To Register For Camp Kilowan

Registration of Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls for sessions at Camp Kilowan located near Falls City gained momentum last week as opening date, June 30, neared and schools closed for vacation. A number of the six weekly periods are already booked to capacity except for Blue Bird units, Mrs. George Bagnall, executive for the organization in the Willamette area, reported in stressing importance of parents registering their girls as soon as possible.

Accommodations at Kilowan are available for 84 girls each week of camping season from the end of June to August 11. The wooded camp site will undergo final alterations and cleaning on three consecutive Sundays, June 6, 13 and 20, when parties of parents of Salem Camp Fire Girls and other members of their families meet at Kilowan to complete work started this spring by dads of Dallas and Corvallis girl campers. Dayl Burres is camp chairman for the Salem district and Fred Ramsey, Dallas, heads camp activities for Willamette area council.

A new service road is under construction through the camp and other improvements to be completed by opening day include three new latrines, one of which is for male guests. Work parties will make numerous general repairs on camp buildings during the three work days, Mr. Burres stated.

Pre-camp training for counselors is scheduled for June 27 through June 29 at Kilowan.

The Englewood Women's club will meet Friday, June 4, at the home of Mrs. Earl Strickland, 265 Park ave. A dessert luncheon will be served at 1:15 p.m. The guest speaker will be Mrs. A. F. DeLapinaisse of Hubbard.
