

Panhellenic Formal On Saturday

Social highlight on the Willamette university campus this week-end will be the annual spring Panhellenic formal dance Saturday night in the school gymnasium. Attending the affair will be members of Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Delta Gamma and Phi Beta Phi sororities and their dates. Richard Dix and his orchestra of Portland will play for the affair and the theme of the dance is "It's Dream Time."

Guests will enter the hall through an old fashioned gold pocket watch. The false ceiling will be dark blue with sparkling stars and a crescent moon. The walls will be light blue with dancing couples and the orchestra will play before a silver drape background covered with floating clouds. Mural of Winkin', Blinkin' and Nod, a sandman and other night scenes will highlight one wall. On the ceiling, five foot glass with glimmering sand.

Patrons and patronesses will be the four house mothers, Mrs. William E. Kirk, Mrs. Elizabeth Hibber, Mrs. Deseret Schaeffer, and Mrs. Paul Weyrauch. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bates, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Withey. Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will be honored guests at the dance.

Dinner to Precede Dance

Coeds Reveal Betrothals On Campus

Two more Willamette university coeds have added their names to the ever-growing list of brides-elect.

The engagement of Miss Melva Williamson to Paul Cookingham was announced at the Delta Gamma annual spring breakfast on Sunday. The wedding will take place on June 27 at the Calvary Baptist church in Salem, after which they will leave on a six weeks trip.

Miss Williamson graduated from Willamette last June and served as president of the Delta Gamma house. She is now teaching music at the Roseburg high school. Mr. Cookingham is physical education director at the Salem YMCA and next fall will hold a coaching and teaching position at Franklin high school in Portland. His fiancee will teach in one of the Portland elementary schools.

News Told at Hall
The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Gutteridge and Albert R. McMullen was announced recently at Frederickson hall. Miss Gutteridge, daughter of Mrs. Rose Gutteridge of Estacada, is a junior at Willamette university, majoring in history. Mr. McMullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McMullen of Taft, also attends Willamette where he is completing his sophomore year as a pre-law student. He is affiliated with Phi Alpha fraternity and was recently elected second vice president of the student body for the year 1948-1949.

The wedding has tentatively been set for June, 1949.

Mrs. Skiff Feted By War Mothers

The American War Mothers enjoyed a social afternoon Tuesday when they met at the home of Mrs. Bertha Viesko, 1343 South Liberty for a no-host luncheon. The tables were decorated with spring flowers and there were 31 guests present. Games were a diversion during the afternoon.

Mrs. Ada V. Skiff celebrated her birthday and was honor guest of the War Mothers at this meeting. A birthday cake was cut by Mrs. Skiff for her friends, and she read a poem as her birthday message.
