

Miss Giesy Bride of Friday

Before a setting of pastel flowers and tapers Miss Joyce Irene Giesy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank George, became the bride of Stanley Charles Schofield, son of Mrs. Beatrice Schofield, a ceremony at the First Congregational church Friday night. It was at 7 o'clock that the Rev. Seth R. Huntington performed the nuptials. Reid Shelton was the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich the organist. Lighting the candles were Mrs. Ernes Korb and Mrs. Claude Case, who wore blue gowns and clasps of white daisies in their hair.

Of ice blue slipper satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long pointed sleeves edged in lace, a fitted bodice and court train. Her veil of ice blue illusion cascaded from a halo of blue satin and orange blossoms. Mr. George gave the bride in marriage.

Miss Maxine Richards was the maid of honor and Mrs. Elmer George the bridesmaid. They wore identical frocks of blue taffeta made similar to the bride's only with short sleeves and matching mitts. Their hats were of blue taffeta trimmed with forget-me-nots. The honor attendant carried a cascade bouquet of Better Times roses with a shower of fuchsias and the bridesmaid carried rhododendrons with a fuchsia shower. Murray M. Schofield stood with the groom's best man and usher, and were Gordon Hewitt and Richard Eckley.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. George wore a navy blue two-piece dress with chartreuse trim and blue accessories. Mrs. Schofield attended her son's marriage in a turquoise blue gown with black sequin and black accessories. Their corsages were of roses.

A reception was held in the fireplace room. Mrs. William Peterson cut the bride's cake and pouring were Mrs. Maurice Beal of Portland and Mrs. Wallace Holloway of McMinnville. Assisting were Mrs. Earl Morgan and Miss Betty Schofield. After a wedding trip to Nevada and California the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 820 Ford street after June 15. For traveling the bride donned a navy blue bolero ensemble with grey hat and accessories.

Shower for Miss Randall

Miss Peggy Sears and Miss Miriam Shellenberger will be hostesses for a bridal party Monday night at the North Winter street home of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Sears, in compliment to Miss Joan Randall, June bride-elect of James R. Phillips.

A kitchen shower will feté the bride-to-be and after an informal evening refreshments will be served by the hostesses.

Honoring Miss Randall will be Miss Suzanne Small, Miss Dolores Clement, Miss Joanne Adolph, Miss Barbara Causey, Mrs. Edward Salstrom, Mrs. Courtney Jones, Mrs. Ted Ogdahl, Mrs. Ernest Hobbs, Miss Shellenberger and Miss Sears.

Trio a Feature of Recital

Mr. and Mrs. Dalbert Jepsen will present their violin and piano students in recital tonight at the Roberts' studio at 8 o'clock. A special feature will be numbers by a trio including Elaine Megquier, violin, student of Mr. Jepsen; Lorraine Bagley, cello, student of Emil Van Del; and Toni DeSart, piano, student of Mrs. Ronald Craven.

Organ, violin and piano numbers will be given by Professor T. B. Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Jepsen. The interested public is invited to attend.

The Cop-Ettes will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Glenn Bowman, 795 Bneys avenue, at 1:30 o'clock. At the last meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Sloan assisting hostesses were Mrs. Gene Kennedy and Mrs. Harley Cordray.

Mrs. Emery Hobbs entertained at bridge and a late supper Thursday night at her Jefferson street home for the pleasure of her club. Additional guests were Mrs. Maurice Saffron and Mrs. Wallace Hug.

Visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman this week is his mother, Mrs. F. G. Hoffman of Boise, who came down to attend the graduation of her granddaughter, Miss Jeanne Hoffman at Salem high school Thursday night. She will return to Boise by plane next week.
