Negro Choir in Salem Monday

A concert by these former members of the radio Wings Over Jordan Negro choir will be presented in Leslie Junior high school auditorium Monday night at 8 o'clock, sponsored by Salem Ministerial association. The group is directed by Charles E. King. No admission will be charged, and an offering will be taken.

Dependents of Servicemen to Be Given Insurance

Widows, children or dependent parents of certain servicemen killed or captured between Dec. 7, 1941, and April 20, 1942, are now eligible for gratuitous insurance benefits up to $5,000. H. C. (Hub) Saalfeld, Marion county veterans' service officer, announced Wednesday.

Saalfeld said that public law 429, recently signed by President Truman, extends the application time for beneficiaries from the previous five-year period to seven years. Applications previously rejected because they were received after the end of the five-year period are now automatically revived. The gratuitous insurance is paid when servicemen, due to the sudden outbreak of World War II, were unable or did not apply for insurance before engaging in combat. Many survivors who knew nothing of the gratuitous insurance have never filed claims, Saalfeld said.

Harrison Named Safety Chairman

Appointment of Olin Harrison, Portland, as chairman of the fleet safety committee of the governor's traffic safety committee, was announced by Gov. John H. Hall Wednesday. A. L. Schneider, Portland, was named chairman of the legislative committee of the state organization.

Governor Hall appointed Arthur F. Niemann, Port Orford, as justice of the peace for district No. 3, Curry county, to fill a temporary vacancy.

Four Corners Children Involved in Accidents

Fathers Blamed For Delinquency

Responsibility for juvenile delinquency can be laid on the American father, Dr. Mark A. Getzlander, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, told the Exchange club luncheon meeting Wednesday noon.

Speaking at the Salem hotel, the minister asserted that most fathers fail to take a proper interest in their children or homes.

Recent increases in juvenile delinquency, he said, could lead to destruction of the nation and our way of life, unless checked.

Kerber Purchases West Side Market

WEST SALEM, May 19—West Side Market was sold here today to Philip Kerber who will operate it as Kerber's West Side market.

Kerber is now manager of Busick's Court street store in Salem and has been with the Busick stores for the past eight years. Before that he was with the Fred Meyer grocery in Salem.

Mrs. Kerber is the former West Salem city treasurer, having served two terms. The sale of the market was handled by Walter Musgrave, realtor.

Many Contests Face Voters In Polk County

DALLAS — As Polk county voters go to the polls Friday they will be confronted with five contests which will include the offices of assessor, sheriff, county judge, county commissioner and county superintendent of schools. The results of these contests will assure a contest for each office with the exception of the district attorney and coroner next fall.

Commissioner Holds Interest
Main interest will apparently center on the republican contest to fill the office of county commissioner, now held by Harrison H. Brant, republican of Independence. The four candidates are L. C. Kinsey, route 2, Dallas; R. VanDenBoach, Pelee; Pearl H. Hughes, Dallas and C. L. Burbank, Pelee. James Manchus of the Oakdale district will be the democratic candidate.

The county judgeship developed a contest on the democratic ticket, with Herman Van Well, incumbent, opposed by M. Jack Power, Dallas. C. F. Hayes, Dallas, republican, is unopposed.

T. B. Hooker, republican incumbent, in the sheriff race will be opposed by Delbert V. Price, Monmouth. James L. Davidson, Dallas is the democratic candidate.

Some Unopposed
Offices where there is no primary contest but will furnish one in the fall election include county clerk, Edna M. Pitzer, republican, incumbent, and Harriet H. Enstad, democratic candidate; county treasurer, Tracy Staats, democrat, incumbent, and O. E. Anderson, republican, both of Dallas. On the non-partisan ticket, Josiah Wills, incumbent, for the office of county superintendent of schools, will be opposed by Mrs. Dorothea Johnston of Monmouth.

Two district offices are to be filled in justices of the peace, district 1 comprising Douglas, Willamina and Gold Creek precincts with Alvin Hulett of Grand Ronde as candidate, and district 2, the West Salem area with Elmer D. Cook, incumbent, as candidate.

Paul Bollman, coroner and R. S. Krenson, district attorney, are unopposed.

Edwards to Head Hollywood Lions; Ackerman Talks

Charles C. Edwards was elected president of the Hollywood Lions club Wednesday at the club's noon luncheon.

Other officers elected included Carl A. Gies, first vice president; Les Thomas, second vice president; E. D. Wallace, third vice president; John Langrell, secretary (re-elected); Dr. Harry Moran, treasurer (re-elected); Don Madison, talltwiner, and P. W. Hale, assistant; D. A. Drake, lion tamer, and Charles Cox, assistant, and G. C. Meeks and Ursel Wolfert, directors.

Glen C. Ackerman, republican candidate for governor, told the club he was sponsored by no clique or groups. He assured the club that he would carry eastern Oregon and the coastal area Friday in the primaries, but was doubtful as to Marion and Multnomah counties. Charles Schmitz, of the Salem Retail Credit bureau, who was to speak Wednesday, will address the club at next Wednesday's noon luncheon.

LIFEWALL

The new permanent wall covering of unmatched flexibility. 17 lovely decorator patterns & colors to choose from.

WHAT IS LIFEWALL? — An exciting new wall covering made of vinyl resin calendared to a specially treated impregnated base! It is durable, will not crack or peel, is abrasion and fade-resistant, and impervious to all ordinary stains including hot grease, oil, ink, dirt, syrup, catsup, etc. Exceptionally easy to clean, a whisk of a damp cloth makes LIFE-WALL bright and new.

HOW SUPPLIED? — LIFEWALL comes in rolls (approximately 40 sq. yds.) 50" wide—easy to handle in installation, and giving neater appearance with many seams eliminated!

WHERE USED? — LIFEWALL can advantageously be used in kitchens, bathrooms, halls, living rooms, game rooms—in fact for any room in the home! It is also unexcelled for all commercial installations including stores, offices, hospitals, restaurants, clubs and hotels.

HOW INSTALLED? — Because it is so very flexible, LIFEWALL conforms perfectly to any wall contour—an exclusive feature—including any angle inside or outside corner, without use of any expensive metal molding. It applies directly to surface without expensive preparatory work.

Lifewall is one of the most competitively priced permanent wall coverings.
