SCHOOL FUND RULED OUT AS PAYMENT OF MEMBERSHIP DUES

District school boards having representation in the Oregon School Boards association cannot pay membership dues out of school district funds, Attorney General George Neuner held Thursday. Neuner said school boards desiring to use public funds for this purpose should seek permission from the legislature, the only source for such authority. The opinion was requested by Rex Putnam, state superintendent of public instruction.

6 DISEASES INCREASE

PORTLAND, May 20 (AP)—A half-dozen diseases are striking more Oregonians this year than last, the state board of health has reported. Prevalence of influenza, dysentery, measles, infantile paralysis and whooping cough has increased.
