

Vacationists On Holiday Weekend

The holidays weekend will be the occasion for many Salem couples to vacation at the beach or mountains. There will also be many visitors in the capital for the holidays.

Four Salem couples and their children left Friday afternoon for Neskeon to spend the holiday weekend at their summer homes. In the group were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrall and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown, John and Clifford, and Mr. and Mrs. James Walton, Jeff and Elizabeth. Friday night Dr. Purvine arranged a surprise party at his home in honor of his wife on her birthday with the other three couples attending the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Schramm will spend the weekend at their summer place on the Little North Fork of the Santiam and will have as their guests their son, Philip, and Miss Eleanor Simonson of San Francisco, both Oregon State college students.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hadley will be in Pullman, Wash., this weekend to attend commencement exercises on the Washington State college campus. Mr. Hadley's brother, Herbert, and sister, Marilyn, are both members of the graduating class. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley of Longview, Wash., will join the Wayne Hadleys in Pullman for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrow and children, Elaine, David and Dale, have left for Seattle to spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Hogberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feike and children, Mary and Dennis, will be in Astoria for the weekend as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slottee.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens, son, Robert, and Gary Tibbitts are spending the holiday at their mountain home at Black Rock. Vacationing at Neskeon for the holiday weekend at their beach place are Mr. and Mrs. Carlton J. McLeod and daughter, Franca. They will have as their guests Russell Renner and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lantz and children of Woodburn, formerly of Salem.

Visitors for Weekend
Visiting in Salem for the weekend will be Mrs. Grace Shoemaker of Portland, who will be the guest of her nephew and niece, Dr. and Mrs. William Lidbeck, at their country home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooley will have as their holiday weekend guests their daughter, Margie, and her fiancé, Jack Maulding of Tillamook, both University of Oregon students.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wharton for the Memorial weekend at their country place, Red Hill farm, are Mr. and Mrs. Orlando W. Davidson of Portland.

Mrs. Mildred Boyington of Oregon City is arriving today to spend the weekend with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Alexander will be home from the University of Oregon for the holiday weekend as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard and Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander.

Miss Marilyn Hill has as her guest for the weekend at the home of her parents, the Elmore Hills, her Gamma Phi Beta sorority sister, Miss June Harrison of San Francisco. Both are Oregon State college students.

Betrothal Is Told

BETHEL—Revealed Thursday night was the engagement of Miss Mina Lee Spranger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Spranger, to Donald Sandau of St. Louis, Mo., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sandau of St. Louis. Mrs. Spranger entertained with a birthday party honoring her daughter and as the bride-elect greeted her guests at the door. She presented each with a nosegay containing the announcement. The wedding is planned to take place next year.

The evening was spent informally. Solos were given by Miss Grace Ashford, accompanied by Miss Glennis Allen. Mrs. Spranger read a letter received from Mrs. Ernest Arneson, who with her husband, is touring in Norway and visited Mrs. Spranger's childhood home near Oslo and met her relatives. The decorations were pink and white rhododendrons. The cake was of heart shaped design bearing the names of the engaged couple.

Mrs. George Hain and Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson assisted in serving.

Bidden to greet the bride-elect were Misses Jean Hain, Grace Ashford, Glennis Allen, Dolores Spellbrink, Mrs. Donald Mader, Mrs. J. A. Hain, Mrs. George Hain, Mrs. W. L. Creech, Mrs. Edwin Walker, Mrs. Carl Raetz, Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson, Mrs. Arthur Spellbrink, Mrs. Ray Marchand, Mrs. J. G. Lauderback and Mrs. Nile Hilborn.

The bride-to-be graduated from Salem high school and is employed in the state offices. Her fiancé served in the army during the war.
