strictly social club, the primary purpose of becoming acquainted and forming friendships . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gene Busick (Patricia Anne Brown) pictured walking up the aisle of the First Methodist church after their marriage on May 7. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blaine Brown and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Busick. The newlyweds will reside in Salem. (Jeston-Miller).

The tables . . . individual ones where dessert was served . . . tiny clusters of lilacs and tulips for centerpieces . . . and on the serving table a huge bouquet of gorgeous yellow tulips . . . A few of the members we met . . . Brunette Mrs. William Moore, who headed the directorate for the Sojourners dancing club party last night, distinctive in an aqua blue silk suit with swirl skirt and fitted jacket, a matching felt hat adorned with two large roses of the same shade . . . Pretty Mrs. Walter Toy in a yellow and brown print with wide brimmed brown hat . . . Tall Mrs. S. D. Wiles in a grey suit, red half hat and shoes . . . Mrs. Forrest Bodmer in aqua and cinnamon brown, an aqua bow on her brown blouse and a brown feather on her aqua hat . . . Pretty Mrs. Rodney Fety, who has lovely dark hair, chic in a green and red plaid dress with bustle bow and white collar . . . Mrs. Lee Bishop wearing a good-looking dusty pink suit with white straw sailor edged in pink and a pink plaid taffeta bow . . . and our hostess, Mrs. Gerald Wing, wearing a trim black suit, black straw and furs . . .

Among the guests . . . Mrs. Elmer Berg, striking in a pepper green wool suit with eton jacket, white blouse and fuchsia cummerbund . . . her white straw hat with a black and white puff at the side . . . Mrs. Holly Jackson, just home from Spokane, where they attended a jeweler's convention, wore a grey and white check suit and grey hat . . . Mrs. Tom Dunham wearing a beige suit and a fetching American beauty hat of roses and ribbon . . . Mrs. John R. Wood, an ardent golfer, chose a perky golden beige straw with flower at the side to go with her suit . . . and Mrs. Howard Eismann, who selected brown and white and white hat banded in brown and white feathers . . .

FOR First Steps

JUMPING JACKS
SOFT SHOES FOR HARD WEAR

The patented Jumping-Jack sole feature means that heels must keep properly positioned, that ankles can't turn in or out. It eliminates stiff counters and shanks, so foot and leg muscles can develop properly. And with no heels or striking edges to wear, Jumping-Jacks keep shape and look until they're outgrown. Child specialists approve their scientific design . . . mothers like their smartness, quality and value.

Girl Scouts to Sell Cookies

Girl Scouts and Brownies in the Salem district are completing arrangements for the Girl Scout cookie sale beginning May 21 under the direction of Mrs. Harry H. Weinstein, chairman of the sale. The cookies come in attractive Girl Scout boxes and the girls are taking orders from neighbors and friends.

Half of the money raised from the cookie sale will go to the Juliet Low fund, the founder of Girl Scouts. This money has in the past been used to send delegates to the National Girl Scout conventions, held in all parts of the world. Since the war the Juliet Low fund has been used to help Girl Scouts get started again in the war torn countries, and to rebuild their equipment. The other half of the money raised by the cookie sale will be used by the Brownie and Girl Scout troops in Salem for their own activities.

WCTU Hospitality Tea on Tuesday

Central WCTU will hold a hospitality tea Tuesday at the Chemekeeta street home of Mrs. Mayme Hill, with hours from 2 to 4 p. m. Miss Florence Tyler, of the Woman's division, Union Gospel Mission of Portland, will speak. Pouring during the tea hour will be Mrs. A. C. Haag and Mrs. E. V. Teague, with Mrs. J. J. Nunn, Mrs. H. R. Mitchell and Mrs. W. A. Barkus assisting. Mrs. Elsie Roth will give several vocal numbers and Daisy Bell of Salem college and academy, will lead the devotions. Proceeds from the affair will go toward the expenses of the Women's national WCTU meeting in Portland in September.

Women of Rotary board members will be entertained at a one o'clock dessert luncheon Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter B. Minier, 1745 Saginaw street. Special guests will be chairman of standing committees. Plans will be made for the last meeting of the season on May 24.

The Bon Heur dancing club will hold its last dance of the season Friday night, May 21 at the Veteran's hall at 9:30 o'clock with Wayne Strachan's orchestra playing. Fred Humphrey will head the men's committee in charge of refreshments.
