

One Member of Quadruplets Going Home

LATROBE, Pa., May 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zavada prepare to take home John Michael, male member of their three-months-old quadruplets. John waits patiently in his mother's arms as his parents wave goodbye to his three sisters (left to right) Barbara Rose, Bernadette Elizabeth and Ann Mary who will remain in the Latrobe, Pa., General Hospital until family moves into larger quarters. Conferees Begin Railroad Negotiations

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Representatives of railroads and unions begin negotiations in Washington toward a settlement of the dispute which forced government seizure. In group are (L to R) H. A. Benton, vice chairman, southeastern committee; D. P. Loomis, western committee chairman; H. A. Enoch, eastern committee chairman, representing the railroads; A. J. Glover, switchmen's union president; Alvanley Johnston, grand chief of engineers, and D. B. Robertson, firemen's and engine men's brotherhood president. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman.)

2 Sticks of Gum Costs Burglar 2-Year Term

One man was sentenced to the state penitentiary Thursday, another was sent there upon revocation of parole and a third was sent to the state hospital for presentence observation. All decrees were issued in Circuit Judge George M. Duncan's court.

Walter Paul Brokus, a transient May 6 by city police while burglarizing the General Grocery Co. warehouse here (for a loot of two sticks of chewing gum), was sentenced to two years in prison on a charge of burglary not in a dwelling. He had waived grand jury indictment and pleaded guilty.

Five-year probation given Eural Watt Tucker, Silverton, on April 19 on a charge of assault being armed with a dangerous weapon, was revoked by the court upon motion of the district attorney. Tucker pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness earlier this week in Salem municipal court. The April charge involved the cutting of Paul Hall of Silverton with a knife on April 9 near Silverton.

Raymond Densize, 457 S. Commercial st., was sent to the state hospital for 30 days' observation prior to sentencing on a charge of uttering and publishing a forged check, to which he pleaded guilty. He was arrested May 11 by Salem city police for forging two checks in the name of a former employer, E. A. Meola, 1790 S. High st. Also awaiting outcome of the observations is possible action on the six-months apople granted Densize in March on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

Turnidge Tells Lions of Work With Youths

Salem Lions club Thursday nominated officers and heard a talk on work with juvenile delinquents by J. H. Turnidge, Talbot area mint grower who has made a home at his farm for 10 boys recommended by the juvenile authorities.

Turnidge told the luncheon audience in the Marion hotel that his prescription of half work, half recreation, plus spiritual values of Christian bible teaching, has borne fruits after a year of trial.

He pointed out the boys are paid regular farm wages for their work, which occupies them half a day. They have freedom of the entire place, and though never punished arbitrarily they have a "court" system of weekly self-examination.

Edward Majek, chairman of the nominations committee announced the following nominations: For club president, Wesley Stewart and L. J. Stewart; first vice president, Floyd Bowers; Walter Dry, LaVerne Young; second vice president, Arthur Smithers; Denver Young and Leo Reimann; third vice president, Fred Starrett; Hollis Huntington, Robert Fischer; for two directors, Lee Haskin, Roger Cochran, Al Schaefer, Harry Miller, Estill Brunk, Stanley Smith.

All Boys in This Liberty Family

This happy lineup of five brothers represents the all-boy family of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vaughn of Salem route 4 in the Liberty area. The Vaughns have a 5-acre farm there. Left to right, the boys are Johnnie, age 8 months; Melvin, 21 months; Ronald, 3; Harold, 4; and Richard, 6. They are grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Vaughn, 78-A Lansing ave., who have three other grandsons but no granddaughters.

Mt. Angel Priest Observes Golden Anniversary

MT. ANGEL.—The Rev. Charles Moser, OSB, of St. Benedict Abbey observed the 50th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, Tuesday, May 18, in anticipation of the true ordination date, June 22, at which time he hopes to be in his native Switzerland. He will leave late this month to visit with relatives there.

Father Moser celebrated the solemn high mass in the abbey chapel Tuesday morning, assisted by older members of the abbey, and wearing the same vestments which were given him for his first mass 50 years ago. Rev. Maurus Snyder, OSB, senior monk of the abbey, was assistant priest; Rev. Bonaventure Huesser, OSB, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Portland, deacon; Rev. Paul Moser, a nephew of the jubilarian and chaplain of the Francis G. Keens home for the aged, Kearney, Neb., was sub-deacon; Rev. Jerome Wespe, OSB, veteran priest and prior of the abbey for many years, was master of ceremonies.

At noon there was a festive dinner in the monastery refectory in celebration of the event. Rt. Rev. Abbot Thomas Meier, OSB, gave a brief congratulatory talk to which Father Charles responded.

Many of the priests stationed in near-by parishes came to the abbey for the jubilee. Many friends and well-wishes from among the laity also attended.

Father Charles spent most of his life as a priest in missionary work from 1900 to 1929 among the Indians on the west coast of Vancouver Island in British Columbia, building his own churches and houses, doing his own cooking and serving the Indian from teacher in manual labor as well as in books and spiritual matters, to doctor, advisor and friend generally. He also wrote two books about his experiences among the Indians. In more recent years he assisted with the work of the Benedictine Press and conducted parish work in various parts of Oregon.

Two Schools Eye NW Spot

FOREST GROVE, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Two colleges have applied for the Northwest Athletic conference vacancy caused by the resignation of the College of Puget Sound. Eastern Oregon College of Education and Oregon College of Education at Monmouth have applied, said D. Otis Smith, Pacific university faculty representative and former president of the conference. The conference will take up the matter at Walla Walla Friday.

WEATHER HURTS PORTLAND, May 20 (AP)—Oregon's cold spring weather may mean fewer pheasants for the fall hunting season. John McKean, state game commission upland birds chief, said wild brood chicks could not be expected to survive the weather or escape predators because of retarded cover growth.

JACK GETS OFFER PHILADELPHIA, May 20 (AP)—Promoter Herman Taylor said today he had offered Beau Jack a $20,000 guarantee and 22½ per cent of the gate to meet Ike Williams in a lightweight championship bout.

GOLFERS PREP PENDELTON, Ore., May 20 (AP)—Some of the northwest's top golfers begin warmups here tomorrow for the second annual $2000 Pendleton open tournament Saturday, Sunday and Monday.
