LESLIE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Primaries Held
Primary balloting for student body officers took place following campaign speeches Monday afternoon at Leslie. Chosen to compete for the office of president in the finals next Monday were Larry Paulus and Jim Humphrey.

Other finalists picked were Dorothy Swigart and Virginia Eyre for vice president; Sharon Laverty and Patsy Snider for secretary; Mike Deaney and Caroline Seay for treasurer; and Shirley Bingenheimer and Greta Schreengost for song queen.

No vote was taken for the offices of sergeant-at-arms and yeoman since there are only two candidates for each office. Bob Trussell and Frank Pappas are vying for the position of sergeant-at-arms and Don Agnew and Harold Grimm for the office of yeoman.

Judy Wood, Barbara Wagner and Barbara Klunder comprised the election committee which had charge of checking the petitions for office and the balloting.

MOVIE SLATED
"Song of Old Wyoming", a full length movie, will be shown for Leslie students at 3 p. m. today.

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Dinner Held
The staff members and faculty advisors of the two senior high school publications, the Clarion bi-monthly and the Viking yearbook, held a banquet Monday evening in the high school cafeteria as a highlight of the year's work. Co-chairmen for the event were Clara Belle Roth, Clarion editor, and Marcelline Hutcherson, Viking editor.

Bob Guild, Willamette Collegian editor, was guest speaker. Musical numbers were rendered by Dorothy Peterson on the piano, Ken Adams and his musical saw, and Pebble DeSart, who sang.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Marjorie Hiatt, Viking advisor; Mrs. Leah Hogue, Clarion advisor, and Preston Doughton, business advisor for both publications. Next year's staff members were introduced by this year's editors.

Committees working on the dinner were menu, Beverly Gourley and Dorothy Ladd; placecards, Jim Gingrich; decorations, Allie Lou Ohling, Pebble De Sart, Nellie Cook and Jane Trojan; program, Mariene DeWitt, Joan Miller and Una Mae Grayless; invitations, Marylou Herndon and Jo Ann DeWitt; cleanup, Martha Marshall, Dorothy Caspar, Phil Johnson and Don Young.

Thieves Busy In Salem on Cars, Gardens

Thieves, believed to be juveniles, were active over the weekend in Salem, pilfering articles from four autos, stealing flowers and failing in attempts to enter another car and a grocery store, city police reported.

Robert Ramage, 810 N. Liberty st., reported a .22 calibre revolver was stolen from his car in downtown Salem, and Viola Moriarty, 675 S. Summer st., told police a blanket was taken from her car parked near the residence, both on Sunday night.

Mrs. O. G. Guernsey, 910 Tamarack st., and Georgina Ulmer, 2030 Hazel ave., complained that a large number of azaleas were taken from their flower gardens Sunday night.

A pair of trousers was taken from the auto of Percy Webb, 249 S. Cottage st., Saturday night at the residence after the thief broke a window to gain entry. Don Milloy, Senator hotel, said his Greyhound bus driver's coat was stolen from his vehicle parked in downtown Salem Saturday night.

Police reported that two separate attempts to enter the F. R. Bailey grocery store at 485 S. Winter st. failed Saturday night. An attempt to enter the car of Mrs. Ward Smith of Hermiston was made in the 300 block of Ferry street on Saturday, but the thief sprung the ventilator wing window in the effort, police said.
