Gentzkow's Wallop Rings Up Victory

By Al Lightner His native Salem followers have long been waiting for his bat to speak with the authoritativeness that earned him a 361 batting average and 129 runs batted in with Albuquerque last season, and last night at Waters park Dick Gentzkow's hit willow finally let out a scream when it was needed most. Richard rapped out a mighty double in the ninth, with bases loaded and two out, to corral the Senators a 5-4 verdict over the Vancouver Caps.

That one single explosion by the former village softball whiz amounted to a handful of altercations. It broke a Solon losing streak at three straight, pulled the locals out of the nasty seventh place berth they had landed in Thursday night, won Big Jim Olson his seventh straight victory, made Bill Brenner's Caps wonder if they were living right and sent 1.541 customers home all aglee.

Dick's bat has had about as much punch in it as a glass of warm water this semester, but the drought couldn't go on forever. He unloaded on a 3-and-2 pitch, rifling it into left - center to climax a five-run ninth inning and hand Caps Flinger Bob Snyder a

Snyder went into the ninth in front 4-0, and had yielded only four hits to that point. He got Mel Nunes on a fly ball after Al Spaeter had opened the frame with a single to right. Still no damage when Sinovic doubled sharply past third, sending Spaeter to third. The throng stomped for more, however, when Eddie Barr walked, filling the bases, one out. Bus McMillan was inserted to bat for Jim Wert and tapped a bouncer at Bill Reese on first. But Bill reluctantly cooperated by booting the thing, Spaeter scoring and the bases still jammed. Cal McIrvin batted for Joe Gedzius and went down swinging, two out. Bob Stumpf, another who hasn't been too productive at the plate since joining the club, immediately poled a single into right, however, and both Sinovic and Barr scoot-

Snyder prolonged his fate by walking Olson, filling up the bases again. Then up strode Gentzkow, moved to the top of the lineup by Manager Jack Wilson who shuffled his entire batting order last five runs in the first inning and night Dick fouled off three pitchthree pitches and watched three more sail by for called balls. Then he straightened out a Snyder fast ball that Left-fielder Orrin Snyder made a desperate dive for, but couldn't get in left-center.

Olson probably would have sold two nights. Salem had managed to threaten Snyder earlier, but three Vancouver double plays helped ease tightening situations for him.

Gentzkow's ultimate revenge was doubly sweet, for in the six to he had played two base-hit drives badly in right field, the combination adding up to Vancouver's seeond run . . . Victoria in tonight to open a three-game stand, at 8:15. It will be Lefty Cal McIrvin on the hill for the Solons, and he'll be after his seventh win too.

Dick Sinovic ended his brief batting slump by banging two hits Ray Captures minth inning jam. Stumpf had a pair of bingles, also, and his second was just as important as was was just as important as was Gentzkow's game - winner. ### Midgets in 2nd 'Bowl' Meet; New Record Eyed

The roaring racing runts return to Hollywood Bowl tonight for their second speed program of the season, and when the assortment of time trials, helmet dash, heat sprints and main events is completed, at least one new track record likely will be racked up. That would be for a single shot around the $10,000 paved oval. The mark now standing is :16.95 seconds, notched last season by Clarence Smith of Portland. The existence of more power and class in the expensive little racing machines this year is expected to better that mark.

The time-ins start at 7:30 o'clock, and an hour later the regular races will commence. Barring unexpected detours by the flood up north, many more cars and pilots will be here than there were for last week's inaugural.

The drivers will find the track in much better shape than it was in last week, as workmen have been busy since then erasing the flaws inflicted by a rough winter, Also, Promoter Jimmy Ryan has had crews busy tidying up the parking and seating premises for the spec-

Veteran Paul Gehrman and Jim Farmer will be the two hurlers the Caps will face. Lewis will counter with Pete Jonas tonight, and probably Lou Scrivens Sunday. Charley Sauvain, Carl Gustafson and Harry Richards, all Oregon State college players, won't join the Caps until next week, First-sacker Gale (Busher) Smith will be with the team for the Bend series, however, as will Big Len Younce outfielder who missed the last two games. The balance of Lewis' lineup will be made up of Wally Flager, Ted Kerr, Roy Harrington, Lee Shinn, Earl Hampton and Johnny Kolb.
